Los Angeles Rams

Ownership & Executive Staff Bios

E. Stanley Kroenke's journey to bring professional football back to Los Angeles culminated on Jan. 12, 2016 when National Football League owners ratified his proposal to return the Rams to Southern California.

Eleven years after NFL owners unanimously approved Kroenke to assume sole ownership of the franchise in 2010, he celebrated the opening of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park – a 298-acre development with a 70,240-seat stadium as its crown jewel, which hosted Super Bowl LVI in 2022. The Rams culminated the stadium's first season with fans in attendance with a world championship won in their home stadium, in their home city of Los Angeles. That year, Kroenke became the first sports team owner to win a Super Bowl and another major pro sports title in any given calendar year.

The state-of-the-art stadium rises from nearly 100 feet below ground on the former site of the Hollywood Park Racetrack and serves as the home to the Los Angeles Rams and Los Angeles Chargers. Additionally, the multi-purpose project serves as a West Coast campus for the National Football League, houses NFL Media's headquarters, and features hosting capabilities for future Super Bowls, NFL Drafts, and Pro Bowls.

"I think what Stan has built here and done here, in his creativity with this whole development, this probably is going to redefine this area of Los Angeles for the next century," Chargers Owner/ Chairman Dean Spanos told The Associated Press. "It's going to be something that L.A. is going to be very proud to have."

Equipped with decades of real estate development experience, a passion for sports and a one-of-a-kind vision, Kroenke orchestrated the Rams' return home by privately financing the construction of a world-class stadium befitting the culture and style of Los Angeles.

"Stan has the vision, resources, inspiration and creativity to create the right setting for the NFL in Los Angeles," said Dallas Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones. "I have great admiration for his talent and skills, and I have great confidence in his leadership ability in guiding our league back into this very important community. He sees the big picture, knows how to do things on the big stage, and he knows how to do what's best for the long term future. Stan Kroenke is a valuable asset to the National Football League."

In the months leading up to the opening of SoFi Stadium, Kroenke was named Los Angeles Business Journal's Business Person of the Year for 2020. The Rams' return to Los Angeles was named 2016's top sports moment at the 12th Annual L.A. Sports Awards.

DELIVERING A GLOBAL DESTINATION

In a marriage of sports, retail, commercial and residential development, Kroenke constructed a 3.1 million-square-foot stadium expandable up to 100,000 seats that anchors an urban village, complete with a 6,000-seat performance venue called The YouTube Theater, 300 boutique hotel rooms, 2,500 modern residences, more than 1.5 million square feet of retail, office, conference and meeting space. More than 20 acres of public parks, open space, pedestrian walkways and bicycle paths will divide the district into thirds, offering residents and visitors a regional gathering place in the center of the Los Angeles basin.

"(The) project is uniquely tied to Kroenke's vision of where global sports and entertainment are heading and his zeal to be at the forefront," sports reporter Liz Clarke detailed in The Washington Post in 2019.

In addition to hosting NFL games, SoFi Stadium and the district at Hollywood Park has transformed the area into a year-round sports and entertainment destination that delivers an unparalleled experience for residents and visitors. Beyond Super Bowl LVI in 2022, the stadium has been awarded the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2028 Olympics and hosted the College Football Playoff National Championship and Wrestlemania in 2023.

The NFL recently opened NFL Los Angeles, a 450,000 square foot Class A building with 214,063 square feet of office space and 74,922 square feet of studio and support space to serve as the home for NFL Network, NFL.com, NFL RedZone, the NFL app and many other department's supporting the league's media and business operations. In addition to office and studio space situated next to SoFi Stadium, the facility features NFL Media's first outdoor studio which hosts audiences and includes an outdoor field for filming purposes as well as public use.

"As home to the Rams and Chargers, and now NFL Los Angeles, SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park will be an attraction for NFL fans year-round," said NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "Thanks to Stan's vision, we know Hollywood Park will be the place to be – not just for football, but for entertainment and events, for living and for working. We are excited for NFL Los Angeles to join this transformative project."

The NFL's largest stadium was designed to reflect the climate, characteristics and culture of Southern California, and to capitalize on the site's near-perfect weather. A transparent roof canopy covering 19 acres was developed. Under the lightweight roof made of ETFE, all sides of the building remain open, allowing for a natural integration between the indoor and outdoor public spaces. "That stadium is off the charts," said Al Michaels, the play-by-play voice for NBC's Sunday Night Football. "It's very different. It's very special."

Kroenke and project developers officially broke ground on SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park on Nov. 17, 2016.

ENRICHING THE COMMUNITY

Within months of relocating to Southern California, Kroenke's Rams instituted their first local community improvement project in partnership with the Inglewood Unified School District as a continuation of the team's commitment to service.

"The (community improvement) project, being completed through a grant from the Rams, is a visible manifestation of Stan Kroenke, the NFL and the Rams organization to the school children of Inglewood," said Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts. "The Rams have shouted, 'Inglewood kids count,' and I salute them for their investment in the learning environment for our children."

Under Kroenke's leadership, philanthropic activities remain essential to the mission of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. Project developers have been committed to positively impacting the Greater Los Angeles region and the City of Inglewood through world-class entertainment, outreach activities, the creation of new jobs, and local revenues.

"In shifting the center of gravity of West Coast sports to Inglewood, Kroenke has elevated the profile of the community and seeded the area with opportunity for years to come," added Farmer. "A project of this magnitude changes the landscape both literally and economically."

In partnership with the City of Inglewood, Kroenke committed to a 100 percent union job site with priority given to residents of Inglewood and designated local zip codes. Since breaking ground in 2016, more than 17,000 people worked on-site to help construct SoFi Stadium. In order to further create job opportunities for members of the local community, a 15 percent Inglewood resident apprenticeship goal was established to help workers develop professional and trade skills. At the completion of the stadium construction in Summer of 2020, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses had received more than $750 million in construction contracts and local area residents have received more than $93 million in wages.

As a whole, the City of Inglewood's general fund is expected to receive tens of millions in annual revenue from SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. According to initial estimates, the city is projected to receive $13 million in sales tax revenue during construction from equipment and materials purchased alone. Inglewood is also benefitting through other avenues such as ticket taxes, sales tax from retail operations, property taxes and a hotel occupancy tax. These funds help balance the city's budget, improve and expand city services and infrastructure, enhance public safety and maintain open green space. Revenues from Kroenke's entertainment district also fund new after-school sports programs among other after-school activities for Inglewood's youth.

In recognition of their leadership in giving back to the greater Los Angeles region, Kroenke's Rams were honored in 2019 by both the Anti-Defamation League Los Angeles with their Corporate Leadership Award and by Make-A-Wish Tri-Counties as The Wish Champion Award.

AN INTERNATIONAL SPORTS LEADER

Regarded as one of the world's leading sports proprietors, Kroenke's teams have won titles in the NFL, NBA, NHL, MLS, and the National Lacrosse League. Kroenke's sports holdings include Arsenal FC (Barclays English Premiere League), which won its 13th FA Cup in 2017. From 2000-2014, Kroenke owned the NBA's Denver Nuggets and the NHL's Colorado Avalanche, which are now a part of a family trust. Kroenke's Denver-based company, Kroenke Sports & Entertainment (KSE), owns the Colorado Rapids of Major League Soccer and the Colorado Mammoth of the National Lacrosse League. KSE was recognized as one of Sports Business Journal's "Power Players" earlier this year. Kroenke also owns Altitude Sports & Entertainment, which produces Rams preseason games.

Kroenke's teams won four championships (Los Angeles Rams, Colorado Mammoth, Colorado Avalanche and Denver Nuggets) in a three-year span. His three different big four sports league championships in a 18-month span is unprecedented in professional sports.

"It is evident that Stan knows how to achieve success in the sports world," Rams General Manager Les Snead said. "His teams have won championships in five different sports and he has experience in building a contender. The success we have experienced through the NFL Draft and free agency would not have been possible without Stan's support and his willingness to take risks to build our team."

On Jan. 12, 2017, Kroenke hired Sean McVay – the youngest head coach in modern NFL history – to lead the Rams. Since onboarding McVay, the Rams have five playoff berths and two Super Bowl appearances, winning Super Bowl LVI. McVay has a 70-45 regular season record and is 7-4 in the playoffs. He has led the Rams to six winning seasons with three NFC West titles. McVay is the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl at the age of 36 and the youngest head coach to win AP Coach of the Year at 31 in 2018. He is the second-fastest coach in franchise history to reach the 50-win mark and is the second-youngest youngest head coach in the NFL despite entering his eighth season at the helm.

Additionally, McVay's 33 wins in his first three years is the franchise's most wins since the 1974-76 seasons, and his record through the first four seasons (43-21 in 64 regular season games) of his coaching tenure is amongst the best start of all head coaches hired since 2000.

According to The New York Times, 1997 was the first season to allow NFL owners to own cross-sport franchises. Among current NFL ownership, only two have had three teams to win a playoff game/series in the same year in North America. Kroenke was the latest to accomplish the feat as the Avalanche and Nuggets also made remarkable playoff runs during the 2018-19 season. Both the Avalanche and Nuggets secured first-round playoff wins, and Los Angeles advanced to the club's fourth Super Bowl (2018-19 season). The late Paul Allen's Seattle Seahawks (NFL), Portland Trail Blazers (NBA) and Seattle Sounders FC (MLS) previously did so in 2014.

Kroenke currently serves on the NFL's Broadcast Committee and has worked on multiple league committees, including the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee. He also worked alongside his fellow owners to reach a new Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players Association in 2011.

In 2022, Kroenke was one of 15 exceptional business, civic and cultural leaders from across North America to receive Horatio Alger Award honors, which is awarded annually to individuals who have succeeded despite facing adversities, and who have remained committed to higher education and charitable efforts in their communities.

E. Stanley Kroenke, named after baseball legends Enos Slaughter and Stan Musial, was born in Cole Camp, Mo., and grew up in Mora, Mo. Kroenke and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh, Vice Chairman of KSE and KSE UK. Kroenke holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and he is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (2009 Enshrinement Class).

Kevin Demoff

College: Dartmouth
NFL Year: 20
Rams Year: 16

Kevin Demoff is in his first year as the President of Team and Media Operations for Kroenke Sports & Entertainment and his 16th year as the team president for the Los Angeles Rams. Demoff oversees operations of all KSE teams including the Denver Nuggets (NBA), Colorado Avalanche (NHL), Colorado Rapids (MLS), and Colorado Mammoth (NLL), as well as operations of all KSE Media properties including Altitude Sports and Entertainment, KSE Radio, and Outdoor Sportsman Group.

In his role, Demoff also serves as the Rams' top front office executive and liaison to owner and chairman, Stan Kroenke, on all organizational matters.

After serving on the working group that helped Kroenke return the Rams – Los Angeles' original professional sports team – home to L.A., Demoff continues to play a significant role in delivering on Kroenke's vision to design and construct Hollywood Park, the 298-acre sports and entertainment district in Inglewood that features SoFi Stadium, the home of the Rams. Beyond the stadium, the campus includes the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater, an office complex that is the home of the NFL's West Coast headquarters, a retail district that is under development, and is currently the largest entitled real-estate project in Southern California.

In addition to the entertainment district at Hollywood Park, Demoff has led the efforts for the construction of the team's practice facility in Woodland Hills. Demoff continues to collaborate with local officials and front office staff to create a state-of-the-art training facility and team headquarters surrounded by a sports and entertainment development.

Demoff works closely with General Manager Les Snead and Head Coach Sean McVay and was instrumental in delivering on Kroenke's promise of bringing a Super Bowl Championship to Los Angeles, with the Rams making history and topping the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20 at SoFi Stadium. Not only were the 2021 Rams only the second team in 56 years to play in (and win) the Super Bowl in their home stadium, but the they were the first team in NFL history to host the AFC or NFC Championship in the same stadium where the Super Bowl would also be played.

Bringing Super Bowl LVI and LA28 Oympics to Los Angeles
Immediately on the heels of the National Football League's historic return to Los Angeles in 2016, Demoff and the Rams helped lead a regional effort to bring the Super Bowl to SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. Micronomics projected in 2021 that Super Bowl LVI would have an economic impact up to $477 million across the greater Los Angeles region. Demoff and the Rams have also joined forces with the LA24 Olympic Bid Committee to help deliver the 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games to Los Angeles. In addition, SoFi Stadium hosted the College Football Playoff final and Wrestlemania last year.

Beyond the impact of the Super Bowl and other major events that are now hosted in LA and Inglewood, the Hollywood Park development is expected to generate hundreds of millions in new annual economic activity across the region. During construction, there were upwards of 3,500 construction workers on-site daily, with Inglewood residents given priority placement, and more than 17,000 workers have stepped on the stadium site since it broke ground in November 2016. In order to further create job opportunities for members of the local community, a 15 percent Inglewood resident apprenticeship goal for construction was established to help workers develop professional and trade skills. During construction, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses had received more than $754 million in construction contracts and local area residents earned more than $129 million in wages. In addition, in partnership with the Anti-Recidivism Coalition (ARC) and 2nd Call, more than 100 union workers who were previously incarcerated found employment opportunities during the construction of SoFi Stadium. Once fully operating, the stadium and retail components together are expected to generate thousands of additional jobs with long-term regional benefits.

A Leader in Diversity and Inclusion
In Demoff's tenure with the Rams, he has shaped the club's business efforts with a focus on delivering a best-in-class experience for fans and partners, building a team that reflects Los Angeles, and increasing the club's presence in the community. With a strong commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, Demoff has intentionally built one of the most diverse front offices in sports. The Rams rank in the top quartile of all NFL teams in terms of racial and gender diversity across the organization. As a result, Demoff was awarded the Daniel M. Rooney Lifetime Achievement Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance in 2023 and was named one of Sports Business Journal's 2023 ALL-IN Leaders in Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. The San Fernando Valley Business Journal also recognized the Rams with a 2022 Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Award and the LA Chamber of Commerce honored Demoff with the Distinguished Business Leader Award. Looking to expand that commitment beyond Los Angeles, Demoff helped found the Black Sports Business Symposium, which aims to create new opportunities for diverse professionals in the world of sports and to increase Black representation in the industry. He also regularly supports programs aimed at increasing diversity across the NFL, including the Ozzie Newsome General Manager Forum and Quarterback Coaching Summit.

Demoff's commitment to DEI also extends to the team's community efforts which are largely focused on providing access and opportunity for young people from Black and Brown communities in Los Angeles. Each year, the Rams partner with LA Promise Fund to provide paid internships to deserving students from Los Angeles public high schools and expose them to career opportunities in professional sports. The Rams also became the first team in professional sports to partner on a corporate residency program with College Track, whose mission is to support students with limited resources to chart their course to and through college. The Rams have created a season-long mentorship program, Pathways to Success, which pairs minority students with Rams front office members and provides a variety of professional workshops and job shadowing opportunities. In 2021, the team created the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship to provide up to four years of financial support for 13 students from under-resourced communities who are among the first in their families to pursue post-secondary education. The scholarship, introduced in honor of the 75th anniversary of Washington becoming the first Black player signed by an NFL team in the modern era, also includes advisement support from Fulfillment Fund, an educational non-profit partner of the Rams.

Making an Impact on the Los Angeles Community
Demoff has spearheaded the organization's efforts to become one of the strongest philanthropic partners in professional sports. That focus has led the team to receive numerous awards for their charitable efforts as they continue to become part of the fabric of the greater Los Angeles region. Under Demoff's guidance, the Rams have focused on addressing education inequities, food insecurity, homelessness, community-police relations and youth justice.

Community pillars for the organization are the Watts Rams and North East Lincoln Rams youth football teams, which are coached by officers from the Los Angeles Police Department. The Los Angeles Rams formally adopted the Watts Rams in 2019 and the North East Lincoln Rams in 2022 to use the game of football to help bridge the gap between law enforcement and communities of color. The team also worked with Inglewood Parks and Recreation to rename their youth flag football league the Inglewood Rams. Each of the 26 teams in the Inglewood Rams flag football league is named after a current Rams player with Inglewood police officers serving as coaches and mentors.

Demoff also serves on the executive board of the United Way of Greater Los Angeles, and since 2017 he has served as the chair of its annual campaign which helps United Way transform lives and communities by creating pathways out of poverty for the most vulnerable residents through education, housing and financial stability. Each year, the Rams team up with United Way of Greater Los Angeles to host a 5K family run/walk to raise public awareness and funds to end homelessness. The event, which was renamed Walk United LA in 2021, aims to rally the community to help provide housing, education and opportunity for all. Demoff led the effort to bring WalkUnited LA to SoFi Stadium in 2021. Since 2019, the event has raised more than $3.7 million and the Rams and United Way will host the 2024 WalkUnited LA at SoFi Stadium again this year as part of United Way's Centennial.

In addition to these efforts, the Rams annually host the Taste of the Rams event, which raises money to address the food insecurity of 1 in 5 Angelenos. Introduced in 2016, the event has raised more than $1,400,000 for LA Regional Food Bank and has allowed them to provide nearly five million meals to Angelenos in need.

Demoff also joined the board of City Year Los Angeles, an organization that mobilizes AmeriCorps members for a year of full-time service in underserved communities to serve as tutors, mentors and role models for students to help them graduate high school, college and become career-ready young professionals.

Spearheading Crisis Relief and Recovery Efforts
When the COVID-19 pandemic hit the country in March 2020, the Rams partnered with KABC on a "Te'LA'thon for Los Angeles," which raised $2.2 million to benefit both LA Regional Food Bank and United Way of Greater Los Angeles to help those affected by COVID-19. The organization also made a commitment to fund monthly mobile food distributions in Black and Brown communities including two mobile distributions at SoFi Stadium that provided more than 7,000 families with nutritious food. In March of 2021, Demoff teamed with former Los Angeles Unified School District Superintendent Austin Beutner and the Rams official health partner, Cedars-Sinai, to make Hollywood Park a vaccination site for LAUSD teachers and staff. In two months, approximately 17,000 vaccines were administered to help reopen schools in the safest way possible.

In the wake of unimaginable tragedy that struck the Southern California region in 2018, the Rams hosted the Kansas City Chiefs at the LA Memorial Coliseum for a game that currently stands as the highest scoring Monday Night Football game ever and will be remembered for bringing LA Together. After a mass shooting and wildfires affected and displaced thousands of residents in the Southern California region, the Rams stood in solidarity with Angelenos to honor and pay tribute to affected individuals, their families and first responders who worked tirelessly to keep the region safe. Under Demoff's leadership, the Rams wrapped their arms around the community in a number of ways including giving away thousands of game tickets to those affected by the tragedies and honoring victims and the community through in-game elements. The Rams partnered with CBS-2 and United Way of Greater Los Angeles on a telethon that raised more than $2.1 million benefiting the relief efforts, and in addition more than $250,000 was raised for a variety of charities supporting the relief efforts through in-game 50/50 raffles, jersey auctions and player ticket donations tied to the game.

Corporate Citizenship

The Rams have received multiple accolades recognizing their impact on the greater Los Angeles region. The Salvation Army recently recognized the team with their annual Humanitarian Award and the Los Angeles Business Journal recognized them with the "Business Angel of the Year" award as part of their 2022 Nonprofit and Corporate Citizenship Awards. Additionally, the LA Chamber of Commerce honored the organization with the Distinguished Business Leader Award and the Valley Industry & Commerce Association (VICA) inducted the Rams into the 2022 San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame.

Reinforcing the Rams' commitment to the Los Angeles community, Demoff was selected to sit on the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce's CEO Council. He also serves on multiple boards including the LA Coalition for the Economy & Jobs, the Los Angeles Sports Council, and the Los Angeles Sports and Entertainment Commission, as well as its philanthropic initiative, ChampionLA. Additionally, Demoff is part of the American Cancer Society's CEOs Against Cancer, which is a partnership of the world's leading CEOs and the American Cancer Society dedicated to eliminating unnecessary deaths and suffering from cancer. He also serves as the Co-Chair of The Los Angeles Coalition for the Economy & Jobs, an independent, bipartisan membership organization established to bring together leaders from the region's business, labor, academic and nonprofit communities to advance sound policy initiatives that will help grow the economy and create quality jobs throughout the L.A. region.

Demoff was recently awarded Executive of the Year for the 2023 LA Sports Awards. Los Angeles Business Journal also recognized Demoff for five consecutive years on its annual LA500 list, honoring the most influential leaders and executives in Los Angeles. In 2016, he was recognized by the Sports Business Journal as one of its "Forty under 40" class members and in 2010 he was named one of the "NFL's 10 Future Power Brokers" by Sports Illustrated.

Before the Rams
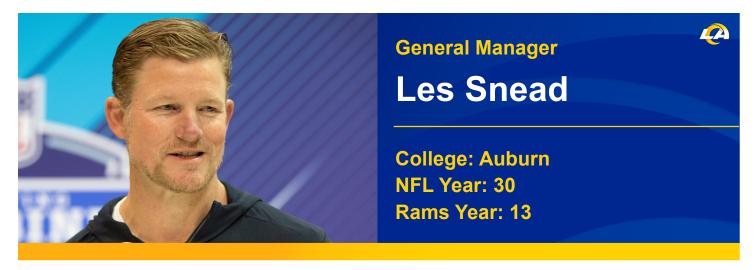

Prior to joining the Rams, Demoff spent four seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08), where he served as a consultant before being named Senior Assistant in 2006. In this capacity, Demoff assisted General Manager Bruce Allen in contract negotiations, salary cap management, strategic planning and both college and pro scouting. During his tenure with the Buccaneers, the team captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007 while posting a winning record in three of his four seasons.

From 2001-04, Demoff served as Director of Football Operations for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League. He helped direct the team to its first-ever playoff berth and in his final three seasons with the club, the Avengers posted a record of 28-18, third-best in the Arena Football League, qualifying for the playoffs in each of those seasons.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Calif., Demoff received a bachelors' degree in history from Dartmouth College in 1999 and a Masters in Business Administration from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth in 2006, where he serves on the MBA Leadership Council.

Kevin resides in Los Angeles with his children Claire and Owen and his wife, Jennifer.

Les Snead

College: Auburn
Rams Year: 13

Les Snead is entering his 13th season as General Manager of the Los Angeles Rams and was hired for the position in February of 2012. In his role as General Manager, Snead partners with Head Coach Sean McVay to direct all personnel decisions for the club. In addition, Snead coordinates all aspects of the club's football operations with the Head Coach and joins forces with team president Kevin Demoff and Vice President, Football & Business Administration Tony Pastoors to direct the team's business ventures.

Snead's tenure has been marked by strategic, aggressive moves that have created a strong core nucleus of talent and depth throughout the roster. Snead set his philosophy in motion just days after his hiring and has continued it through the 2024 NFL Draft.

After guiding the Rams through an organizational rebuild and transition back home to Los Angeles, Snead and the Rams have continued to thrive in the contention phase of NFL roster building and have created a team-building philosophy and model that other clubs have emulated. Under Snead's guidance, the Rams have recorded six winning seasons, reaching the postseason five of the last seven seasons with two Super Bowl appearances and one world championship.

The Rams' recent Super Bowl LVI victory was made possible due to a series of trades executed by Snead for established and proven players. In January of 2021, Snead traded for veteran QB Matthew Stafford. Ahead of the team's final preseason game, Snead acquired former RB Sony Michel from the Patriots. Additionally, following a strong start to the season, Snead made more moves to complete an already talented roster, acquiring star outside linebacker Von Miller and signing former WR Odell Beckham Jr. Each addition proved to be paramount to the Rams' championship run.

Since becoming General Manager, Snead has orchestrated 49 trades, which ranks in the top half of the league since 2012. The Rams have selected 106 players in the NFL Draft under Snead with seven receiving All-Pro honors. During Snead's tenure, the Rams have also acquired All-Pro players such as DB Tre'Davious White, DB Jalen Ramsey, LB Bobby Wagner, OL Andrew Whitworth, as well as Pro Bowl OL Jonah Jackson.

Snead selected 10 players in the 2024 NFL Draft. With the team's first first-round pick since 2016, he selected OLB Jared Verse (19th overall) out of Florida State. In the next round, Snead traded up to selected Verse's college teammate in DL Braden Fiske with the 39th overall pick. The Rams selected RB Blake Corum (83rd overall) out of Michigan and DB Kam Kinchens (99th overall) out of Miami in the third round. In the fifth round, Snead drafted OLB Brennan Jackson (154th overall) out of Washington State. With four selections in the sixth round, he selected DL Tyler Davis (196th overall) out of Clemson, K Joshua Karty (209th overall) out of Stanford, WR Jordan Whittington (213th overall) out of Texas, and OL Beaux Limmer (217th overall) out of Arkansas. Snead selected OL KT Leveston (254th overall) out of Kansas State with his final pick.

Additionally during the 2024 offseason, Snead bolstered the roster through free agency with the signings of White, Jackson, DB Kamren Curl, and backup QB Jimmy Garoppolo. Snead also brought back Super Bowl LVI Champion DB Darious Williams for a second stint with the team.

In the 2022 NFL Draft, the Rams were without a first-round draft pick for the fifth-straight season after trading early picks to acquire proven talent and reward the team's core-nucleus with long-term contracts. The Rams were busy on Days 2 and 3 with eight selections in Rounds 3-7. Snead's first selection in Round 3 was Wisconsin G Logan Bruss to help solidify a strong position group that already features two Wisconsin Badgers in T Rob Havenstein and former G David Edwards. With the team's seven picks on Day 3, Snead added depth to the secondary by selecting DBs Cobie Durant (Round 4) and Derion Kendrick (Round 6), as well as Safeties Quentin Lake (Round 6) and Russ Yeast (Round 7). Snead also also added to the offensive backfield with the selection of Second-Team All-Pro RB Kyren Williams (Round 5).

With a total of nine picks in the 2021 Draft, Snead and his staff selected four offensive players and five players to bolster the defense. On Day 2 with the 57th overall pick (Round 2), Snead selected WR TuTu Atwell out of Louisville and LB Ernest Jones with the 103rd overall pick (Round 3). The following day, the Rams picked DL Bobby Brown (Round 4) out of Texas A&M.

Leading up to the 2020 NFL season, Snead led negotiations in the signing of free agent and former Rams players and Super Bowl Champions: OLB Leonard Floyd, DL A'Shawn Robinson, and Pro Bowl K Matt Gay.

Snead added offensive support with the Rams' first two picks in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft by selecting former RB Cam Akers (52nd overall) out of Florida State and former WR Van Jefferson (57th overall) out of Florida. With one of the team's later picks, Snead selected DB Jordan Fuller (Round 6) out of Ohio State which helped improve a defense that eventually became the league's number one ranked unit during the regular season.

The Rams made six trades in the 2019 NFL Draft, including a trade out of the first round to acquire additional draft capital. L.A. used its first pick of the Draft to select former DB Taylor Rapp out of Washington in the second round (No. 61 overall). The 2019 Draft class also featured late round picks such as former DT Greg Gaines (Round 4), former OL David Edwards (Round 5) and former DB Nick Scott (Round 7), who played significant and meaningful snaps during their time with the Rams.

Snead took a different approach to the 2018 offseason compared to previous years, making trades to acquire players and bolster draft capital. From the start of the new league year on March 14 through the completion of the 2018 NFL Draft, Snead and his staff executed 11 trades that resulted in the acquisition of players such as former CBs Marcus Peters and Aqib Talib, and former WR Brandin Cooks. Additionally, the Rams landed coveted free agent DT Ndamukong Suh. Prior to the start of the 2018 season, L.A. rewarded two former first-round picks in DT Aaron Donald and

RB Todd Gurley II with long-term contracts, making both Donald and Gurley the highest paid players at their positions following a 2017 season when they won Associated Press Defensive and Offensive Player of the year accolades, respectively.

In the 2018 Draft, Snead selected 11 players, despite not having a pick in the first two rounds. L.A. used its first two picks on offensive linemen picking T Joseph Noteboom (No. 89 overall) out of TCU and former C Brian Allen (No. 111 overall) from Michigan State. The Rams used seven of the remaining nine selections to bolster depth along the defensive front. All 11 picks were on the roster entering the 2019 offseason program.

From 2012-2017, Snead made 52 selections in the Draft, with five earning All-Pro honors, the most in the league during that timeframe. Snead's draft choices included back-to-back Associated Press Rookie of the Year honorees in Donald (2014 Defensive Rookie of the Year) and Gurley (2015 Offensive Rookie of the Year). Both players went on the earn AP Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year honors following the 2017 season.

The Rams have reaped early dividends from many of Snead's initial selections, particularly in the early rounds. Of the 13 players Snead selected in the first or second round of his first four drafts, seven were named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team following their first season. In total, 10 players drafted by Snead have made an All-Rookie Team.

Despite not owning a first-round selection, Snead was active in free agency during the 2017 offseason to supplement the young talent accumulated through the draft on the Rams roster. The first moves made by Snead with Head Coach Sean McVay were the signings of Pro Bowl T Andrew Whitworth and WR Robert Woods.

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Snead maneuvered trades to select TE Gerald Everett (No. 44 overall) out of the University of South Alabama. The Rams used three of their first four selections on pass catchers, selecting WR Cooper Kupp (No. 69 overall) and former WR Josh Reynolds (No. 117 overall), in addition to DB John Johnson III, who is in his third stint with the team, with the second of two third round selections (No. 91 overall). As a group, the 2017 draft class started 26 games as rookies, led by Johnson who started 11 games at safety. The 2017 rookie class was highlighted by Kupp being named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. Kupp went on to eventually capture the receiving triple crown, becoming the first player since 2005 to lead the NFL in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns in 2021. Kupp also won the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year Award and become Super Bowl LVI MVP that same season.

The 2016 season kicked off with a blockbuster pre-draft trade from No. 15 overall to No. 1 overall with the Tennessee Titans to select Cal QB Jared Goff. The trade sent the Titans the Rams' first-round draft pick (No. 15), two second-round draft picks (No. 43, No. 45), and a third-round draft pick (No. 76) in 2016. Tennessee also obtained Los Angeles' first-round and third-round picks in the 2017 NFL Draft. In addition to receiving the No. 1 overall pick, Los Angeles received the Titans' fourth-round (No. 113) and sixth-round (No. 177) selections in 2016.

The Rams' 2016 Training Camp roster was the youngest roster in the NFL. Since the Snead administration has been in place, the Rams boasted the youngest roster during the 2012, 2014 and 2016 seasons. The Rams were the second-youngest team in 2015.

In 2015, Snead led a draft that focused on revamping the run game. The process began by selecting Gurley No. 10 overall and then selecting four offensive linemen with the team's next six selections, highlighted by Wisconsin T Rob Havenstein (No. 57 overall). Havenstein has gone on to start all 130 regular season games played and 11 postseason contests with the organization. The Rams boasted the third youngest offensive line in the NFL during the 2015 season, which showcased Havenstein who did not allow a sack as a rookie.

Gurley became just the third Rams rookie running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark since Hall of Famers Eric Dickerson (1983) and Jerome Bettis (1993). Gurley led all rookies in rushing and finished third among all NFL runners in rushing yards (1,106). His season culminated with a Pro Bowl berth, Pro Football Writers of America Rookie of the Year Award and NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year , marking the second-consecutive year that a Rams rookie took home NFL rookie honors (Donald –DPOY 2015). Gurley had his best season as a pro in 2018, leading the league with 2,093 scrimmage yards and 19 total touchdowns to earn Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year accolades.

Snead and his staff made a total of 11 selections in the 2014 draft. With their first-round pick, they selected Donald, a Pittsburgh All-American who earned Pro Bowl honors and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the year after posting 9.0 sacks, the second most by any NFL defensive tackle that season. Donald bested his rookie performance in year two and garnered 11.0 sacks, which tied for most in the league at his position on his way to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl nod and went on to win Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2018. After becoming the highest paid defensive tackle in NFL history, Donald thanked Snead and the Rams with a franchise-best 20.5 sacks, the most by an interior defensive lineman in league history, earning his second-consecutive AP Defensive Player of the Year honors. Since Donald was drafted in 2014, he's been selected to the Pro Bowl every season and has received First-Team All-Pro Honors seven of the eight years in the NFL.

Snead and his staff have had plenty of success with undrafted free agent signings over the last eight years. Of the 53 players on the team's final 2016 roster, 15 joined the Rams as undrafted rookie free agents under Snead's watch. That group included Pro Bowl P Johnny Hekker, LS Jake McQuaide and special teams standout LB Cory Littleton, who blocked two kicks during the 2017 season. Other undrafted free agent signings that have contributed to the Rams success have been G Coleman Shelton, QB John Wolford and T Alaric Jackson.

Snead inherited a roster that had endured one of the most difficult stretches in league history in St. Louis from 2007 to 2011. The team posted a 15-65 record (.188 winning percentage), the worst ever by an NFL team during any five-year period. The Rams' 15 wins during that stretch were the fewest in the league, and Detroit, which had the second-lowest win total during the same time frame, recorded 10 more wins than the Rams with 25. From 2012-15, the Rams logged 27 wins to increase their winning percentage to .422.

In the spring of 2012, Snead directed a trade that sent the second overall pick in the 2012 draft to Washington in exchange for the sixth and 39th picks that year, along with Washington's first round picks in both 2013 and 2014. Snead made two additional trades in April of 2012 that allowed the Rams to make four of the first 50 selections in the 2012 draft. The surplus of picks allowed the Rams to strategically maneuver in the 2013 Draft as well. With the Rams sitting at No. 16, Snead surmised that he wouldn't be able to stand pat and land highly-coveted WR/PR Tavon Austin, so he worked out a deal with the Buffalo Bills. The Rams moved up to Buffalo's eighth spot and selected the speedy playmaker from West Virginia. Austin scored six touchdowns as a rookie – four receiving, one rushing and one on a 98-yard punt return. In the Rams' win at Indianapolis in 2013, Austin became one of three rookies in NFL history to score three touchdowns of 50 yards or more, joining Hall of Famer Gale Sayers and Randy Moss.

With the 22nd pick, which the Rams owned as part of the Washington trade, Snead made another deal that helped the club recoup a significant portion of what he sent to Buffalo. The Rams swapped places with the Atlanta Falcons, and with the 30th selection, Snead was able to secure the player he targeted at No. 22 - Georgia LB Alec Ogletree. As a rookie, Ogletree led the Rams with 155 tackles and added 1.5 sacks, six forced fumbles and an interception.

Prior to joining the Rams, Snead spent 13 seasons with the Atlanta Falcons serving as the club's director of player personnel from 2009-11, a pro scout, and the team's director of pro personnel. During his time in Atlanta, Snead was part of a personnel staff that signed, traded for, or drafted 16 players that earned Pro Bowl honors.

Snead helped construct a roster that was one of the NFL's best over a four-year span. From 2008-11, the Falcons had four consecutive winning seasons winning 43 games, the fifth-most wins in the NFL over that time period. The Falcons played in one Super Bowl and two NFC Championship games during Snead's time with the club.

Snead joined the Falcons after three seasons (1995-97) in the pro scouting department of the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was hired by the Jaguars prior to the franchise's first season and helped put together a team that garnered an AFC Championship berth in just its second year of existence. Jacksonville won its first division title in Snead's final year with the team.

Snead played tight end for Auburn from 1992-93 and was part of the Tigers' perfect 11-0 team in 1993. He also earned Southeast Region Academic All-American honors during his college career.

The Eufaula, Ala. native holds a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and planned to attend medical school until he was offered a graduate assistant coaching position at his alma mater. He earned a Master of Education degree at Auburn while working as a graduate assistant and he also served as an administrative assistant of football operations in 1995 at Auburn.
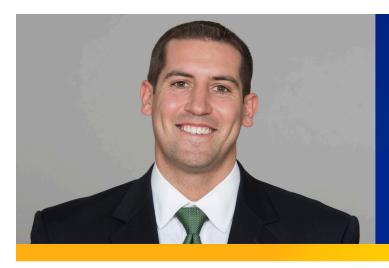

In addition to his duties with the Rams, Snead also sits on a pair of advisory boards, including GAMEBREAKER, a soft shell headgear company powered by D3O Impact Technology to help alleviate some of the abrasions that come with playing any contact or non-contact sport. Snead also serves as a board member on the Curry School Foundation Board at UVA, a dynamic group of professionals who have committed themselves as fundraisers and ambassadors of the school, promoting Curry's work among their networks of colleagues and acquaintances.

Snead is married to Kara Henderson Snead, a former sports media personality who has worked for NFL Network co-hosting NFL Total Access and providing in-depth interviews, pregame and postgame reports and sideline reports for a variety of shows across the network including NFL Total Access, Around the League, NFL GameDay Morning and NFL GameDay Final. Kara graduated cum laude from Duke University. She began her career as a production assistant at ESPN and later ABC News. Her on-air career began at NESN in 1998 as the co-host of NESN's "Front Row". From 2000 to 2003, she worked at CNN as a reporter and anchor.

Together, the couple has three children: two sons, Logan and Tate, as well as a daughter, Cannon.

Vice President, Football & Business Administration

Tony Pastoors

Rams Year: 15

Tony Pastoors enters his 15th season with the Rams after joining the team prior to the 2010 season. He serves as the vice president of football and business administration.

In this role, Pastoors works directly with team president Kevin Demoff on all aspects of Rams operations. He partners with General Manager Les Snead and Head Coach Sean McVay in the development and implementation of the club's strategic plans for player signings and player acquisitions.

As the club's chief negotiator, Pastoors oversees the team's salary cap management, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement as well as the club's financial and strategic planning. Pastoors partners with Snead and McVay in the day-to-day management and execution of the team's football operations. In addition, he serves as a liaison to the club's business operations including marketing, partnerships, finance, ticketing, community relations, administration, and communications. Pastoors serves as part of the Rams' executive leadership team and represents the club at a league level, attending NFL league meetings on behalf of the organization.

Pastoors has played a pivotal role in the evolution of the Rams' team-building philosophy and his work has allowed the team to add star-level talent over the last handful of years. There isn't a significant roster or contractual decision that doesn't run through Pastoors and while many have deemed the Rams roster constructing methods as "unconventional" dating back to 2018, numerous clubs around the league have adopted the practices that Pastoors, Snead, and McVay have put into place. In both 2021 and 2022, Pastoors was honored in The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40" list.

Pastoors also played a role in delivering on Kroenke's vision for Hollywood Park, the 298-acre sports and entertainment district in Inglewood that features SoFi Stadium and the campus that includes the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater, an office complex that is the home of the NFL's West Coast headquarters, and the retail district that is under development.

In addition to the entertainment district at Hollywood Park, Pastoors has helped lead the efforts for the construction of the team's practice facility in Woodland Hills. He continues to collaborate with local officials and front office staff to create a state-of-the-art training facility and team headquarters surrounded by a sports and entertainment development in the San Fernando Valley.

Over the last few years, Pastoors has helped execute a trade for veteran quarterback Matthew Stafford along with the mid-season trades for Von Miller and Odell Beckham Jr., which helped put the Rams over the edge en route to their Super Bowl LVI victory. During the 2019 season, Pastoors worked closely on the trade deal that brought All-Pro defensive back Jalen Ramsey to the Rams and helped sign outside linebacker Leonard Floyd leading up to the 2020 season.

"Rams vice president Tony Pastoors has in the last six years proven masterful at finding creative ways to provide Snead and McVay with virtually any player they desire," said Gary Klein of The Los Angeles Times in 2022.

Pastoors continues to find creative ways to structure contracts and extend player deals in a way that creates cap space and flexibility for the future. In partnership with Snead this offseason, Pastoors calculated new deals for Matthew Stafford, right guard Kevin Dotson, and helped sign high-prized free agents such as left guard Jonah Jackson as well as defensive backs Tre'Davious White, Darious Williams and Kamren Curl.

He also has worked closely with McVay and Snead in recent years to keep key contributors of the Rams' Super Bowl roster intact and extended standout receiver Cooper Kupp, a lynchpin of the offensive line in Rob Havenstein, tight end Tyler Higbee, and others.

In January of 2017, Pastoors worked alongside Owner and Chairman Stan Kroenke, COO Kevin Demoff and Snead to reshape the culture of the Rams football operation and usher in a new era. The group led a broad coaching search that resulted in the hiring of Head Coach Sean McVay – the youngest head coach in modern NFL history.

Born and raised in Minneapolis, Minn. Pastoors received his degree from Dartmouth College, where he played football for the late Buddy Teevens.

Tony and his wife Emily, have two daughters Charli and Kiley.

Executive Vice President, Consumer Revenue and Strategy

Dan August

NFL Year: 17
Rams Year: 9

The 2023 season marks Daniel August's ninth season with the Los Angeles Rams and his third as Executive Vice President of Consumer Revenue and Strategy.

In his role, August is involved with key strategic initiatives and oversees ticketing, gameday operations, gameday analytics as well as relationships with food & beverage and retail partners. Areas of ticketing include strategy/planning, analytics, sales, operations, suites and guiding the Rams premium ticketing experience on gamedays and year-round.

In his first six seasons with the Rams, August focused on key business ventures and major strategic initiatives for the club, which included ticketing strategy and planning, gameday experience, concessions, digital media, consumer products and analytics.

Prior to joining the Rams, August worked for the NFL league office in New York City for eight years. Over his final two years, he served as Head of Strategic Marketing and Planning, after working for six years in finance, the last as Director of Financial Planning & Analysis. During his tenure at the NFL headquarters, August served on major projects, including the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA), NFL Ticket Exchange, apparel and e-commerce deals, International Series expansion, Veteran Combine, NFL Newborn Fan Club and Pro Bowl.

Before entering the sports arena, August served as an investment banking analyst at Morgan Stanley. August received a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Dartmouth College in 2007 and a Masters in Business Administration from The University of North Carolina's Kenan-Flagler Business School in 2014.

He is married to Joanna Hunter August, who works in corporate affairs for the Rams. They have two daughters, Leah and Isabella.

Brewer has spent the last 31 years in his current role as Treasurer. As head of the Rams finance department, he oversees day-to-day operations and handles multiple audits, tax work and treasury management.

Originally from Southern California, Jeff earned an accounting degree from California State University, Northridge where he was captain of the basketball team.

Prior to joining the Rams, he worked as a manager at Ernst & Whinney, an accounting firm in Newport Beach, California.

Jeff is married to Alaine, and together they have six adult children, Jen, Nick, Robert, Alyssa, Molly and Megan. In his free time he enjoys spending time with his family and traveling. Jeff and Alaine reside in Yorba Linda, Calif.

Marissa Daly

College: Villanova
Rams Year: 7

The 2023 season marks Marissa Daly's seventh season with the Los Angeles Rams, serving as the team's Vice President and General Manager of Rams Studios, the club's media team.

Before joining the Rams, Daly served as the Senior Director of Product Marketing for Yahoo Sports and led marketing for the Sports and Fantasy properties including strategy, research, positioning, CRM, mobile acquisition, creative, media planning, and brand management.

While attending UCLA Anderson School of Management, Daly was the president of the Sports Business Association, co-director of orientation for the class of 2012, and co-founder of PULSE, an annual media, entertainment, and sports conference.

She interned at the LA Sports & Entertainment Commission as a sales and marketing intern for the NBA All-Star Jam Session and for Mandalay Baseball Properties.

Prior to Anderson, Daly worked as a Financial Analyst at Goldman Sachs and as an Investor Relations representative at NYC-based hedge fund, Latigo Partners.

Daly received her bachelor's degree in finance and international business from Villanova University.

Marissa and her husband, Sam, are parents to their sons Owen and Hudson, and have a golden retriever named Kobe Bryant.

General Counsel

Todd Davis

College: Southern California
Rams Year: 33

Todd Davis is entering his 33rd year with the Rams. He works directly with ownership and Chief Operating Officer Kevin Demoff on day-to-day business operation issues, advises the club on all legal matters, and contributes significantly to the team's business operations.

His areas of oversight include sponsorships, licensing, vendor and employment agreements (for football and non-football employees), human resources issues, team litigation, risk management, workers compensation and more.

Davis is also on the board of the Rams Foundation and serves on the NFL Steering Committee for Sports Betting/Integrity and Compliance, the Club Counsel Sports Betting Integrity Steering Committee, as well as the committee for workers compensation. He joined the NFL Committee for workers compensation in 2010 and continues to be an active member.

Davis is active in league-wide matters and has served on multiple intra-league working groups including workers compensation, gambling and seat licenses. He aids in the Rams Risk Management and seves as the Secretary of the Rams Foundation.

Davis was the recipient of LA Business Journal's Corporate Counsel of the Year Award in 2022.

A graduate of the University of Southern California Law Center in 1991, he obtained his Bachelor of Arts in political science and a Bachelor of Science in accounting. He is a member of the California Bar Association.

He is married to his wife of 26 years, Anna. Together they have one daughter, Savannah (21).

Chief Marketing Officer

Kathryn Kai-ling Frederick

College: Harvard and MIT
NFL Year: 4

Kathryn Kai-ling Frederick is currently the Chief Marketing Officer at the Los Angeles Rams.

In this role, Frederick leads all areas of marketing and media including brand strategy, experiential, creative, game presentation, social, digital, performance analytics and content. Since joining the Rams in 2021, Frederick's work has spanned an award-winning 2022 Draft Film featuring Hollywood's own Scott Eastwood, Josh Holloway and Tyrese Gibson; innovative, first-of-its-kind gameday AR programming; and most recently, a Black History Month film celebrating the untold story of Kenny Washington. Under her leadership, the Rams Marketing team continues to chart the course for sports marketing and cultivate the next generation of fans.

Prior to joining the Rams, Frederick was Chief Marketing Officer at Live Nation Entertainment where she helped connect over 300 million global live event fans to music, theater, and sporting events through robust CRM and digital marketing and data centric programs. Frederick evolved the Ticketmaster Marketing and Product organizations to enrich the fan engagement experience by bringing together data, technology and the magic of live events to acquire, inspire and engage fans. Frederick was honored as a Billboard Power Player in 2018 and 2019.

Before her time at Live Nation and Ticketmaster, Frederick held several senior roles leading digital and business transformation at brands such as Yahoo!, Modern Luxury Media and Pricegrabber. She is an advisor and investor in a number of early-stage consumer technology companies and participated in the 2016 White House Summit of the United State of Women.

Frederick was born and raised in Los Angeles. She earned her BA from Bryn Mawr College, her MBA from MIT Sloan School of Management, and her MPA from Harvard Kennedy School. She currently lives in Inglewood with her husband Chris, and her two daughters, Kylie and Charlotte.

Vice President, Business Development

Eric Dickerson

College: Southern Methodist
NFL Year: 19

Eric Dickerson joined the Rams front office as vice president of business development in August of 2017, rejoining the organization that drafted him in 1983.

Dickerson played running back for the Rams from 1983 to 1987 and broke the NFL's single season record holder for most yards gained (2,105) in 1984. As a rookie in 1983, he set NFL rookie records for most yards gained in a season (1,808) and attempts (390) and was named NFC and NFL Rookie of the Year.

He currently ranks ninth on the NFL's all-time rushing list with 13,259 yards. The SMU product rushed for more than 100 yards 64 times, which ranks fourth on the NFL's all-time record list. Dickerson went on to complete a legendary NFL career by reaching 10,000 career rushing yards in the shortest amount of games. His production was matched by his running style and unforgettable appearance on the field with sports goggles, a neck roll and the full complement of pads.

Dickerson was selected to the Pro Bowl six times and chosen to NFL's all-Decade team for the 1980's. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

Dickerson was the No. 1 ranked high school football player in the nation before committing to Southern Methodist University (SMU) and turned them into a national powerhouse.

In addition to his work with the Rams, he also has a strategic partnership with iHeart radio and serves as an NFL Analyst for FS1.

Vice President, Communications

Artis Twyman

College: Tennessee State
NFL Year: 24

Artis Twyman is in his fifth year as Vice President of Communications for the Los Angeles Rams. In this position, Twyman oversees the media relations staff and directs the Rams' communication efforts.

The 2024 season will be Twyman's 22nd season with the Rams. He previously served nine seasons as senior director of communications and three seasons as the team's director of media relations after spending six years as assistant director of football media.

Following the 2018 season, Twyman and the Rams communications department won the Pro Football Writers Association's Pete Rozelle Award, which recognizes the NFL public relations staff that consistently strives for excellence in its dealings and relationships with the media. It marked the first time the Rams won the award since 1997 and only the second time in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Rams in 2003, Twyman spent two years as a public relations assistant for the Seattle Seahawks. He broke into the NFL in 2001 as a public relations intern for the expansion Houston Texans. From 1995-2001, he worked in the Tennessee State University Public Relations Department, serving in many capacities, including three years as public information officer.

In 2012, he was one of only two public relations officials throughout the 32-team league chosen to work the Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii. He also received this honor in 2011, 2009, 2008 and 2006. Twyman was part of public relations staffs for NFC Championship games, as well as several Super Bowls.

In 2021, he served as the chair of the Dean's Advisory Council at California Lutheran University.

Twyman earned his undergraduate degree in speech communications from Tennessee State University in Nashville, Tenn., and a master's degree in mass communications from Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Molly Higgins is the Executive Vice President of Community Impact and Engagement for the Los Angeles Rams. In her role, Higgins oversees the Rams community outreach and social justice efforts and aims to use the team's platform to fight for equality, drive equity and provide access and opportunity for youth.

Through various programs and initiatives, Higgins and her team work to address issues of poverty that disproportionately impact communities of color including education inequities, housing and food insecurities, community-police relations, youth justice and mentorship.

One of the Rams' signature programs is the Watts Rams youth football program consisting of 150 boys and girls who are coached by LAPD officers. Using the game of football, the goal of the program is to help bridge the divide between the Watts community and law enforcement allowing the kids to see the officers as human beings and mentors, while allowing the officers to get to know the community members they serve. The Rams fund all components of the program and throughout the year, provide engagement opportunities with current players and enrichment and educational experiences to help the kids dream beyond their current reality.

Beyond the Watts Rams, Higgins is driven by the fact that talent is equally distributed, but opportunity is not. With that as a focus, Higgins has placed an emphasis on the Rams being a collaborative partner in the education space with the goal of helping to close the achievement gap for low-income students. Through year-round school engagement including the Rams Readers literacy program, PLAY 60 youth health and wellness Field Days, mentorship programs, internship opportunities, incentive campaigns, playground builds, campus beautifications, career chats, college field trips and funding City Year student success coaches, the Rams are committed to ensuring a child's education and upward mobility are not dictated by their zip code.

Three years ago, the Rams created an additional education program when they introduced the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Rams becoming the first professional sports team in the modern era to sign an African-American player, Kenny Washington, in 1946. Each year, the scholarship provides up to four years of financial support for 13 students who are among the first in their families to pursue a post-secondary education.

Last season, the team continued their efforts to support the 1 in 5 Angelenos who struggle with food insecurity with efforts like mobile food drives as well as Taste of the Rams, which Higgins introduced in 2016 upon the team's return to Los Angeles. To date, the event has raised nearly $1.4 million dollars for LA Regional Food Bank and provided more than 5 million meals to Angelenos in need.

In 2024, the Rams will host the 4th annual WalkUnitedLA at SoFi Stadium to help United Way's efforts to break the cycles of poverty through homelessness and housing, education and economic opportunity initiatives. Other areas of focus include growing the game of youth and high school football and celebrating the contributions of our military members and veterans through our year-round salute to service efforts. Additionally, the team participates in a variety of special events each year to raise awareness and funding for numerous local non-profits throughout the greater LA region to improve the lives of Angelenos.

Beyond the organization's charitable priorities, the Rams community impact team works to understand each player's areas of interest and aligns them with causes they are passionate about to enable them to personally impact their community. When Andrew Whitworth joined the Rams in 2017, Higgins worked with him to create a community impact strategy. Leading up to Super Bowl LVI, his impact was recognized when he has awarded the NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year, the league's most prestigious honor that recognizes a player's commitment to philanthropy and community impact, as well as excellence on the field.

In addition to Higgins' community impact and engagement responsibilities, she is part of the Rams' executive team that helps shape the organization's off the field strategies.

The Sports Business Journal named Higgins to their 2020 class of "Game Changers." In 2019, the United Way of Greater Los Angeles recognized Higgins with an EmpowerHer Award for her commitment to advance equity in Los Angeles. During her time in St. Louis, Higgins was a recipient of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis' "Spirit of Justice Award" honoring individuals who have demonstrated accomplishment, leadership and integrity in facilitating and promoting justice. In 2014, Higgins was recognized as one of St. Louis' "Most Influential Business Women" by the St. Louis Business Journal. Higgins was named to the St. Louis Business Journal's 30 under 30 list in 2006, an annual award that honors 30 St. Louis-area business leaders under the age of 30.

Prior to joining the Rams, Higgins worked in public relations for Unigraphics Solutions, a NYSE-listed global computer software company.

A graduate of the University of Northern Iowa with a B.A. in public relations and a minor in marketing, Higgins is also a graduate of the Coro Women in Leadership program and participated in the Stanford Graduate School of Business Program for NFL Managers. She and her wife, Missy, reside in Playa Vista.

Vice President, Corporate Affairs
Joanna Hunter

Rams Year: 9

Joanna Hunter is in her ninth season with the Rams and serves as the Vice President of Corporate Affairs. In this role, she oversees the club's communications strategy around the team's off-the-field matters including business and social responsibility efforts.

Hunter helped lead the Rams PR staff that won the Pro Football Writers Association's Pete Rozelle Award, which is given annually to the NFL club public relations staff that consistently strives for excellence in its dealings and relationships with the media in 2018 after the department was named a finalist for the award following the 2017 campaign.

The 2024 season will be Hunter's 19th season in the National Football League, spending 10 seasons at the league office as part of the NFL's communications department. She started her career at the NFL in 2006 as a Communications Assistant and transitioned to corporate communications in 2007. She served as the NFL's Director of Corporate Communications, focusing on rapid response and crisis management as well as communications around business initiatives and key issues such as health and safety and social responsibility.

In her time at the NFL, she was part of a team that managed media relations and operations for NFL Draft, NFL Kickoff and Super Bowl (Super Bowl XLI – 50), the NFL Honors awards show, and the Super Bowl Halftime Show.

Hunter earned her undergraduate degree in French from Dartmouth College in Hanover, NH. She is married to Dan August, who serves as the Executive Vice President of Consumer Revenue and Strategy for the team. Together, they have two daughters, Leah and Isabella.

Vice President, Partnership Development
Mike O'Keefe

College: Missouri State
Rams Year: 27

Mike O'Keefe is entering his 27th season with the Rams and has held numerous roles throughout his tenure with the team which have spanned across ticketing, premium seating, suite sales, marketing, media, community partnerships and sponsorship.

In his current position as Vice President of Partnership Development, O'Keefe leads a team focused on developing new business through the creation of customized marketing platforms, allowing brands and companies to tap into the power of the Rams and the NFL to achieve their marketing objectives.

He also works closely with the partnership marketing and community impact teams to cultivate relationships with partners and deepen their involvement in team programming.

O'Keefe is a board member of the Southeast Ventura County YMCA and also enjoys participating in the Rams' numerous off-the-field charitable endeavors.

Born and raised in St. Louis, MO, O'Keefe holds a degree in communications from Missouri State University and resides in Agoura Hills with his wife and three daughters.

Chief Commercial Officer

Jen Prince

College: University of California, Santa Barbara

Rams Year: 4

As the Chief Commercial Officer of the Los Angeles Rams, Jennifer is responsible for overseeing all partnerships — including sales, activation, and strategy — as well as the commercialization of the media business, including owned-and-operated channels, social media accounts and media partnerships.

Jennifer previously spent over eight years at Twitter as the Global Vice President and Head of Content Partnerships and Managing Director of Global Media & Entertainment Partnerships. Prior to joining Twitter in August of 2013, Jennifer was Head of Industry for Film & Television at Google and Head of YouTube Media & Entertainment. Jennifer also served as the Senior Vice President of Advertising at Demand Media and helped the company through its IPO.

She has worked at other notable companies such as American Greetings, Ziff Davis and TBWA/Chiat Day. Jennifer has spent over 26 years in digital advertising, content, and partnerships.

She earned a BA Communications degree from University of California, Santa Barbara. In addition to her role at the Los Angeles Rams, Jennifer serves on various boards such as Hershey Entertainment & Resorts, System1 and Versus Systems. She lives in Los Angeles and keeps busy with her husband and three daughters.

Vice President, Partnership Sales

Jason Griffiths

College: Middlebury

Rams Year: 7

Jason Griffiths enters his seventh season with the Los Angeles Rams serving as the organization's Vice President of Partnership Sales.

In his current role, he is responsible for managing the current Rams partners as well as overseeing the origination of new partnerships at SoFi Stadium.

Prior to joining the Rams organization, Griffiths served as Director of Enterprise Sales for Box, an enterprise cloud content management company. During his three-year tenure, Griffiths helped build Box's North East presence from a small team of thirty members to over one hundred and fifty. During this time, the North East region became one of the most successful sales regions in the US.

Before his time with Box, Griffiths worked for Rackspace from 2009 through 2015, starting as an Account Manager and working his way up to a Senior Sales Executive. His roles included developing and executing all sales and account management strategies for a portfolio of Fortune 1000 accounts, building successful sales teams and helping Rackspace expand their sales presence in New York City.

Griffiths co-founded Cortech Group in 2005, a fast moving consumer goods company. As co-founder, Griffiths helped create a business plan, raised equity and serviced multi-billion dollar international retailers.

Griffiths earned a bachelor's degree from Middlebury College in 2004 and went on to earn a masters from Stanford University in 2005. Griffiths lives in Sherman Oaks with his wife Courtney and their son, Rhys and daughter, Louisa.

Vice President, Ticket and Premium Sales

Hadley Rossitter

NFL Year: 4

Rams Year: 4

Hadley Rossitter enters his fourth season with the Los Angeles Rams as the Vice President of Ticket and Premium Sales.

In his role, he is responsible for establishing and leading sales strategies that maximize new business while delivering premium service that optimizes year-over-year retention.

Rossitter joined the Rams after being a part of the Legends' executive team as the Director of Suite Sales and Service, overseeing all new revenue for the Los Angeles Stadium & Entertainment District project at Hollywood Park in Inglewood, which is home to SoFi Stadium.

Prior to joining Legends, Rossitter served as the Director of Premium Seating for Comcast Spectator and the Wells Fargo Center in Philadelphia, PA.

His first role with Legends was part of a group that generated seat license revenues exceeding $500 million and over $400 million in contracted suite lease revenue for the 49ers' Levi Stadium from 2011-2014.

Rossitter was born and raised locally in Los Angeles and received his bachelor's degree in Business Economics from UC Santa Barbara. He resides in Culver City with his wife, Andrea, and his 5-year-old son, Carter.

Vice President, Fan Marketing & Insights

Marty Turman

College: Northern Illinois

Rams Year: 7

Marty Turman enters his seventh season with the Los Angeles Rams serving as the organization's Vice President of Demand Generation, CRM, and Marketing Analytics.

In his role, Turman focuses on building awareness of the Rams brand and loyalty amongst their fan base. In addition, he leads the data-driven marketing strategies that encompass the gathering and usage of fan's engagement with the team and performance of activities leveraging this data.

Turman has experienced many memorable moments throughout his career with the Rams, including the Super Bowl run in 2018, driving fan attendance to one of the most electric Monday Night Football games of all time against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2018 after the game was relocated from Mexico, the opening of SoFi Stadium, the team's Super Bowl LVI victory, and the continued evolution of the team's data-driven marketing sophistication.

Moving into his seventh year, Turman's focus will continue to be revolutionizing the marketing technology ecosystem, initiating new fan loyalty strategies, data unification across systems and messaging personalization.

Turman joined the Rams after serving four years as the Senior Director of Relationship Marketing for Vail Resorts, Inc. in Colorado, where he led a team responsible for strategy and deployment of company-wide direct marketing communications. Prior to joining Vail Resorts, Inc., Turman spent over a decade in the gaming industry in Las Vegas and Chicago leading a variety of marketing initiatives including: loyalty marketing & CRM, multicultural marketing, key account sales strategy, and live entertainment booking/advertising.

Turman was born and raised in the suburbs of Chicago and received his bachelor's in marketing at Northern Illinois University. Turman later earned his MBA from the University of Southern California. He and his wife, Janet, have two boys, Max and Mateo, who have all become devoted Rams fans.

Vice President, Sports Medicine & Performance

Reggie Scott

Rams Year: 15

Reggie Scott enters his 15th year with the Rams and was named Vice President, Sports Medicine and Performance in 2020. Scott joined the team as the Head Athletic Trainer and served as the Director and Senior Director of Sports Medicine and Performance before moving up the ranks to vice president.

Scott initially joined the Rams in 2010 and became the youngest Head Athletic Trainer in the modern NFL era.

In his current role, Scott oversees the sports medicine, nutrition, strength and conditioning, and performance science. He also leads the athletic training department which is responsible for managing and facilitating the medical care of Rams players. This includes daily evaluation, treatment, rehabilitation, prevention, education and administrative work.

In addition to his duties with the Rams, Scott serves as the acting president for the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society's (PFATS) executive board.

During the Rams' inaugural season back in Los Angeles, Calif., Scott and his staff were charged with developing and managing three fully-equipped training facilities before settling into their home base.

In 2015, Scott and his staff was named the 2015 NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. The award is voted on by the PFATS members and recognizes one NFL athletic training staff annually for their distinguished service to their club, community and athletic training profession. The honor marked the first time the Rams have been recipients of the award since it was established in 1985.

Before joining the Rams, Scott spent six seasons as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Carolina Panthers, starting with their NFC Championship season in 2003. Scott was a part of back-to-back Super Bowl appearance teams, coming straight off his first NFL season as an intern on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers athletic training staff during their 2002 Super Bowl Championship season.

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Scott worked as a student athletic trainer at his alma mater, West Virginia University, for four years (1999-2002). He earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from WVU. Scott also earned a master's degree in performance enhancement and injury prevention from California University at Pennsylvania. In 2007, he added the Performance Enhancement Specialist Certification from the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Scott broke into athletic training as an intern with the Philadelphia Phillies in 2000.

He is the former president of PFATS, a chairman of the NFL Combine board, and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association where he serves as an Ethnic Diversity mentor. In 2004, he was a part of the staff that won the PFATS Athletic Training Staff of the Year award, and in 2003, he earned the U.S. Air Force Commanders Award for Excellence which he completed at Dover Air Force Base.

Scott grew up in Dover, Del., with his mom, Juana Fuentes Bowles, his father, Reggie Scott Sr., and sister, Victoria Fuentes Cox, who still reside in the area. Scott is married to his wife, Tina, and they have two children: Sophia and Isabella.

Oracio Galindo

College: Loyola Marymount

Oracio Galindo is entering his ninth season with the Los Angeles Rams as Head of Employee Experience. Partnering with the executive leadership team, Galindo offers strategic and hands-on counsel on a diverse range of people-related matters, including organizational development, employee relations, coaching and development, performance and talent management, compensation, conflict management, and HR legal compliance.

Galindo strategically develops equitable programs, systems, and policies designed to attract, retain, engage, and develop diverse talent that contribute to the overall growth of the club's brand, revenue, and fandom initiatives. He is dedicated to fostering a culture of belonging and well-being, empowering employees to thrive and advance within the organization.

Galindo has been instrumental in transforming the Rams benefits offerings, introducing a suite of innovative programs that enhance the overall employee experience. Notable initiatives include unlimited time off, universal bonus eligibility, a comprehensive tuition assistance program, a robust 401(k) contribution plan, and fertility care and assistance.

During his tenure, the Los Angeles Rams have garnered acclaim as one of the most diverse teams in the NFL. The Rams rank in the top 10% of all NFL teams in terms of racial and gender diversity across the organization. In 2023, Sports Business Journal recognized the Rams as one of the industry's best places to work, highlighting the organization's commitment to diversity and employee satisfaction.

Prior to joining the Rams, Galindo served as the Vice President of Employee Relations and Labor Relations for Tribune Publishing, a media company employing 8,000 employees across the country. During his tenure, he led a staff of 25 human resources professionals in driving transformational and organizational changes across 10 major newspapers. Before his work with Tribune Publishing, he served in various senior leadership roles with other organizations such as the Los Angeles Times, Sony Music Entertainment, Starbucks Coffee, and Red Bull.

A native of Los Angeles, California, Galindo earned an undergraduate degree in business administration from Loyola Marymount University and a master's in human resource development from Claremont Graduate University.

Galindo is a founding board member and currently serves as the Chair of the Governing Board for the Pro Sports Assembly, the association for professional sports business leaders.

Galindo married his wife, Gladys Limon, in September of 2016. She currently serves as the Director of Climate and Environmental Justice at the State Energy and Environmental Impact Center at NYU Law School. Oracio, Gladys, and their two sons, Cristian and Emilio, reside in Ventura County.

Lexi Vonderlieth

College: Pepperdine
NFL Year: 6

Lexi Vonderlieth is entering her sixth year with the Rams and serves as the club's Vice President of Partnership Marketing.

In her role, Vonderlieth drives overall strategic and executional development of all exclusive partnerships for the Rams and provides support for partners at SoFi Stadium at Hollywood Park.

Previously, Vonderlieth spent seven years at TBWA/Chiat/Day, an advertising agency committed to creating innovative brand and marketing programs. The majority of her time was spent across Gatorade and Airbnb in numerous roles from sports marketing, branded content to senior marketing manager. Working on Gatorade, she managed all sports marketing advertising with leagues/teams/athletes, brand integrated marketing programs and branded content.

Vonderlieth led the development of the Gatorade branded content program with the debut of "RG3: The Will to Win" documentary which was a first-time deal between Gatorade, RG3, NFL Films and ESPN/ABC programming. She also worked closely on the "There is No Tomorrow" documentary that followed the Brazilian National team from the 2012 Olympic defeat to the 2014 World Cup. For Airbnb, Vonderlieth successfully worked on the launch of the brand's first global campaign developing innovative tactics per market.

As a director, Vonderlieth spent the next three years driving strategic and creative development for Beats by Dre at R/GA and Anomaly. Notably, she helped launch Beats by Dre into the 2015 Rugby World Cup, with a fully integrated campaign into a new sport and new market for the brand.

In 2016, Vonderlieth worked on the "Got No Strings" launch of the Beats X product to the market and developed fully-integrated partnership campaigns for global partners, Best Buy, T-Mobile and FNAC. In 2017, she led a "Be Heard" sports anthem campaign which led to No. 1 market share for wireless headphones.

Prior to joining the Rams, Vonderlieth worked as a Global Director at Media Arts Lab leading all Apple Services. Her duties included global marketing and strategy for Apple Music, Apple Pay, Homepod. She focused the last year on the launch of Apple TV+, working on the Apple TV+ announcement and continued to develop the strategy and launch plan for Apple TV+ streaming brand and show campaigns.

Vonderlieth was recognized in consecutive years by the "Business Insiders: 30 most creative women in advertising," in 2016 and 2017.

Vonderlieth received her bachelor's degree in communications from Pepperdine University. She went on to earn her master's of business administration and marketing from Loyola Marymount University.

Vonderlieth, her husband Paulo and their two young boys, Dylan and Lukas, reside in Los Angeles.

Coaching Staff Bios

Head Coach

Sean McVay

College: Miami (Ohio)
NFL Coaching Year: 16
Rams Coaching Year: 8

On January 12, 2017, Los Angeles Rams Owner/Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke named Sean McVay the 23rd full-time head coach in franchise history. McVay became the youngest coach in modern NFL history at 30 years old.

He has led the Rams to five playoff berths and two Super Bowl appearances in his first seven seasons, winning Super Bowl LVI at SoFi Stadium. McVay has a 70-45 regular season record and is 7-4 in the playoffs. He has also led the Rams to six winning seasons with three NFC West titles. McVay currently the second-youngest head coach in the NFL despite entering his eighth season at the helm, making him the fourth-longest tenured coach in the NFL behind Mike Tomlin, Andy Reid and John Harbaugh.

During the 2023 season, McVay coached his 100th career regular season game and his 0.64 winning percentage became the fifth-highest among active head coaches in their first 100 regular season games. McVay also led the Rams to a 10-7 record and a berth in the Wild Card Round.

The McVay-led offense finished the regular season seventh in yards per game (359.3), seventh in yards per play (5.6), 11th in rush yards per game (120.3), and 10th in pass yards per game (239.0). The Rams offense also finished eighth in third down conversion rate (42%), fourth in fourth down conversion rate (61.9%), fourth in red zone efficiency (63.6%), and eighth in points scored per game (23.76).

Quarterback Matthew Stafford was voted to the Pro Bowl and finished 11th in passing yards (3,965), which ranks among the top-10 most in a single season in franchise history. He also finished 11th in passing touchdowns (24), 12th in completions (326), and 10th in passing first downs (187). With the help of McVay, Stafford passed Fran Tarkenton and moved to 11th on the NFL's all-time passing touchdown list and became the 11th player in NFL history to throw for 53,000 career passing yards.

Second-year Running Back Kyren Williams emerged into a Second-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection during the 2023 campaign. He finished third in rushing yards (1,144), sixth in yards per rush (5.0), and tied for seventh in rushing touchdowns (12). He also tied for the sixth-most receiving touchdowns (three) among running backs.

McVay also guided Receiver Puka Nacua to a record-breaking rookie season. Nacua set the record for most receptions and receiving yards by a rookie in a single season in NFL history. His 181 receiving yards in the Wild Card Round also set an NFL rookie record for the most in a playoff game as well as the most in franchise history during a Wild Card Round matchup. McVay guided Nacua to finish ninth in receptions (104) and fourth in receiving yards (1,486) to go along with Second-Team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl nod.

The Rams offensive line was among the best in the league in several categies during the 2023 season. The unit paved the way for one of the league's best rushing attacks and finished tied for sixth in sacks allowed (34), seventh in sack rate (5.5%), seventh in pressures allowed (213), and ninth in pressures allowed per dropback (33.5%).

The defense also made steady improvements during the and finished seventh in opponents completion percentage (60.8%), 12th in opponents passer rating (88.0), 12th in opponent rush yards per game, and 11th in opponent rushing touchdowns allowed.

Aaron Donald became an eight-time All-Pro selection, which tied for the most by a defensive player and tied for the fifth-most overall. He finished ninth in the NFL in pressures (84) during the regular season. Linebacker Ernest Jones also finished 11th in the NFL in tackles (145), which set a single-season franchise record.

Additionally, rookies such as Defensive Lineman Kobie Turner and Outside Linebacker Byron Young burst onto the NFL scene under McVay's leadership in 2023. Turner's nine sacks tied the franchise record for most by a rookie, tying Donald's total in 2014. He also became the only rookie in franchise history to finish the regular season as the team's sack leader. Young finished one sack short of the franchise rookie record mark, finishing with eight on the season.

In 2022, McVay helped several Rams players receive notable recognitions for their performances on the field. Donald was voted to his ninth career Pro Bowl and was named to the NFLPA All-Pro team while former Defensive Back Jalen Ramsey was voted to his sixth Pro Bowl. Additionally, in his lone season with the Rams, former Linebacker Bobby Wagner fell three tackles short of breaking the Rams' single-season tackle record (142). Before sustaining an injury in Week 11, McVay helped Stafford record the highest completion percentage of his career (68.0%). He also supported former Rams Quarterback Baker Mayfield, who led the Rams on a game-winning drive against the Raiders in Week 14 despite joining the team only two days prior. Mayfield and McVay led the Rams on a 98-yard touchdown drive to win the game. According to Elias Sports Bureau, that was the longest go-ahead touchdown drive to begin in the final two minutes of a game in the last 45 years. Mayfield earned Player of the Week honors following the game.

Former Running Back Cam Akers eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in three consecutive games to close out the regular season and became the first Rams running back to have three consecutive 100+ yard rushing performances in the same season since Todd Gurley in 2015.

McVay also helped Tyler Higbee break the single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end (72) and become the team's all-time leader in touchdowns for tight ends (20).

Under the leadership of McVay in 2022, the Rams' defense ranked among the best in the NFL and finished first in opponent red zone efficiency (44.4%), second in goal-to-go efficiency (53.3%), and fourth in fewest missed tackles (103). The Rams' defense also finished tied for seventh in interceptions (16), and ninth in defensive total rush EPA (42.97).

McVay produced his fifth-straight winning season with the Rams in 2021, which was the longest consecutive winning season streak since the Rams posted four-consecutive winning seasons from 1983-1986. The 12-5 record earned L.A. its fourth postseason appearance and second Super Bowl appearance in McVay's first five seasons leading the franchise which was capped off by a Super Bowl LVI victory in the Rams' home stadium. McVay became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl at the age of 36.

He also became the second-fastest coach in franchise history to reach the 50-win mark and was the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl during the 2018 campaign. He was the youngest coach to win AP Coach of the Year at the age of 31 and won 70% of his first 50 games, which is the sixth-best winning percentage of all-time among coaches with at least 50 games.

The Rams offense thrived during the 2021 season and in Stafford's first year under center. Under McVay's guidance, the Rams offense ranked in the top 10 in total offense and fifth in passing offense. Stafford threw for almost 5,000 yards and Kupp won the Triple Crown, leading the league in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns.

The Rams would have sent four starters to the 2021 Pro Bowl had they not been preparing for Super Bowl LVI at SoFi Stadium. On offense, Kupp was selected to his first Pro Bowl. On defense, Ramsey earned his fifth straight Pro Bowl nod and Donald earned his eighth-straight Pro Bowl nod. Former Kicker Matt Gay was selected as the starter in his first Pro Bowl. The Rams also had four players selected as alternates including Matthew Stafford, former Tackle Andrew Whitworth, former Outside Linebacker Leonard Floyd and former Center Brian Allen. Kupp, Ramsey and Donald were All-Pro selections.

In a season that was anything but normal due to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, the Rams defense flourished earning the league's No. 1 ranked unit and dominating in three different categories. The Rams defense held opposing offenses to only 16.8 points per game, 281.9 yards per game, 190.7 passing yards per game and held each opposing quarterback to under 300 net yards passing. McVay won his third-career postseason contest, this time against a familiar opponent on the road against the Seattle Seahawks in a Wild Card game before falling to the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in the Divisional Round.

In 2020, Donald became the third player in league history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year three times. He was also named the PFWA Defensive Player of the Year for the second time and joined teammate Jalen Ramsey on the PFWA All-NFL Team. Donald finished the season with 13.5 sacks.

L.A. finished 10th in the league in rushing, averaging 126.1 yards per game led by rookie Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. The Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

In a win-and-in Week 17 contest against the Arizona Cardinals, McVay helped former Quarterback John Wolford earn his first-career win in his first-career NFL appearance and start. Wolford finished the game completing 22-of-38 passing attempts for 231 yards.

McVay's third season as head coach in 2019 produced his third-consecutive winning season with a 9-7 record. Three-consecutive winning seasons had not been accomplished by a Rams team since 1999-2001, and it was only the third time since 1980 the franchise accomplished the feat. Additionally, McVay became the first head coach since 2016 to have a winning record in each of their first three seasons as a head coach and became the fourth Rams head coach to have a winning record in three-consecutive seasons.

In his third year working with former Quarterback Jared Goff, McVay helped him throw for over 4,000 yards for the second-consecutive season, becoming the first quarterback in franchise history to do so. Goff also climbed up the Rams' passing leader board, closing out the season sixth on the franchise list.

Under McVay's guidance, the Rams had multiple receivers finish the season with over 1,000 receiving yards. Former Receiver Robert Woods posted his second-consecutive season with over 1,000 receiving yards, finishing with 1,134. Kupp posted his first season with over 1,000 receiving yards, totaling a team-best 1,161. The 2019 campaign was the first time since 1999-2002 the Rams had consecutive seasons with multiple receivers recording over 1,000 yards. Despite changes in personnel and position due to injuries, L.A.'s offensive front managed to post six games without allowing a sack, good for a single-season franchise record. The defense received a boost when L.A. acquired Pro Bowler Jalen Ramsey via trade in Week 7 of the 2019 campaign. The defense went on to finish with the fourth-most sacks in the league (50.0) and was ranked 13th overall.

In McVay's second season guiding the Rams, the 32-year-old leader turned in one of the best seasons in franchise history. The Rams posted a 13-3 record, which tied for the second-best record in franchise history. The Rams also won a pair of playoff games and advanced to their fourth Super Bowl appearance days after his 33rd birthday.

The 2018 Rams built on the successful foundation McVay and company created in their first season in 2017. With the guidance of McVay, the Rams' passing attack finished among the top 10 in passing yards per attempt (8.33, 4th), passing yards per game (295.6, 5th) and touchdowns (32, tied for 8th). Goff set career-bests, amassing 4,688 passing yards, the second-best single-season output in Rams history.

In the run game, Gurley II followed up an MVP-caliber 2017 season with an equally impressive 2018 campaign in which he led the NFL in touchdowns (21) and points scored amongst non-kickers (132) for the second-consecutive year. His 17 rushing touchdowns were a career-high and the second-most single-season rushing scores in Rams history.

Following his second season as an NFL head coach, McVay ranked 17th on Fortune Magazine's World's Greatest Leaders Top-50 List. He was joined on the list by the likes of Bill Gates and Jacinda Ardern and the Prime Minister of New Zealand. The complete rankings are found in the May 2019 issue of Fortune.

The Rams defense proved stout down the stretch in 2018 and helped the team secure a first-round bye in the playoffs. The Rams held the Patriots offensive attack to only 13 points in Super Bowl LIII. The defense was led by Donald, who posted a franchise-best 20.5 sacks, the most ever by a defensive tackle. Donald recorded 183.5 sack yards, the most ever by a defender in a single season. As a unit, the Rams ranked sixth with 1.6 takeaways per game.

In his first season guiding the Rams, McVay completed one of the greatest offensive turnarounds in NFL history. He helped the Rams move from the 32nd-ranked scoring offense in 2016 to the league's top-scoring team in 2017, marking the first time in league history a team has gone from last to first in scoring. The first-year head coach led the Rams to an 11-5 record and their first NFC West title since the 2003 season. McVay guided the Rams to their first playoff berth since 2004.

Following his first season in L.A., McVay was named The Associated Press Coach of the Year, becoming the youngest head coach to ever win the award. Gurley brought home Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Donald was named the Defensive Player of the Year, marking the first time in the 45 year history of the awards there was a sweep of three of the league's top awards. The Rams placed eight players in the 2018 Pro Bowl, the most in a single season by the franchise since the 1999 campaign.

Under McVay's guidance in 2017, Goff flourished earning his first Pro Bowl appearance. Goff completed 296-of-477 (62.1 percent) of his passes for 3,804 yards with 28 touchdowns and seven interceptions posting a 100.5 QB rating on the season. Gurley led the league in scrimmage yards finishing the year with 2,093 yards, including 1,305 rushing yards and 788 receiving yards. Additionally, Gurley was the league's highest-scoring non-kicker posting 19 total touchdowns on the season.

The Rams' defense posted the fourth-most sacks (48.0), tied for sixth in interceptions (18) and finished the 2017 campaign fifth in total takeaways (28). The takeaways directly resulted in 126 points for L.A., the second-best total in the NFL.

In his first season as head coach, the Rams' special teams unit played an integral part in the team's success and was rewarded with a total of four special teamers being named to the Pro Bowl. The L.A. special teams unit was a top-10 finisher in 18-of-22 statistical categories in the 2017 special teams rankings.

Before joining the Rams, McVay completed his third season as Washington's offensive coordinator in 2016 after initially being promoted to the position on January 15, 2014. Prior to his promotion during the 2014 offseason, McVay spent three seasons as the team's tight ends coach (2011-13) and one as an offensive assistant (2010).

The 2016 Washington offensive unit broke many franchise records and ranked in the top-three in a number of statistical categories. The Washington offense became the first unit in franchise history to average over 400 yards per game (403.4) and notched a franchise record 6,545 total net yards.

Former Commanders Quarterback Kirk Cousins finished the year with single-season team records in completions (406) and passing yards (4,917) and matched his team record for 300-yard passing games (seven). His 4,917 passing yards ranked third in the NFL in 2016 and are the 15th-most in a season in NFL history. Cousins closed out the season ranked second in the NFL in passing yards per game (297.4), passing yards per play (7.84) and yards per play (6.4), in addition to being the league's third ranked offensive team, averaging 403.4 yards per game.

From 2015-16, Cousins threw for 9,083 yards, the fourth highest output by a quarterback trailing only Drew Brees (10,078), Matt Ryan (9,535) and Philip Rivers (9,178).

The Washington offense had eight players finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage (DeSean Jackson, Pierre Garcon, Jamison Crowder, Rob Kelley, Chris Thompson, Jordan Reed, Vernon Davis and Matt Jones), tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single-season in NFL history. McVay's group posted a breakout campaign in his second year as offensive coordinator in 2015, including record-setting performances by Cousins and tight end Jordan Reed. McVay's scheme and tutelage helped Cousins break the Washington records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) in a single season. Reed was a direct beneficiary of McVay's work, spending 2013 as a member of his unit during McVay's time as tight ends coach and being a focal point of the offense in 2015 when Reed recorded 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns (one shy of the team record) in 2015.

Collectively, McVay's 2015 offense recorded Top 10 rankings in third down percentage (43.5, fifth in the NFL), red zone scoring percentage (61.2, eighth), yards per play (5.6, 10th) and points per game (24.3, 10th). Washington also led the NFL with a team-record 69.5 completion percentage in 2015.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2014, McVay helped the Washignton offense to a Top 10 league ranking in yards per play (5.7) despite starting three different quarterbacks. His work with the three passers was instrumental in setting a team record for completion percentage (66.5 percent, later broken in 2015) and helping facilitate the explosive debut season of wide receiver DeSean Jackson. Jackson averaged a league-best 20.9 yards per reception and became only the fourth player in team history to lead the NFL in that category.

In 2013, McVay played a crucial role in Reed's development, as the then-rookie compiled 45 receptions for 499 yards – both Washington's single-season rookie tight end records – despite Reed playing in only nine games. Under McVay's tutelage, Reed joined Chris Cooley (2004) as the only Washington tight ends named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2012, McVay's unit was productive despite losing starting TE Fred Davis to a torn Achilles tendon in Week 7. Davis had led the team in both receptions (24) and receiving yards (325) through seven games before being placed on the reserve/injured list.

In 2011, McVay played an integral role in Davis' emergence, as the then fourth-year tight end surpassed his previous career highs despite playing in only 12 games. Davis caught 59 passes for 796 yards, the second-highest total on the team in both categories. Before missing the final four games of the season, Davis was on pace to set a franchise record in receiving yards by a tight end and was on pace to post the first 1,000-yard receiving season by a tight end in Washington's history.

McVay served as an offensive assistant for Washington in 2010 in addition to working with the tight ends during the final four weeks of the season. The Washington offense ranked eighth in the NFL in passing yards per game (244.6) and tight end Chris Cooley ranked second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849). The offensive unit also set a franchise record for completions in a season (349), and registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in team history.

McVay joined the Washington coaching staff prior to the 2010 season after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League (UFL). The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008.

During his time in Tampa Bay, McVay worked closely with wide receiver Antonio Bryant, who recorded career highs in receptions (83), receiving yards (1,248), and touchdowns (seven), en route to winning The Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year Award.

McVay graduated from Miami University (Ohio) where he played wide receiver from 2004-07, earning Miami's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2007. McVay's statue was unveiled in the university's "Cradle of Coaches". His grandfather, John, served in various roles – including vice president/director of football operations from 1983-94 – for the San Francisco 49ers from 1979-95, overseeing five Super Bowl championship squads and earning induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

Mike LaFleur enters his second season with the Los Angeles Rams as team's offensive coordinator. He joined the team ahead of the 2023 season after serving as the New York Jets offensive coordinator for the two seasons.

In his first season in Los Angeles, the Rams had a top-ranked offense. The unit finished the season seventh in yards per game (359.3) and yards per play (5.6), 11th in rushing yards per game (120.3), 12th in yards per rush (4.3), 10th in passing yards per game (239.0), and eighth in first downs per game (20.6), third down conversion rate (42%), and points scored per game (23.76). The offense also finished fourth in fourth down conversion rate (61.9%) and red zone efficiency (63.6%). The Rams had the best yards per game ranking since 2019.

Many offensive players excelled under LaFleur's guidance in 2023 including record-breaking rookie Receiver Puka Nacua, All-Pro Running Back Kyren Williams, and veteran Quarterback Matthew Stafford. Nacua broke NFL and franchise records almost every week of play and finished the regular season with the most receiving yards (1,486) and receptions (105) in a single season for a rookie in NFL history. Williams recorded his first season with 1,000 or more rushing yards and captured many accolades throughout the year. Stafford led a very young offense and finished with a passer rating of 92.5.

In his second season as the Jets offensive coordinator in 2022, receiver Garrett Wilson became the first rookie in Jets history and one of 23 players in NFL history to record at least 1,000 receiving yards in his first NFL season. Under the guidance of LaFleur, the Jets offense tied for the most explosive plays in the fourth quarter (39) and recorded a league-best 41 explosive plays by rookies. Additionally, the Jets 10 offensive touchdowns by rookies was fifth-most in the NFL.

LaFleur also helped backup quarterback Mike White record a 405-passing yard performance in Week 8. White became the fifth player in NFL history with more than 350 passing yards in at least two of his first five starts. Despite facing injuries early in the season at the quarterback position, the Jets passing offense finished the 2022 season ranked 15th in passing yards per game (219) as well as 14th in receiving yards (4,040), yards per reception (11.32) and yards after the catch (1,850). The Jets offense also finished 11th in goal to go efficiency (76.2%).

In his first year in the offensive coordinator role, LaFleur worked with four different quarterbacks that threw for more than 290 yards in a game, the first team in NFL history to accomplish that feat. Each of the four quarterbacks also threw two touchdown passes in a game during the season, the first time that has happened since 1987. He oversaw a Jets offense that was one of the youngest in the league and became just the second team since 1970 with a rookie leader in passing, rushing and receiving yards.

LaFleur's offense also featured a rookie receiver, Elijah Moore, that finished in the top 10 among rookies in receiving yards in 2021. This marked the fourth consecutive season a rookie receiver in LaFleur's offense finished the year atop the league's rookie rankings in receiving yards. The Jets rushing attack also improved and over the final eight games, the offense increased their rushing output by more than 50 yards per game and averaged 5.2 yards per carry, which was second-best during that span. Under LaFleur's guidance, rookie fourth-round pick Michael Carter became the first rookie to lead the Jets in rushing since 2006.

Before joining the Jets coaching staff, LaFleur spent four seasons with the 49ers from 2017-20. In his final three seasons in San Francisco, he served as the passing game coordinator and helped the 49ers offense finish in the top 10 in scoring (24.9) and total offense (370.6) while George Kittle set a then NFL record for tight ends with 1,377 receiving yards in 2019 and became a two-time All-Pro selection. During the 2019 season that ended with a Super Bowl appearance, the 49ers offense had 13 different players record at least one touchdown catch, tying the NFL record for the most players with a touchdown catch in a single season. Quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo also finished fourth in yards per attempt (8.2), fifth in completion percentage (67.5%), and ninth in passer rating (98.6) among quarterbacks with at least 25 starts since 2018.

Before joining the 49ers, LaFleur served as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons for two seasons, first working with the tight ends in 2015 and then the wide receivers in 2016. During his time with the receivers, Julio Jones finished second in the league in receiving yards (1,409) and averaged 17.0 yards per catch, which was the fourth-best average in the league among qualified receivers. The Falcons receivers totaled 3,226 receiving yards, the second-most in the NFL that season, which helped propel the Falcons to Super Bowl LI. In his one season working with tight ends, Jacob Tamme ranked in the top 10 for receiving yards amongst tight ends (657).

LaFleur began his NFL coaching career as an offensive coaching intern working with the Cleveland Browns offensive line in 2014. LaFleur and the offensive line helped the Browns running backs rush for 16 touchdowns which was tied for the second-most in the NFL.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, LaFleur coached at the collegiate level for five seasons and started his coaching career at his alma mater, Elmhurst College, in 2009 as an offensive assistant working with the quarterbacks. He also served as an offensive coordinator at Saint Joseph's College from 2010-12 and then Davidson College in 2013.

A native of Mount Pleasant, MI, LaFleur was a team captain and three-time letter winner as a quarterback and safety at Elmhurst. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 2009. LaFleur and his wife, Lauren, have two children. His father, Denny, won a National Championship at Central Michigan in 1974, before later becoming an assistant coach at the school. His brother, Matt, is the head coach of the Green Bay Packers and served as the Rams offensive coordinator in 2017.

Chris Shula

College: Miami (Ohio)
Rams Coaching Year: 8

Chris Shula enters his eighth season with the Rams, his first as the defensive coordinator after serving as the linebackers coach and pass rush coordinator during the 2023 season.

Last season under Shula's guidance, Linebacker Ernest Jones set the franchise record for most tackles in a single season (145) despite missing a game due to injury, and finished 11th in the NFL in tackles. Jones also finished with the eighth-best defensive grade (82.1), the fifth-best run defense grade (90.0), the seventh-best tackling grade (80.5), and the ninth-best pressure grade (78.2) among linebackers, according to Pro Football Focus. Jones was one of 13 players in the NFL to finish with a run defense grade over 90.0 last season.

Additionally, Outside Linebacker Byron Young had a stellar rookie campaign and recorded 8.0 sacks, which tied for second-most on the team and is tied for the second-most by a rookie in franchise history behind Kobie Turner and Aaron Donald. Young also finished second on the team in pressures (50), quarterback hits (21), and finished third in hurries (29). Turner (9.0) and Young finished first and second respectively in sacks amongst rookies in the NFL. The Rams also had four defensive players record six or more sacks during the 2023 campaign.

In 2022 under Shula's leadership, the Rams secondary shined, even with rookies stepping up to play significant snaps. The Rams secondary finished tied for seventh in interceptions (16), and 12 of them were hauled in by players in the secondary.

Former Rams' Defensive Back Jalen Ramsey finished second in the NFL in passes defended (18) and tied for third in pass breakups (12) and 11th in interceptions (four) to earn his sixth-career Pro Bowl nod. Additionally, rookie Defensive Back Cobie Durant led the NFL in interception return yards (151) on three interceptions. He became the first Rams rookie, and eighth player in NFL history, to record a sack and interception in the same game within their first two NFL games during a Week 2 matchup against the Falcons. Former Rams Safety Taylor Rapp also had one of his best seasons under Shula and was the 12th-highest graded safety during the 2022 season, according to PFF.

With the guidance of Shula during the team's Super Bowl-winning season in 2021, Jones became an instant contributor as a rookie. He started 15 games and tallied 58 tackles (33 solo), one sack, a tackle for loss, four pass breakups, two interceptions (50 interception return yards) and six quarterback pressures. Shula also helped Jones have a standout performance in Super Bowl LVI with seven tackles (six solo), 1.0 sack, one pass breakup, and four quarterback pressures.

Shula's unit supported the Rams defense which finished sixth in the NFL in opponents rushing yards per game (103.2), sixth in opponents rush yards (1,754), and fifth in yards per rush (3.96) in 2021.

The Rams' defense was the top-ranked defensive unit in 2020, allowing the fewest points per game (18.5), passing yards per game (190.7) and total yards per game (281.9). The Rams also finished second in the league in sacks (53.0) that season.

Additionally in 2020, free agent addition OLB Leonard Floyd enjoyed a career-year under the guidance of Shula. Floyd posted a career-best 10.5 sacks in his first season with the Rams.

In his first season working primarily with the outside linebackers in 2019, Shula helped former OLB Dante Fowler Jr. put together a career-year that featured a career-best 11.5 sacks to go along with career-highs in tackles (58), forced fumbles (two), passes defensed (six), tackles for loss (16) and quarterback hits (16).

Shula also assisted in a strong season for veteran LB Clay Matthews, who tallied 8.0 sacks in only 13 games played, his highest sack total since the 2014 season.

With the help of Shula, former LB Cory Littleton put together a career year in his third pro campaign. His 125 tackles led the team and was tied for 10th-most in the NFL in 2018, in addition to posting the most passes defended (13) by any linebacker in the league.

In 2017, LBs Alec Ogletree and Mark Barron each posted over 100 tackles. Barron, a converted safety playing his first season in former Defensive Coordinator Wade Phillips' system, posted a career-high and tied for a team-best three interceptions on the season.

Prior to joining the Rams in 2017, Shula spent two seasons as defensive quality control coach with the Chargers. In his capacity, Shula assisted with the defensive line, which saw a breakout season from rookie DE Joey Bosa, who finished the 2016 season tied for sixth in the AFC in sacks with 10.5.

Shula entered the NFL after spending one season as defensive coordinator at John Carroll University in 2014. During that season, John Carroll reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division III playoffs and finished 10th in Division III in scoring defense.

Prior to his time at John Carroll University, Shula spent three seasons as a graduate assistant, working primarily with defensive backs at Indiana University. Shula entered the coaching ranks as the assistant linebackers coach at Ball State in 2010.

He was a linebacker at Miami (Ohio) from 2004-08, where he was a teammate of Head Coach Sean McVay for four seasons.

Shula is the son of David Shula, former head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and the grandson of Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula. The Shulas are one-of-two three-generation coaching families in NFL history. He and his wife, Jennifer, got married in 2021 and have a daughter, Avery.

Chase Blackburn

College: Akron
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Chase Blackburn enters his second season with the Los Angeles Rams as the special teams coordinator.

During the 2023 season , Blackburn led a young special teams unit that featured a rookie punter in Ethan Evans and a rookie longsnapper in Alex Ward. With Blackburn's guidance, Evans finished the regular season ranked 10th in the NFL in yards per punt (49.2) and 12th for the longest punt (72 yards). Evans earned Special Teams Player of the Week honors after he averaged 52.6 yards per punt on five attempts in a win over the Seattle Seahawks in Week 11. It was the first time a Rams punter took home that honor since former Punter Johnny Hekker won it during the 2020 season.

Additionally, the Rams special teams unit finished ninth in made field goals (32), despite facing multiple kicking changes, and 10th in yards per punt (48.5). The last time the Rams finished in the top 10 in both categories was in the 2018 season.

Blackburn joined the Rams after spending a season with the Tennessee Titans as their assistant special teams coordinator in 2022

In Tennessee, the Titans special teams unit finished first in yards per punt (53.1), fifth in opponent yards per punt return (10.78), seventh in opponent yards per punt (45.1), and tied for ninth in opponent field goals made (25). Under Blackburn's guidance, the special teams unit also ranked second in opponent average starting field position (24.5).

Before joining the Titans in 2022, Blackburn spent six seasons with the Carolina Panthers, the final four as special teams coordinator. In his final year with the Panthers in 2021, Carolina's special teams unit ranked eighth in opponent yards per punt return (7.4) and field goal percentage (89.7). Despite using three kickers throughout the course of the season, the Carolina kickers converted 26-of-29 field goal attempts. The special teams unit also blocked a punt and returned it for a touchdown against the Vikings in Week 6.

During the 2020 season, Blackburn guided rookie punter Joseph Charlton to NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after tying a franchise-record with five punts inside the 20-yard line during a game at Washington in Week 16. The special teams unit also set a franchise-record that season for the most punts inside the 20 (46.7%), which ranked third in the NFL.

In 2019, Blackburn helped rookie kicker Joey Slye set a franchise record after making an NFL-best eight field goals from 50 or more yards. Carolina's punting unit also converted two fake punts for first downs and punter Michael Palardy landed 25 punts inside the 20-yard line with only three touchbacks all season.

During his first season as special teams coordinator in 2018, the Panthers ranked sixth in the NFL in field goal percentage. Kickers Graham Gano and Chandler Catanzaro combined to make 19-of-21 field goal attempts, including 5-of-6 from 50 yards or more. Gano's 63-yard game-winning field goal against the Giants tied for the longest game-winning field goal in NFL history and the second-longest all-time.

In 2017, Blackburn coached a Panthers special teams unit that produced a kickoff return touchdown and punt return touchdown in the same season for the first time since 2003. Gano also earned his first Pro Bowl appearance after setting a franchise-record and leading the NFL in field goal percentage (96.7), converting 29-of-30 attempts. In the NFC Wild Card Round against the Saints, Gano set a franchise playoff-record with a 58-yard field goal, which also tied an NFL postseason record.

He made his coaching debut with the Carolina Panthers in 2016 serving as a coaching intern. That season, the Panthers led the NFL and tied a team record with three blocked field goals.

Before beginning his coaching career, Blackburn played in the NFL for 10 seasons including eight with the New York Giants from 2005-12 and two with the Panthers from 2013-14. He entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent and appeared in 132 career games (45 starts) and recorded 265 tackles, 4.5 sacks, four interceptions, 10 passes defensed and four forced fumbled. He also tallied 123 tackles, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries on special teams. Blackburn became a Super Bowl XLVI champion when the Giants defeated the New England Patriots in 2011. He is one of two current NFL coaches to record an interception in a Super Bowl as a player.

During his collegiate playing days at Akron, Blackburn saw action at linebacker and defensive end. He played in 45 games (34 starts) for the Zips and totaled 293 tackles, 38 tackles for loss, 11.0 sacks and three interceptions. Blackburn earned Second-Team All-MAC honors as a junior in 2003 and played in the Gridiron Classic as a senior in 2004.

Blackburn attended Marysville (Ohio) High School and graduated from Akron with a degree in mathematics. He and his wife, Megan, have three sons Landyn, Bentley and Wyatt.

Chris Beake

College: Air Force
Rams Coaching Year: 3

Chris Beake enters his 26th season coaching in the NFL and his third with the Los Angeles Rams.

He served as the secondary coach in 2023 and mentored the safeties. Under his guidance, Defensive Back Jordan Fuller was one of 11 players in the league to force six or more turnovers, with three forced fumbles to go along with his three interceptions, leading into the final game of the regular season. Beake also played a role in the development of Defensive Back Quentin Lake, who had a breakout season notching 53 tackles, one fumble recovery, five pass breakups, and six passes defended.

Additionally, Beake mentored Defensive Back John Johnson, who finished the season 18th among secondary defenders in passer rating against as the primary defender (35.4) to go along with his two interceptions on the season. Second-year Defensive Back Russ Yeast also notched career-highs in 2023, tallying 61 tackles, three pressures, five passes defended and four pass breakups.

The Rams' inside linebackers had a productive season under Beake's guidance in 2022. In his first and only season with the team, former Linebacker Bobby Wagner had a career year and finished three tackles short of setting the Rams' franchise record for tackles in a single season, which was set by James Laurinaitis (142) in 2011 and 2012. He was also Pro Football Focus' top-ranked linebacker in the regular season with a 90.7 grade. Wagner finished tied for 10th in tackles against the rush (84), 13th in tackles (140), tied for 20th in stops (51), and tied for 38th in tackles for loss (10).

Beake also played an instrumental role in the development of Ernest Jones in 2022. He finished 35th in tackles (113), which was second on the team behind Wagner. With the elite play from both inside linebackers, the Rams rush defense was among the best in the NFL and only allowed two players to eclipse the 100-yard rushing mark. The Rams were one of four teams to enter Week 17 without allowing a 100-yard rusher that season.

Beake spent nine years of his career in Denver working with the Broncos defense serving as pass game specialist (2021), defensive assistant (2019-20), defensive assistant/defensive line (2016-18), defensive assistant (2014-15) and defensive quality control (2013).

During Beake's nine seasons in Denver, the Broncos allowed the third-fewest total yards (327.4) and seventh-fewest points (21.8) in the league. The Broncos were also one of just two NFL teams to finish in the top eight against the run (seventh/106.4 ypg) and against the pass (second/221.0 ypg) during that span.

In his first year as defensive pass game specialist in 2021, Beake continued to push the Broncos secondary, working directly with safeties such as Justin Simmons and Kareem Jackson. Opposing offenses were challenged in the pass game as the Broncos defense ranked fourth in opposing completion percentage (60.7%), fifth in passing touchdowns allowed (22), sixth in opponent passer rating (85.0) and eighth in passing yards allowed (3,652). As a collective unit, the Broncos defense made 13 interceptions for 221 return yards.

In 2020, Beake took on increased coaching responsibilities in the secondary, stepping into an elevated weekly and gameday role with several coaches missing time due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Denver led the NFL in red zone defense (47.5%, 29-of-61) for the second consecutive season while outside linebacker Bradley Chubb and safety Justin Simmons were voted to their first Pro Bowls.

From 2013-20, the Broncos defense featured eight players who combined for 20 Pro Bowl selections, led by 2010's NFL All-Decade linebacker Von Miller, who led the NFL with 81.0 total sacks during that span. Beake worked extensively with the Broncos' outside linebackers in 2018 as Miller was selected to his seventh Pro Bowl and Chubb set the franchise rookie record for sacks (12.0).

In his two seasons (2011-12) with the Browns, Beake worked with one of the youngest offenses in the NFL, helping to develop a quarterback group that included draft choices Colt McCoy and Brandon Weeden.

Beake spent two seasons with Seattle, serving as the Seahawks' offensive quality control coach in 2008 and offensive assistant/assistant special teams coach in 2009. From 2004-06, he coached linebackers for the Atlanta Falcons, tutoring All-Pro Linebacker Keith Brooking, who earned the final two of his five career Pro Bowl selections in 2004 and 2005.

Beake started his NFL career with San Francisco in 1998 as a pro personnel assistant and spent the next five seasons with the 49ers coaching on both sides of the ball.

He is a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy, where he played quarterback from 1990-92 and majored in civil engineering. He began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant for his alma mater in 1994. Beake served as a Civil Engineer Officer in the Air Force from 1995-98 while earning his master's degree in business administration from the University of West Florida.

Beake's father, John, was the general manager of the Denver Broncos from 1984-98, part of a 44-year career as a coach or administrator at the high school, college or pro levels. Chris and his wife, Andrea, have a son, Colin (18) and twin daughters, Madeline and Emilie (12). He was born on Sept. 10, 1972, in Kansas City.

Nick Caley

College: John Carroll
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Nick Caley enters his second season with the Los Angeles Rams as the pass game coordinator and tight ends coach after leading the tight end group last season.

He joined the Rams leading up to the 2023 season after coaching tigth ends for the New England Patriots for six seasons. He also coached fullbacks from 2017-21.

Under Caley's guidance during the 2023 season, veteran Tight End Tyler Higbee surpassed many franchise records and milestones. Higbee eclipsed Harold Jackson and moved to 14th in franchise history in receiving yards, passed Jack Snow and Elroy Hirsch and moved to ninth all-time in franchise history in receptions, and passed Preston Dennard in touchdown receptions and moved to 15th in franchise history. Among tight ends, Higbee finished the regular season ranked 20th in receiving yards, 10th in yards per reception, and tied for 16th in yards after the catch.

Caley also played an instrumental role in the development of rookie Davis Allen in 2023. Allen recorded a solid performance in a Week 14 matchup against the Ravens with a season-high 50 receiving yards and recorded his first career touchdown reception.

In Caley's first season as a tight ends coach in 2017, Patriots star Rob Gronkowski earned his fifth career Pro Bowl invitation and was named an AP First-Team All-Pro selection. Gronkowski led all tight ends in receiving yards (1,084) and yards per reception (15.7). That same season, Caley oached fullback James Develin, who earned his first Pro Bowl nod.

Caley also mentored players such as Hunter Henry and Jonnu Smith during his time as the Patriots tight ends coach. Under Caley's guidance in 2021, Henry finished with the third-most receptions (50), receiving yards (603) and yards per reception (12.1) in his career. Henry also set a career-high in touchdown catches that season with nine.

In his first two seasons in the NFL coaching ranks with the Patriots in 2015 and 2016, Caley served as an offensive coaching assistant.

Prior to joining the Patriots coaching staff, Caley spent 10 years coaching in the college ranks mainly on the defensive side of the ball. He spent time at seven different schools with multiple stints as a secondary coach.

He joined the Florida Atlantic staff as the secondary coach in 2014 and helped his unit flourish with five secondary players finishing amongst the team's top eight tacklers.

Caley was a defensive graduate assistant at Arkansas in 2013 where he assisted with the linebackers and special teams unit.

At Eastern Illinois as a secondary coach in 2012, Caley helped the defense finish second in the Ohio Valley Conference in pass efficiency. He coached safety Nick Beard, who was named first-team all-conference and helped Eastern Illinois finish the 2012 campaign as Ohio Valley Conference Champions.

As a defensive graduate assistant at Iowa State, Caley helped the defense finish eighth nationally in forced turnovers (32). He worked with Leonard Johnson, who was a Second-Team All-Big 12 selection and David Sims who was an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection. Both players spent time in the NFL as undrafted free agents.

In 2008, Caley served at Auburn as a defensive administrative assistant. He worked closely with defensive coordinator Paul Rhoads and the Tiger secondary unit that finished 19th nationally in pass defense. The Auburn defense finished the season ranked 14th nationally in scoring defense and 29th in total defense. Caley worked with third round draft pick Jerraud Powers and fifth round selection Walt McFadden that season.

During his time as a defensive graduate assistant at Akron, Caley was part of a staff that captured the first Mid-American Conference Championship in school history and the school's first bowl game appearance in the Motor City Bowl. Caley worked with the secondary that featured Reggie Corner, who was selected by the Buffalo Bills in the fourth round of the NFL Draft, as well as Brandon Anderson who signed with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as an undrafted free agent.

Caley began his coaching career at his alma mater, John Carroll, as a student coach in 2005.

He earned his bachelor of arts in communications from John Carroll (2006) and a master of science, sports science and coaching from Akron (2008). He also received a master of education in educational leadership and policy studies from Iowa State (2011).

Caley was born on January 22, 1983 in Canton, Ohio which is home to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Grace, have two daughters, Caroline and Vivian.

Assistant Defensive Line

Andrew Carter

College:
NFL Coaching Year: 3
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Andrew Carter enters his second season with the Los Angeles Rams as an assistant defensive line coach.

During the 2023 campaign with the assistance of Carter, the Rams defense ranked in the top half of the league in opponent rushing yards allowed, rushing touchdowns allowed, and defensive total rush EPA. Carter also played an essential role in the development of rookie Defensive Lineman Kobie Turner, who had a record-breaking first season and became a finalist for the Defensive Rookie of the Year Award.

Turner finished the regular season with 9.0 sacks, tying Aaron Donald for the most sacks by a rookie in franchise history and becoming the only rookie in franchise history to lead the team in sacks. Among rookie defensive players last season, Turner finished first in sacks, third in quarterback hits, tied for fourth in tackles for loss, fifth in pressures and hurries, eighth in tackles, and 10th in snaps played.

Carter also helped coach Aaron Donald in his final NFL season in which he passed Pat Swilling for 28th all-time in NFL history in sacks and passed Julius Peppers for the third-most tackles for loss in NFL history. Donald finished the 2023 season ranked ninth in pressures and tied for fourth in hurries.

Carter joined the Rams after spending the 2022 season as the defensive quality control coach for the Denver Broncos. He coached for a top-10 defensive unit in Denver that finished the 2022 season seventh in yards allowed per game (320.0), sixth in yards per play (5.04), 10th in rush yards allowed per game (109.8), 11th in yards per rush (4.26), and 12th in pass yards allowed per game (210.2). The Broncos' defense also ranked second in opponent third down conversion rate (34.1%), seventh in opponent red zone efficiency (51.1%), and tied for 10th in interceptions (15).

Prior to joining the Broncos coaching staff, Carter spent two seasons as a graduate assistant and defensive assistant at the University of Kansas. He was set to become the defensive line coach at the University of Tennessee Martin before deciding to join the Broncos' staff.

Before his time with the Jayhawks, Carter coached the defensive tackles at Hampton University for one season in 2019. He mentored two All-Big South Conference players, Andy Matthews and Desmond Sturdivant, and his unit contributed to a defense that ranked second in fewest rushing yards allowed (1,788), third in sacks (29), and tied for third in yards per rush (4.5).

Carter spent two seasons at his alma mater, Eastern Illinois, in 2017-18 before coaching at Hampton. In 2017, he served as a graduate assistant and director of football operations before being promoted to defensive line coach in 2018.

During his tenure at Eastern Illinois, Carter guided two players to All-Ohio Valley conference honors. Defensive End David Johnson garnered all-conference nods on two occasions in 2016 and 2017, while defensive lineman Levi Watson earned the recognition in 2018.

In addition to his five years coaching at the collegiate level, Carter also spent two years coaching high school football in Louisiana. Prior to joining the Eastern Illinois coaching staff, Carter was an offensive line and tight ends coach at Riverdale High School after serving as assistant head coach/co-defensive coordinator at Sophie B. Wright Charter School for the 2015 and 2016 high school seasons.

Carter graduated from Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, Louisiana in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in human performance education. He also earned a master's degree in technology from Eastern Illinois in 2018.

Joe Coniglio

College:
NFL Coaching Year: 2
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Joe Coniglio enters his second season with the Los Angeles Rams as their outside linebackers coach after serving at the Naval Academy for two seasons.

During the 2023 season, Coniglio played a vital role in helping rookie Byron Young burst onto the NFL scene. Young's 8.0 sacks ranked second for most sacks by a rookie in franchise history. He also became the first rookie in franchise history to be in the sack column in his first three regular season games. Among rookies, Young finished in the top 10 in most defensive snaps played, tackles for loss, hurries, quarterback hits, pressures, sacks and tackles. He finished the regular season ranked 16th in pressures, 15th in sacks among outside linebackers, and tied for seventh in quarterback hits. Outside Linebacker Michael Hoecht also notched single-season career-highs in tackles, sacks, pressures, and pass breakups in his first year playing the position as a full-time starter.

During his time at Navy in 2022, the defense finished third in the nation against the run. The unit was the only defense ranked in the top 25 that faced three of the top 10 rushing offenses in the country. The Navy defense also finished third in fewest first downs allowed, 23rd in sacks, 22nd in fumble recoveries, and 32nd in total defense. Coniglio also mentored senior striker John Marshall, who finished third in the nation in sacks and tackles for loss per game while setting school records for single-season and single-game sacks. Marshall became the only unanimous First-Team All-American Athletic Conference selection in 2022.

Despite having one of the toughest schedules in the country in 2021, the Navy defense finished 32nd in the nation in run defense (130.4 yards allowed per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards allowed per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards allowed per game), and 34th in red zone defense (.778).

He joined the Naval Academy from Kent State, where he coached the outside linebackers and served as the defensive recruiting coordinator for two seasons. During his second stint with the Golden Flashes, Coniglio helped lead the team to a 3-1 record in a COVID-shortened season and their first bowl win in school history with a 51-41 victory in the 2019 Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl.

He also spent five seasons at Rhode Island, where he served as defensive line coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. During his time with the Rhode Island Rams, they were among national (FCS) leaders in numerous defensive categories. In 2017, Rhode Island was the only defensive line in the nation to have five players register five or more sacks and 10 or more tackles for loss. The defense broke the program's sack record that season and produced their third different all-conference player during Coniglio's coaching stint. The following season in 2018, Rhode Island ranked 31st in the FCS in total defense.

Addtionally on special teams in 2018, Rhode Island ranked in the top 20 in punt return defense, kick return average and punt return average.

From 2012-13, Coniglio was the defensive line coach at Northern Michigan.

He also spent three seasons at Kent State from 2009-2011 while earning a master's degree. His roles during his first stint at Kent State included special assistant to the head coach, defensive graduate assistant, video coordinator and defensive volunteer. Coniglio worked closely with the defensive line and helped develop future NFL players Roosevelt Nix, Ishmaa'ily Kitchen and Monte Simmons. During that period, Kent State's defense ranked in the top tier of numerous NCAA categories, including 10th in the nation in total defense in 2010. The following season in 2011, the Golden Flashes ranked 21st in total defense, and in 2009 the defense was fourth in tackles for loss and 17th in sacks.

A two-time All-Mid-American Conference defensive end at Miami (OH), Coniglio was a three-year starter and three-year winner of the RedHawks' Vic Waltz Defensive Lineman of the Year award. He also helped Miami (OH) win three MAC East titles and ranks fifth among the program's sack leaders.

Coniglio and his wife, Jessa, have a daughter, Anna, and two sons, Joseph and Matthew.

Ron Gould

College: Oregon
NFL Coaching Year: 2
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Ron Gould enters his second season with the Los Angeles Rams as the runnings backs coach. He joined the Rams after spending six seasons at Stanford leading the running backs.

Gould has 34 seasons of coaching experience, including four as a head coach at UC Davis and 24 years working in the Pac-12 Conference.

During his career, Gould has mentored some of the game's elite running backs, including Rams All-Pro and Pro Bowler Kyren Williams, and coached Super Bowl champions such as Marshawn Lynch, C.J. Anderson and Shane Vereen. Anderson spent time with the Rams in 2018 and appeared in Super Bowl LII against the New England Patriots.

Gould has also mentored college standouts Bryce Love and J.J. Arrington, as well as NFL players such as Jahvid Best and Justin Forsett. He has coached a total of eight Pro Bowl selections, three First-Team All-America picks, and six First-Team all-conference honorees. Five of the past eleven Super Bowls have featured a running back whom Gould has coached.

During his first season in the NFL in 2023, the Rams finished ranked 11th in rushing yards (2,045), 12th in yards per rush attempt (4.3), eighth in rushing touchdowns (18), and 11th in tackles avoided on rushes (89). It was the first time the Rams rushed for 2,045 or more yards since the 2018 campaign.

Under Gould's leadership, Williams finished third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,144), sixth in yards per rush (5.0), and tied for seventh in rushing touchdowns (12) despite missing four games due to injury. It was the first time Williams eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards in his NFL career and he was the first Rams running back to do so since Todd Gurley in 2018. Additionally, with 12 rushing touchdowns on the season, Williams tied Gurley, Wendell Tyler, Eric Dickerson and Marshall Faulk for the seventh-most rushing touchdowns in a single season in franchise history.

Before joining Sean McVay's staff, Gould spent six seasons at Stanford where he guided Bryce Love to a record-breaking season in 2017. Love set the school's single-season rushing record (2,118), single-game rushing record (301), and was named the 2017 Doak Walker Award winner. Love also was the Lombardi Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up as a junior. He set Stanford records for rush average (6.79) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (nine). The Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and unanimous All-American finished with the fourth-most rushing yards and fifth-most touchdowns in school history. Love was drafted in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by Washington.

Prior to joining Stanford, Gould was the head coach at UC Davis from 2013-16. During his time as head coach, the Aggies posted the Big Sky Conference's highest Academic Progress Rate (APR) from the NCAA all four years. Gould helped guide Gabe Manzanares to record the program's best rushing total (1,285 yards) in more than a decade during the 2013 season. Manzanares won Big Sky Newcomer of the Year honors and ranked among the conference and FCS leaders in several statistical categories.

Gould coached the running backs for 16 years at California from 1997-2012 and was eventually promoted to associate head coach in 2008 and had added responsibilities as run game coordinator in 2011. Gould developed several of the top running backs at Cal including NFL players such as Lynch, Arrington, Best, Vereen, Adimchinobe Echemandu, Forsett, Tarik Smith and Will Ta'ufo'ou. Other players who worked with Gould and later signed NFL contracts include Chris Manderino and Byron Storer. Nine of the program's top 11 individual rushing seasons and six of Cal's all-time top rushers were coached by Gould.

Marshawn Lynch was the 2006 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year, J.J. Arrington was eighth in the 2006 Heisman Trophy voting after leading the country with 2,018 rushing yards, and Jahvid Best was a two-time All-Pac 12 First-Team selection. Both Lynch and Best were first-round picks in the NFL Draft, while Arrington and Vereen were second-round selections.

He was a candidate for the 2010 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Assistant Coach of the Year Award and participated in NFL internships with the Atlanta Falcons, Arizona Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Los Angeles Rams, San Francisco 49ers and St. Louis Rams.

Following his college graduation, Gould began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Oregon, from 1990-91. He also coached the defensive backs at Portland State in 1992 and at Boise State from 1993-96.

A native of Scottsdale, Arizona, Gould played defensive back at Scottsdale Community College from 1984-85 before earning a scholarship to Wichita State. When the Shockers discontinued their football program, Gould chose to play at Oregon where he earned his bachelor's degree in human services.

Gould and his wife, Teresa, have two sons Tevin and Trae.

Mike Harris

College: Muhlenberg College
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Mike Harris enters his second season with the Los Angeles Rams as a defensive assistant and works closely with the defensive backs.

With the support of Harris in 2023, the Rams finished the regular season ranked third in pass breakups and tied for 15th in passes defended. With Harris' assistance, former Defensive Back Ahkello Witherspoon finished the regular season ranked first in the NFL for incompletions against as the primary defender and former Defensive Back Jordan Fuller finished the season as one of 11 players in the NFL to force six or more turnovers with three forced fumbles and three interceptions. Harris also mentored second-year Defensive Back Quentin Lake, who finished 11th in the NFL with an 84.6 tackling grade, among defensive players with a minimum of twenty percent of snaps played, according to PFF. Lake also finished with the 35th-best defensive grade (71.2) and 19th-best run defense grade (77.4) among corners with a minimum of twenty percent of snaps played.

Before joining the Rams, Harris spent the 2022 season coaching safeties at John Carroll University. He helped the Blue Streaks finish second in the OAC conference with an 8-2 record. The Blue Streaks' defense also finished 20th in Division III in yards allowed per game (253.2). Harris helped defensive back Josh McLean finish fourth on the team in tackles and first among defensive backs (47). McLean recorded a season-high nine tackles, a tackle for loss and a forced fumble against Washington and Jefferson. He also returned an interception for a touchdown against Muskingum.

Harris joined the John Carroll coaching staff after spending three seasons with the Chicago Bears as an offensive assistant. During his time with the Bears, Harris played an imporant role in pregame preparation with scouting reports and film breakdowns of opposing defenses. On gamedays, he was responsible for charting plays and defensive schemes, assisting in receiver warmups, and providing insight to the Bears' passing game coordinator.

Before his first stint at the NFL ranks, Harris coached wide receivers at his alma mater, Muhlenberg College in 2018.

Following college graduation, Harris spent two years as an assistant coach at Wilkes University where he mentored tight ends and running backs. During his time coaching the tight ends for two seasons, standout tight end Garrett Armstrong earned consecutive all-region honors and was a 2017 preseason All-American. Under the guidance of Harris, Armstrong registered back-to-back seasons with 30 or more receptions and over 330 yards in 10 games played. He had a combined eight touchdown receptions in his two seasons working with Harris.

As a collegiate player for four seasons at Muhlenerg College from 2011-14, Harris played in 25 games as a wide receiver and recorded 52 catches for 599 yards and nine touchdowns. He was the third-leading receiver for a team that finished 8-3 and earned an ECAC bowl berth in 2013.

Harris graduated from Muhlenberg College with a major in business administration with a focus in entrepreneurial studies.

Zak Kromer

College: Oklahoma
Rams Coaching Year:8

Zak Kromer enters his ninth NFL season and eighth with the Los Angeles Rams. He currently serves as the assistant offensive line coach after spending two seasons as an offensive assistant.

Under Kromer's guidance in 2023, the Rams offensive line allowed the lowest sack total (22.0) since the 2020 season and propelled the run game signigicantly. The Rams offensive line also finished seventh in quarterback sack rate (5.5%) and pressures allowed (213).

Rookie Offensive Lineman Steve Avila had a steller first season and led the team in offensive snaps played (1,094), which was the most snaps played for a Rams offensive lineman since 2021. Among rookie offensive linemen, Avila ranked second in offensive snaps played and was the only Rams player to play every offensive snap. He also finished fifth in sacks allowed (2.0). Additionally,

Offensive Lineman Kevin Dotson finished with the second-best overall grade (85.2) and the best run blocking grade (88.8) among all guards, according to PFF. Additionally, veteran Alaric Jackson was tied for first in sacks allowed (1.0) among tackles who played over 500 offensive snaps.

In 2022, Kromer worked closely with the tight ends and helped Tyler Higbee sustain his productivity in McVay's offense. In Week 16 against the Broncos, Higbee eclipsed 3,000 career receiving yards and became the Rams' all-time leader in touchdowns for tight ends (20).

Higbee is currently the Rams' all-time leader in receptions (353), receiving yards (3,602) and touchdowns for tight ends (22). Under the guidance of Kromer, he tallied a career-best 72 catches for 620 yards and three touchdowns during the 2022 season. His 620 receiving yards were the second-most of his career. Additionally, his 404 yards after catch was a career-high, the fourth-best amongst tight ends, and the 28th-highest YAC total in the NFL in 2022.

During his first five seasons with the Rams from 2017-2021, Kromer primarily worked with an offensive line that anchored one of the most productive offenses in the NFL during that span

In 2021 during the team's Super Bowl-winning season, the offensive line finished tied for sixth in sacks allowed (31), seventh in sack percentage (4.9%), fifth in pressures allowed (173) and third in pressures allowed per dropback (26.8%).

In his fourth season in L.A. in 2020, Kromer helped a rushing attack that finished 10th in the league, averaging 126.1 rush yards per game.

In 2019 with the help of Kromer's adjustments throughout the season due to injury along the offensive front, the offensive line did not allow a sack in a franchise-best six games, while also allowing the fewest sacks in the league (22).

Kromer spent the 2016 season with the Buffalo Bills as an entry-level coaching assistant. Prior to the Bills, he spent four seasons at the University of Oklahoma as a student assistant for the football program.

Kromer earned a bachelor of arts degree in communications.

He is the son of the longtime NFL offensive line coach Aaron Kromer, who has 20 seasons of NFL experience.

Kromer and his wife, Emily, got married in June 2018 and they have a son, Beckham.

Aubrey Pleasant

College: Wisconsin
Rams Coaching Year: 6

Aubrey Pleasant enters his sixth season with the Los Angeles Rams and serves as the team's Pass Game Coordinator and Defensive Backs Coach. Head Coach Sean McVay also added assistant head coach to Pleasant's title leading up to the 2024 season.

Under Pleasant's guidance during the 2023 season, the Rams secondary recorded 10 interceptions, with nine coming from defensive backs. The Rams finished the regular season ranked third in pass breakups and tied for 15th in passes defended. The last time the Rams finished the regular season in the top half of those categories was in 2020 when Pleasant mentored the cornerbacks.

Pleasant also helped former Defensive Back Jordan Fuller record single-season career-highs in pass breakups, forced fumbles, and tied his single-season best with three interceptions. Fuller was one of 11 players in the NFL to force six or more turnovers during the regular season. Pleasant also guided former Defensive Back Ahkello Witherspoon, who led the league in incompletions against as the primary defender for the first time in his career. Witherspoon recorded single-season career-bests in passes defended and pass breakups. He also tied his single-season career-high with three interceptions.

Before returning for his second coaching stint with the Rams, Pleasant was the defensive backs coach and pass game coordinator for the Detroit Lions for two seasons (2021-22). Pleasant also served an an offensive consultant for the Green Bay Packers during the second half of the 2022 season.

In his first year with the Lions in 2021, Pleasant mentored undrafted rookie cornerbacks A.J. Parker and Jerry Jacobs, who led all NFL undrafted players in snaps played on either offense or defense that season. The young cornerback duo was the only pair of undrafted rookies to play at least 400 snaps on offense or defense and both players saw more than 500 snaps of action in the 2021 campaign.

Additionally, Jacobs and Parker each produced seven passes defended and a forced fumble, becoming the eighth and ninth undrafted rookies in NFL history to produce a season with at least seven passes defended and a forced fumble. They also became the first set of rookie teammates to accomplish this feat.

Pleasant joined the Detroit Lions coaching staff ahead of the 2021 season to serve as the team's defensive backs coach and pass game coordinator after his first coaching stint with the Rams from 2017-20 as the cornerbacks coach.

In that span, Rams cornerbacks ranked second in the NFL in interceptions (28), led the NFL in interception return yards (496), and led the NFL in interceptions returned for touchdowns with five. Pleasant also guided former defensive back Jalen Ramsey to a First-Team AP All-Pro nod in 2020 and worked with cornerback Marcus Peters, who earned First-Team AP All-Pro honors in 2019.

Pleasant also was instrumental in the development of former Rams cornerback Darious Williams, who joined the team in 2018 after originally signing as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Baltimore Ravens. Williams had a strong 2020 campaign in his first full season as a starter with four interceptions and a pick-six in the postseason. During Pleasant's first four seasons in Los Angeles, the Rams earned two NFC West division titles, three postseason appearances and a trip to Super Bowl LIII.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Pleasant spent four seasons with the Washington Commanders from 2013-16. In his first year with the team he was an offensive assistant and finished his tenure as a defensive quality control coach. Washington won the NFC East his final two seasons and he helped linebacker Ryan Kerrigan earn a Pro Bowl appearance after posting 11.0 sacks.

His first NFL position was as an offensive staff/head coach intern for the Cleveland Browns in 2013.

Prior to arriving in Cleveland, Pleasant spent two seasons at the University of Michigan where he served as a defensive graduate assistant (2011) and the program's assistant defensive backs coach (2012). In 2011, the Michigan defense led the Big Ten in takeaways (29) and tied for first in the FBS with 20 fumble recoveries. The following season, Michigan ranked fifth in the FBS with an average of 169.5 passing yards allowed per game.

Following his collegiate playing career as a safety at Wisconsin from 2005-08, Pleasant coached defensive backs at Grad Blanc (Mich.) High School and was a behavioral specialist/special needs teacher in the Flint Community School District.

A native of Flint, Michigan, Pleasant earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Wisconsin and a master's degree in education from Michigan.

Ryan Wendell

College: Fresno State
NFL Coaching Year: 6
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Ryan Wendell enters his second season with the Los Angeles Rams as the offensive line coach. Before joining the Rams, he spent three seasons as an assistant offensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills.

Under Wendell's leadership in 2023, the Rams offensive line allowed the lowest sack total since the 2020 season. The unit finished the regular season ranked seventh in quarterback sack rate (5.5%) and pressures allowed (213). The Rams offensive line also paved the way for an elite rushing attack in 2023, finishing 11th in rushing yards (2,045), 12th in yards per rush attempt (4.3), and eighth in rushing touchdowns (18).

Offensive Lineman Steve Avila had a stellar rookie campaign in 2023. With 1,094 snaps played, Avila played the most snaps for a Rams offensive lineman since 2021 and the most by a Rams rookie since Cooper Kupp in 2017. Among rookie offensive linemen, Avila finished second in snaps played and was the only Rams player to play every offensive snap last season.

Wendell also mentored Offensive Lineman Kevin Dotson during his first season with the Rams. According to Pro Football Focus, Dotson finished the season with the second-best offensive grade (85.2) and the best run blocking grade (88.8) among all guards. Additionally, Offensive Lineman Alaric Jackson finished tied for first in sacks allowed (1.0) among tackles that played more than 500 snaps on the season.

During the 2022 season, Wendell helped the Bills' offensive line finish eighth in fewest sacks allowed (23) and sack rate (5.4%), 11th in pressures allowed and 11th in average time to throw (2.86 seconds). Wendell's group also helped the Bills' offense finish fourth in yards per game (397.6), seventh in rush yards per game (139.5), second in yards per rush (5.2), seventh in pass yards per game (258.1), and third in offensive points scored per game (26.88). Bills' tackle Dion Dawkins received Pro Bowl honors under Wendell's mentorship that season.

In 2021, the Bills' offensive line finished second in fewest sacks allowed (27) and sack rate (4.0%), and fifth in average time to throw (2.9 seconds). The Bills' offense also finished the 2021 season sixth in rush yards (2,209) and yards per rush (4.8), and seventh in rushing touchdowns (20).

Under Wendell's guidance in 2020, the Bills' offensive line ranked ninth in sacks allowed (27), seventh in sack rate (4.3%), and 11th in rushing first downs (119). He served as a coaching assistant in his first year as a coach at the NFL ranks in 2019.

Wendell had an nine-year NFL playing career and appeared in 80 games (49 starts) with the New England Patriots from 2008-15 and the Carolina Panthers in 2016.

During his tenure as a player with the Patriots, Wendell won a Super Bowl (2014) and two conference championships (2011, 2014). Wendell also recorded back-to-back seasons starting every game during the 2012 and 2013 seasons. He appeared in 12 career postseason contests with seven starts and also started at three different spots along the offensive line including left guard, center and right guard.

He signed with the Patriots as a rookie free agent in 2008 after playing collegiately at Fresno State where he was a four-year starter from 2004-07.

During his time at Fresno State, Wendell played center for an offensive line that set a school record for fewest sacks allowed (12). He played in nine games during his freshman season in 2004, when he helped the school finish as the nation's fifth-ranked offense. He also earned All-WAC and Academic All-WAC honors.

Wendell is a Southern California native and had his jersey retired by Diamond Bar High School, where he was elected to the school's Hall of Fame. He also was selected First-Team All-CIF Southern Section as a defensive lineman as a senior and as an offensive lineman as a junior. As a student, Wendell was the winner of the California Govenor's Scholar Share Award.

Los Angeles native Eric Yarber is in his eighth season with the Rams serving as the team's wide receivers coach.

Under Yarber's guidance in 2023, reciever Puka Nacua set the NFL rookie record for most receptions (105) and receiving yards (1,486) in a single season. He also set the NFL rookie record for most receiving yards in a playoff game, set a franchise record for most receiving yards in a Wild Card game (181), and was a finalist for the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Receiver Cooper Kupp also passed Henry Ellard for the fourth-most receiving touchdowns in franchise history (51) and became the franchise leader in postseason receptions (50).

Additionally, Receiver Tutu Atwell recorded career-highs in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns while Receiver Demarcus Robinson tied his career-best with four touchdown receptions in 2023.

In 2022, Yarber helped Kupp sustain the success from his historic 2021 triple crown-winning campaign. Before he was sidelined with an injury in Week 10, Kupp was on his way to another stellar season. Prior to his injury, Kupp ranked second in the NFL in receptions (72), third in yards after catch (422), as well as fifth in receiving first downs (42), receiving touchdowns (6), and receiving yards (812).

Yarber also played an instrumental role in the development of former Rams receiver Van Jefferson. For a three-year stretch from 2020-22, Jefferson's 14.96 yards per reception ranked tied for seventh in the NFL amongst receivers. Additionally, receiver Tutu Atwell became an explosive weapon in McVay's offense in 2022, hauling in 18 catches for 298 yards and a 62-yard touchdown in 13 games played.

Yarber has also helped players such as Ben Skowronek and former Rams receiver Brandon Powell become versatile playermakers on offense in 2022. Skowronek lined up as a receiver, fullback and running back and set career-highs in receptions (39), receiving yards (376) and yards after catch (137). Powell saw action at receiver, running back and returned kicks and punts throughout the season. He also set career-highs in receptions, receiving yards (156) and yards after catch (184) under Yarber.

In 2021 with the guidance of Yarber, Kupp became the fourth player in NFL history to win the receiving Triple Crown by leading the NFL in receptions, receiving yards, and receiving TDs. He led the second place receivers in all three categories by some of the widest margins of any receiving Triple Crown winner. Kupp's season was capped off by becoming the Super Bowl LVI MVP, the 2021 NFL Offensive Player of the Year and was voted to his first Pro Bowl. Kupp also was voted First-Team All-Pro.

Jefferson had a breakout 2021 season, starting all 17 games and hauling in 50 catches for 802 yards and six touchdowns. With Yarber's leadership, mid-season acquisition Odell Beckham Jr. was able to quickly acclimate to the Rams' offensive system and play a key role in the offensive production during the Rams'

Super Bowl run.

In 2020, Kupp and former Rams receiver Robert Woods led the Rams pass catchers, finishing with 974 and 936 receiving yards, respectively. Woods added a team-high six receiving touchdowns, 155 rush yards and two rushing touchdowns.

As a team in 2020, the Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

The 2019 campaign saw a breakout year from Kupp, who returned from a season-ending injury during the 2018 season. Kupp recorded his first 1,000-yard season of his career with 1,061 receiving yards and led the team in receptions (94). Kupp finished with a career-high 220 yards on seven receptions against the Bengals in the Rams' International Series win in Week 8. His 220 yards were the most receiving yards in an international game in NFL history.

Woods also ended the season with over 1,000 receiving yards, giving L.A. consecutive seasons with multiple receivers totaling over 1,000 receiving yards since a run of four-straight seasons from 1999-2002.

With the tutelage of Yarber, the Rams quickly acclimated 2018 offseason acquisition Brandin Cooks into the league's No. 3 scoring offense. Cooks (1,204) and fellow wideout Robert Woods (1,219) posted career-highs in receiving yards while becoming the first Rams receiving duo to surpass 1,000 yards each since Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce in 2006.

During the 2017 season, the newly-acquired Woods recorded a then personal-best 781 yards receiving, which ranked third amongst the 2017 free agent wide receiver group. Kupp finished with a team-best 869 yards receiving, the second-most amongst all rookies and was named to the Pro Football Writers Association (PFWA) All-Rookie team.

Prior to joining the Rams in 2017, Yarber spent the previous five seasons with the UCLA Bruins in the same capacity. Yarber joined the Bruins staff as receivers coach in 2012. During his tenure, seven of Yarber's receivers were selected in the NFL Draft, including three in the 2016 NFL Draft.

The Bruins' pass offense ranked 18th in the nation (295.6 yards per game) in 2016. That season saw the emergence of receivers Darren Andrews, Jordan Lasley and Kenneth Walker. Andrews ranked 10th in the Pac-12 in receptions per game and led the team with 55 catches. Lasley came on strong over the course of the season and recorded 41 receptions and led the team with six touchdowns. Walker notched 22 catches and four touchdowns. Jordan Payton was invited to the Senior Bowl and was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the 2016 NFL Draft. Payton became UCLA's all-time receptions leader during the 2015 campaign and the first Bruin to ever catch 200 career passes. He also moved up to third on the all-time receiving yards list and ranked among the nation's top 25 in receiving yards (1,106) and receiving yards per game (85.1). Thomas Duarte, a Miami Dolphins draft selection, earned second-team all-conference honors after registering 10 touchdown catches, which ranked fourth on the all-time school single-season list and was 17th in the NCAA. Devin Fuller, drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, moved up to the top six in career receptions.

In year two at UCLA, Yarber helped senior Shaq Evans, a fourth-round selection of the New York Jets in the 2014 NFL Draft, finish his career ranked tied for 10th on the school's all-time receptions list. Evans earned an invite to the Senior Bowl and the NFL Combine after catching nine touchdowns in 2013, tied for ninth on the all-time school list.

In 2011, Yarber worked as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach for a promising young unit that included the development of second-round pick Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick Mike Williams. Williams turned in one of the top seasons by a receiver in Buccaneers history, recording 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led all rookie receivers in each of these categories, earning The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team selection while finishing second in voting for the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Yarber also oversaw the emergence of Benn, who was becoming an important part of the Tampa Bay offense prior to a season-ending knee injury in Week 13.

Yarber joined Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) at the collegiate level as the wide receivers coach at Arizona State. While at ASU in 2009, Yarber coached two standout wide receivers in Kyle Williams and Chris McGaha. Williams finished the 2009 campaign with 815 receiving yards on 57 catches and eight touchdowns before being invited to the Senior Bowl and becoming a sixth-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in the 2010 NFL Draft. McGaha racked up 56 catches for 673 yards and four touchdowns on his way to earn second-team All-Pac 10 honors.

Prior to his work with the Sun Devils, Yarber coached wide receivers for two seasons (2005-06) under Tyrone Willingham at the University of Washington. With Yarber's assistance, two receivers, Sonny Shackleford and Anthony Russo, turned in strong performances, with Russo finishing third in the Pac-10 Conference with a 17.3 yards-per-catch average and Shackleford finishing fourth in touchdown catches (seven) and eighth in receptions (50) and receiving yards (666).

During the 2003-04 seasons, Yarber coached the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers, and in his first year guided Pro Bowler Terrell Owens to a 1,000-yard season. During this time, Yarber was also instrumental in the development of wide receivers Cedrick Wilson and Brandon Lloyd, as the duo ranked first and second among 49ers' receivers in yards after the catch with a 13.6 and 13.1 average (min. 10 receptions) respectively in 2004.

From 1999-2002, Yarber coached at Oregon State, where he worked with the running backs for one season (1999) before switching to wide receivers (2000-2002). He coached Ken Simonton, who was inducted into the Oregon State Hall of Fame after setting program records that still stand today. Simonton posted records in career rushing yards (5,044), attempts (1.041); touchdowns (59) and 100-yard games (26). Simonton was the first Beaver to gain 1,000 or more yards in three seasons. His work with receivers Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh led to the two being selected in the second and seventh rounds, respectively, by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2001 NFL Draft. Johnson also earned a Senior Bowl invitation.

Yarber coached his first year in the NFL in 1998, working as an offensive assistant/assistant running backs coach with the Seattle Seahawks, after spending the 1997 season coaching receivers at UNLV. His coaching career began in 1996 when he took a secondary coaching position at his alma mater, Idaho.

Yarber was selected by Washington as a 12th-round pick in the 1986 NFL Draft and spent three seasons as a wide receiver and punt returner. He was part of the Washington squad that defeated the Denver Broncos to win Super Bowl XXII in 1988, leading that team with 37 punt returns. At Idaho, Yarber was a Kodak All-American and the Big Sky Conference's Most Valuable Player during his senior year, catching 75 passes for 1,103 yards. As a junior, he finished 10th in the nation in punt returns and third in the conference with 817 receiving yards on 54 catches. He attended Crenshaw High School in Los Angeles.

Yarber earned a Bachelor's in general studies from the University of Idaho in 1995. He is married to Estevanica and has one son, Kameryon.

Giff Smith

College: Georgia Southern
NFL Coaching Year: 14
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Giff Smith enters his first season as the run game coordinator and defensive line coach for the Los Angeles Rams.

Smith has coached 13 seasons in the NFL and spent the previous eight with the Los Angeles Chargers (2016-23). He coached the defensive line for the first six seasons (2016-21) before switching to outside linebackers (2022-23). Smith also served as the Chargers' interim head coach to close out the 2023 season.

He has helped five players earn a combined 11 Pro Bowl selections during his time in the NFL coaching ranks. Smith has most recently coached Chargers Outside Linebacker Khalil Mack and guided him to consecutive Pro Bowl seasons from 2022-23.

Additionally last season, Smith helped the Chargers defense finish 13th in yards per rush (4.1) and red zone efficiency (52.9%). Smith's group also helped the Chargers finish 12th in hurries (225) and tie for seventh in sacks (48.0). Mack finished sixth in pressures (88), fourth in sacks (17.0), and sixth in hurries (59).

He also mentored Outside Linebacker Joey Bosa, who he coached on the defensive line from 2016-20 when Bosa played defensive end. During that span, Bosa was selected to three of his four Pro Bowl appearances and earned 2016 Defensive Player of the Year honors as well as First-Team All-Pro recognition from Sporting News in back-to-back seasons in 2019-20. Smith coached the defensive line in 2021 and helped his unit transition from a 4-3 base front to a 3-4 base front.

Over his first five seasons with the Chargers, Smith guided Bosa and Defensive End Melvin Ingram III to three Pro Bowls each. During his time under Smith's tutelage, Bosa set an NFL record with 19.0 sacks in his first 20 games. Smith was part of a staff that helped the defense finish in the top-10 in total defense three straight seasons (2018-20). In 2020, Smith coached four defensive linemen who recorded multiple sacks on the year, while Bosa ranked second in the AFC with 15 tackles for loss.

The year prior, Smith was part of a defensive staff that led the sixth-ranked total defense and the league's fifth-ranked pass defense. It was the fourth time in 20 years the Chargers had a top-five passing defense. In 2018, Smith helped the Chargers defense finish ninth in total defense, rushing defense, and passing defense. It was the first Chargers unit to finish in the top-10 in total defense since 2014 and the highest-ranked rushing defense since 2012.

Smith helped the duo of Bosa and Ingram become one of the most dynamic tandems in the NFL, combining for 23.0 sacks in 2017 and leading the league in pressures. Additionally, the defensive unit finished fifth in the NFL with 43.0 sacks on the season, with the defensive line recording 36.0. That group also helped the Chargers finish first in red zone defense and rank third in pass defense.

In his first season with the Chargers, Smith's defensive line contributed to the team's 10th-ranked rush defense. They held nine opponents to less than 100 yards on the ground and recorded the NFL's second-highest percentage of tackles for loss. Bosa captured NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after leading all rookies with a team-high 10.5 sacks despite playing in just 12 games.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Smith spent two years coaching the defensive line for the Tennesee Titans (2014-15). He helped the Titans defense implement a 3-4 scheme and Defensive Lineman Jurrell Casey post a career-high 13 tackles for loss in 2014. In 2015, the Titans defense finished 12th in the league with 39.0 sacks and Casey was voted to his first Pro Bowl.

Smith joined the NFL coaching ranks in 2010 and spent three seasons as the defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills (2010-12). During that span, Bills Defensive Lineman Kyle Williams was selected to the first two Pro Bowls of his career and Mario Williams recorded a 10.5-sack season.

He spent time coaching at the collegiate level before entering into the NFL. From 2004-09, Smith coached the defensive line at Georgia Tech and added recruiting coordinator duties in 2006. In 2007, the Yellow Jackets led the nation in sacks (47.0) and also ranked second in tackles for loss. Under Smith's guidance, Defensive Tackle Joe Anoa'i earned a First-Team All-ACC selection following the 2006 campaign before spending time in the CFL and joining the WWE. Additionally, three defensive linemen who played under Smith at Georgia Tech went on to play in the NFL such as Michael Johnson, Vance Walker and Derrick Morgan.

Before his stint at Georgia Tech, he led the defensive line at Tulane (1999-03) after spending three years coaching wide receivers and the secondary at his alma mater, Georgia Southern (1996-98).

Smith began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas (1991-93) and Georgia (1994-95).

He was a three-time All-America defensive end at Georgia Southern, where he was a team captain as a senior and was part of three NCAA I-AA national titles teams (1986, 1989-90). He was inducted into the Georgia Southern Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

A native of Mableton, GA, Smith and his wife Jennifer have two children, Ava and Sam.

Chili Davis

College: Campbell
NFL Coaching Year: 1
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Chili Davis enters his first season as a special teams assistant for the Los Angeles Rams.

He joins the team after spending the 2023 season with Kansas State University as the program's special teams quality control coach.

Prior to his time with the Wildcats, Davis spent the 2022 season as the special teams coordinator at Florida A&M, where he helped the Rattlers finish 9-2. He guided kicker Jose Romo-Martinez and punter Chris Faddoul to First-Team All-Conference and HBCU All-America honors. Romo-Martinez ranked fifth in the FCS with 1.55 field goals made per game, while Faddoul ranked 11th nationally with a 43.3-yard average. FAMU also finished 30th in the nation with three blocked kicks.

Davis spent the 2021 season at the University of Washington where he served as a special teams analyst. That season, Washington finished fifth in the nation in yards per punt average (48.5). The special teams unit also ranked 57th in average kickoff return yards (21.3).

Before joining the Husky coaching staff, Davis spent time at New Mexico State where he coached the slot receivers and tight ends in addition to serving as the assistant special teams coordinator from 2018-20. It marked his first stint as a full-time FBS assistant coach and he helped the Aggies end a 57-year bowl drought when they defeated Utah State in the Arizona Bowl.

At New Mexico State, Davis guided Receivers OJ Clark and Jaleel Scott to successful collegiate careers. Clark finished third in school history with 201 catches and eighth with 1,814 receiving yards. Scott earned First-Team All-Sun Belt honors and was selected in the fourth round by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2018 NFL Draft. He became the first New Mexico State player selected in the NFL Draft since 2013 and the highest Aggie selected since 2011. Davis began his stint at New Mexico State as a graduate assistant in 2017.

In 2016, Davis spent time coaching cornerbacks at Fordham after he spent a year as a graduate assistant at Louisiana Tech working with running backs. He helped the Bulldogs finish with a 9-4 record and a victory in the New Orleans Bowl in 2015.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Campbell, as an assistant to the head coach, special teams and offensive quality control coach, and video coordinator from 2013-14.

Davis played defensive back at Campbell from 2008-11 and earned a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2012.

He is a native of Chester, Virginia, and is married to his wife, Kiandra. They have a son, Amir.

Dave Ragone

College: Louisville
NFL Coaching Year: 13
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Dave Ragone enters his first season with the Los Angeles Rams as the quarterbacks coach.

He joined the Rams after spending three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons as their offensive coordinator from 2021-23. During the 2023 campaign, the Falcons finished ninth in rushing offense with 2,159 rushing yards and 127 rushing yards per game, tied for eighth with 121 rushing first downs, and ranked fourth in tackles avoided on rushes (106). The offense also ranked seventh in yards per reception (11.5).

Under Ragone's guidance, rookie running back Bijan Robinson ranked in the top 20 in rushing yards (976), yards per rush (4.6), and rushing first downs (50). After a productive first season, Robinson was named to PFWA's All-Rookie Team and was one of six finalists for the 2023 Pepsi Zero Sugar NFL Rookie of the Year. He also set the franchise record for yards from scrimmage by a rookie (1,463). Tight End Kyle Pitts ranked in the top 10 among tight ends in the NFL in receiving first downs (35) and yards per reception (12.6).

In 2022, Atlanta's offense led the NFL in fewest penalties, finished third in rushing yards per game, and 10th in third down conversion rate. The Falcons also had the third-highest successful play rate on rushing attempts (45.1%). The rushing offense averaged 74.5 more rushing yards per game in 2022 than the year prior, which was the largest one-season improvement by any team since 2001. The Falcons became the first team to have four players with at least 250 rushing yards through the first eight games of a season in NFL history with running backs Cordarrelle Patterson (340), Tyler Allgeier (324), Caleb Huntley (265) and quarterback Marcus Mariota (280).

During the 2022 campaign, Ragone mentored two quarterbacks, Mariota and rookie Desmond Ridder, who started the final four games and had 73 completions for 708 passing yards which was the most by a player in his first four career starts in franchise history. He became the third rookie to attempt at least 100 passes and not record an interception in his first four starts in NFL history, joining Dak Prescott and Gardner Minshew. Receiver Drake London also made franchise history his rookie season with the most receptions by a rookie (72). The Falcons became the fourth team to have a 1,000-yard rookie rusher and an 800-yard rookie receiver in the same season in NFL history with Allgeier (1,035 rushing yards) and London (866 receiving yards).

In Ragone's first season as offensive coordinator in 2021, Atlanta was the only team to have a wide receiver (Russell Gage), tight end (Pitts), and running back (Patterson) each record at least 50 receptions and 500 receiving yards in the NFL that season. The Falcons running backs and tight ends combined for 2,251 yards receiving, which led the NFL that season and set a single-season franchise record.

With a young offense that season, many rookies produced and set franchise records under the leadership of Ragone. Pitts set the single-season rookie receiving record and the single-season receiving record for a tight end. He earned his first-career Pro Bowl nod and became the second rookie tight end to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in NFL history (1,026).

Prior to his time in Atlanta, Ragone spent five seasons with the Chicago Bears from 2016-20. For the first four seasons from 2016-19, he served as the quarterbacks coach and became the pass game coordinator in 2020. That season, Ragone coached Quarterbacks Mitchell Trubisky and Nick Foles, who helped the team achieve a Wild Card bid.

Under Ragone's mentorship in 2019, Trubisky tallied 3,138 passing yards in over 14 games, recording back-to-back 3,000-yard passing seasons which was only accomplished twice before in franchise history. The Bears offense ranked in the top-15 in the NFL in completions (371). In 2018, Ragone guided Trubisky to a Pro Bowl. He became just the sixth quarterback in franchise history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season. His four games with a passer rating of at least 120.0 were the most in single-season in franchise history and his four games with at least 300 passing yards tied for the most in a single-season in the team's history. In 2017, Trubisky set Bears' rookie records with 2,193 passing yards and 196 completions. In the final five games of the regular season, he completed more than 67 percent of his passes, which was the fifth-best in the NFL during that span. The year prior in 2016, Ragone guided the Bears offense to set franchise marks in gross passing yards (4,139), net passing yards (3,969), and passing first downs (211) despite having three quarterback changes during the season.

Before his stint in Chicago, Ragone spent the 2015 campaign with the Washington Commanders as the offensive quality control coach. Working with Sean McVay, he helped Quarterback Kirk Cousins lead the NFL in completion percentage (69.8) and finish fifth in passer rating (101.6).

Ragone made his NFL coaching debut with the Tennessee Titans as the wide receivers coach from 2011-12 and then served as the quarterbacks coach in 2013. As the wide receivers coach, he guided receiver Nate Washington to a career-high 1,023 receiving yards. He became the Titans first 1,000-yard receiver since 2004.

He began his professional coaching career as a quarterbacks coach with the Hartford Colonials of the UFL in 2010.

Before becoming a coach, Ragone played in the NFL for three seasons as a quarterback for the Houston Texans from 2003-05. He also spent time with the Berlin Thunder in 2005 and received NFL Europe Offensive MVP honors after leading the league in passer rating (97.5) and setting a league record with 174 consecutive passes without an interception.

Ragone played collegiately at Louisville, where he was a three-time Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year and led the Cardinals to three consecutive bowl games.

He is a native of Middleburg Heights, Ohio. Ragone and his wife, Marju, have three children Isabella, Anderson, and Cristiano.

Greg Williams

College: North Carolina
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Greg Williams enters his first season with the Los Angeles Rams as the inside linebackers coach.

He joined the Rams coaching staff after spending the 2023 season with the Green Bay Packers as their defensive pass game coordinator. During his time in Green Bay, Williams helped the Packers defense finish ninth in opponent pass yards per game (206.8), opponent passing yards allowed (3,515), and opponents percent of passing attempts resulting in sacks (8.6%). The Packers secondary also finished eighth in opponent completions allowed (342) and tied for 10th in opponent passing touchdowns allowed (21).

Before his season in Green Bay, Williams spent four seasons with the Arizona Cardinals as their cornerbacks coach from 2019-22. In his final season with the Cardinals, he guided a cornerback group that finished second in the league in yards allowed per completion (10.10), the best single-season mark for the team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Arizona also allowed only 40 completions of 20 or more yards, which tied for third-best in the NFL.

In 2021, Williams helped the Cardinals defense finish seventh in takeaways (27) and eighth in points allowed (349). The unit also finished seventh in opponent pass yards allowed per game (214.4) and tied for 11th in opponent completions allowed (367). Cornerback Byron Murphy finished the season tied for 12th in the NFL in interceptions (4).

Williams helped the Cardinals defense finish 10th in the NFL in opponent pass yards per game (226.4) and passing yards allowed (3,623). The unit also ranked 14th in opponent passing touchdowns allowed (26). Cornerbacks Patrick Peterson and Dre Kirkpatrick combined for six interceptions (three each) on the season. Murpy also registered 2.0 sacks and two fumble recoveries and was one of only two cornerbacks to register multiple sacks and fumble recoveries that season. He became the first Cardinals cornerback to accomplish that feat in a season. In 2019 under Williams' guidance, Murphy started all 16 games as a rookie and finished third among rookies in passes defensed (10).

Prior to his stint in Arizona, Williams spent the 2018 campaign with the Denver Broncos coaching the defensive backs. With William's help, the Broncos defense tied for fifth in the NFL with 17 interceptions and Cornerback Chris Harris Jr. was selected to the Pro Bowl after posting a team-best three interceptions along with a sack. Additionally, Safety Justin Simmons finished second on the team with 97 tackles (71 solo). The Broncos held opponents to 27 points or less in 14 games that season, which tied for the most in the NFL.

From 2016-17, Williams coached defensive backs for the Indianapolis Colts, where he mentored Safety Malik Hooker who finished third among NFL rookies with three interceptions despite playing in just seven games in 2017. That season, Defensive Back Rashaan Melvin recorded 10 pass breakups, which was tied for 22nd-most in the NFL. The Colts defense also finished fifth in opponent completions allowed (324) that season.

In 2016, Williams helped Defensive Back Vontae Davis finish tied for 17th in the league in pass breakups (11). Defensive back Darius Butler also ranked tied for eighth in interceptions (three) that season.

Williams also served as the assistant secondary coach for the Chargers from 2013-15 where he worked with Safety Eric Weddle, who was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2013 and 2014. The Chargers defensive unit finished the 2014 season ranked fourth in the league in opponent passing yards per game (214.2) and ninth in total defense.

Before working with the Chargers' secondary, Williams spent four seasons as their assistant linebackers coach from 2009-12. In 2012, he was part of a staff that helped the Chargers finish ninth in total defense allowing 326.4 yards per game and sixth in rushing defense allowing 96.4 rush yards per game. The defense registered 38.0 sacks on the year, which tied for 11th in the NFL, and 21.0 of the sacks came from linebackers which included Shaun Phillips who had a team-high 9.5 on the year.

In 2011, Williams mentored Linebacker Antwan Barnes, who posted a career-high 11.0 sacks despite starting just five games that season. The year prior in 2010, the Chargers were first in the NFL in total defense allowing 271.6 yards per game and passing defense allowing 177.7 passing yards per game. They were also tied for second in sacks (47.0) and Phillips notched a team-high 11.0 sacks on the way to earning his first Pro Bowl selection. In 2009, Phillips led the NFL with a career-best seven forced fumbles and Linebacker Stephen Cooper added a career-high three forced fumbles.

Williams spent time coaching at the collegiate level before making the leap to the NFL ranks. In 2008, he worked as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh after serving as the defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Arkansas Tech from 2006-07.

He also served as an assistant coach at College of DuPage from 2004-05 after starting his coaching career as an intern at Arizona State in 2003.

Williams had a successful playing career before he began coaching. He played wide receiver and safety at the University of North Carolina from 1994-97 before entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Chicago Bears in 1998. He spent time in training camp with the Bears and the New York Giants and also played two seasons with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe from 1999-2000. He earned All-Europe recognition in 1999 after leading the league with six interceptions. Williams also played one season with the San Francisco Demons of the XFL in 2001 and five seasons in the Arena Football League with the Indiana Firebirds from 2001-03 and the Chicago Rush from 2004-05.

Williams is a native of Bolingbrook, Illinois and has two sons, Junior and Dominic.

Rob Calabrese

College: Central Florida
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Rob Calabrese enters his first season with the Los Angeles Rams as an offensive assistant.

He joined the Rams coaching staff after spending three seasons with the New York Jets as the quarterbacks coach from 2021-23.

Despite working through many quarterback changes during the 2023 season, Calabrese helped guide Zach Wilson to 2,482 yards of total offense. Wilson threw for 2,271 yards and eight touchdowns in 12 games played on the season.

In 2022, the Jets saw three different quarterbacks record at least two games of 300 or more passing yards and became the only team in the NFL to do so. Quarterback Mike White became only the fifth player in NFL history to record more than 350 passing yards in at least two of their first five career starts. Calabrese also helped Quarterback Joe Flacco become the first player with two passing touchdowns in the final two minutes of a fourth quarter.

During his first season with the Jets in 2021, he mentored rookie quarterback Zach Wilson who improved steadily throughout the season. In the last seven games, Wilson ranked in the top half of the NFL starters (min. 100 attempts) in total touchdowns and in the top five in fewest turnovers. He ended the season without an interception in 156 passing attempts, the longest rookie streak in franchise history and longest streak by a Jets quarterback since 2000. Under Calabrese's leadership, three other quarterbacks saw action in 2021. White became the first quarterback in NFL history with 300+ passing yards and a 75+ completion percentage in his first career start. Additionally, Calabrese helped the transition of acquiring Flacco midseason and in his only game of action recorded a 100+ passer rating. Quarterback Josh Johnson saw action for the first time in three seasons and threw for 300+ yards, becoming just the fifth quarterback in the last 30 seasons to not start a game and still throw for 300+ yards.

Prior to the Jets, Calabrese spent two seasons with the Denver Broncos as their offensive quality control coach from 2019-20. He worked with multiple different quarterbacks as the Broncos were forced to use five different starters as a result of injuries. He made his NFL coaching debut with the Broncos in 2019 when Joe Flacco started the first eight games completing 65.3% of his passes, the best mark of his career at the time. Calabrese also helped rookie quarterback Drew Lock start the final five games of the season and compile a 4-1 record. The Broncos offense finished second in the NFL in fourth down conversion rate (68.8%) that season.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Calabrese coached at the collegiate level. He spent time at Wagner College from 2016-18 and held various positions. He served as the running backs coach in 2016 and then became the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2017-18. Under his leadership, the offense averaged 28 points per game in 2018, which was almost a seven-point per game improvement from the season prior and the school's best average in nine seasons.

Calabrese also spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Central Florida. He worked with the quarterbacks and wide receivers and was selected as one of 30 coaches for the NCAA-AFCA Future Football Coaches Academy.

He began his coaching career at Oviedo High School in Florida mentoring the quarterbacks for a season in 2013.

Before Calabrese became a coach, he played quarterback and wide receiver at Central Florida, where he registered 1,276 passing yards and 12 touchdowns to go along with 494 rushing yards and two touchdowns. He also attended East Islip High School, where he broke school records for career passing yards and touchdowns.

He is a native of Islip Terrace, New York. Calabrese and his wife, Taylor, have two sons, Kayden and Cooper.

John Streicher

College: Ohio State
NFL Coaching Year: 7
Rams Coaching Year: 1

John Streicher enters his first season with the Los Angeles Rams as a game management assistant.

He joins the Rams coaching staff after spending six seasons with the Tennesse Titans and serving in various roles from 2018-23. Last year, he was the team's director of football administration. From 2020-22, Streicher served as the football development coordinator after working as the assistant to the head coach from 2018-19.

Working closely with Titans Head Coach Mike Vrabel, Streicher helped the Titans finish with four winning seasons and earn three postseason appearances. In 2022, Vrabel finished the season ranked third in Titans/Oilers history with 50 career wins, including postseason, for head coaches.

In 2021, Streicher was part of a coaching staff that earned its third consecutive playoff appearance. That season, the Titans won their second consecutive AFC South title and claimed the AFC's top playoff seed with a 12-5 regular season record. The team finished with an 11-5 record the year prior in 2020 and won their first division title since 2008.

Before his stint in Tennessee, Streicher spent two years at Texas State as their director of football operations from 2016-17. There he managed day-to-day operations for the program and oversaw recruiting.

From 2014-15, he spent time on James Madison's football staff. He was the special assistant to the head coach in 2014 before being promoted to the director of football operations and player personnel in 2015.

Prior to James Madison, Streicher spent six seasons on the football staff at his alma mater, Ohio State University. He served four years as the equipment manager and then two seasons as a student assistant with the defensive staff.

He is a native of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Nate Scheelhaase

College: Illinois
NFL Coaching Year: 1
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Nate Scheelhaase is entering his first season with the Los Angeles Rams as an offensive assistant and pass game specialist.

He joined the Rams after spending six seasons on the Iowa State football staff serving in various roles (2018-23). Last season, he served as the Cyclone's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Scheelhaase also spent two years coaching the running backs and wide receivers and took on run game coordinator responsibilities (2021-22). Before splitting duties for the program, he coached the receivers for two seasons (2019-20) and the running backs for one season (2018).

During his tenure at Iowa State, the Cyclones appeared in five bowl games and began the season in the AP Top 25 in four of six seasons with the program. The Cyclones also finished with a winning record in five of six seasons and the program produced three of the most productive offenses in school history since 2019.

Last season, the Cyclones offense improved from 20.2 points per game in 2022 to 26.2 points per game under his leadership as offensive coordinator. They led college football with 11 offensive touchdowns of 50 or more yards and many players were recognized for their outstanding play including redshirt freshman Quarterback Rocco Becht, who was named Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and Second-Team Freshman All-American. Becht completed 231-of-367 passes for 3,120 yards and 23 touchdowns. He broke nearly every ISU freshman passing record and his touchdown mark was the most in a single season for a Cyclone quarterback since Brock Purdy (27) in 2019. Receiver Jaylin Noel also excelled under Scheelhaase's guidance, notching 66 catches for 820 yards and seven touchdowns, the most by an ISU player since 2020. Receiver Jayden Higgins, who finished the season with 53 catches for 983 yards and six touchdowns. The Cyclones finished the 2023 campaign leading the Big 12 in red zone efficiency (93.9%) and ranked seventh nationally. They recorded a 6-3 record in conference play and competed in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

As the receivers coach in 2022, he guided Xavier Hutchinson to a record-breaking season and helped him earn AP First-Team All-American honors. Hutchinson was also named First-Team All-Big 12 for the third consecutive season and was named a Biletnikoff Award finalist. He led the Big 12 and broke his own single-season record with 107 catches, becoming the first Cyclone in school history to record 100 catches in a single season and the first player in Big 12 history to lead the conference in receptions three consecutive seasons. Hutchinson finished his collegiate career with the eighth-most catches in Big 12 history and the third-most receiving yards in ISU program history. He recorded a reception in every game he appeared in, which was the second-longest streak in school history, and tied for the seventh-longest active streak in college football. That season, Scheelhaase was named a finalist for FootballScoop's Wide Receiver Coach of the Year.

During the 2021 season, the Cyclones recorded the fourth-best scoring average (31.3) and fifth-best total offense (424.5 yards per game) in program history. Scheelhaase helped ISU's offense rank second nationally in red zone offense, converting on 47-of-49 trips (95.9%) and guided the Cyclones to their fifth-consecutive bowl game appearance. That season, two-time consensus All-American Running Back Breece Hall led the conference and ranked sixth nationally in rushing yards (122.7 yards per game) and was second nationally in touchdowns (23). Scheelhaase also participated in a Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Kansas City Chiefs and worked specifically with the quarterbacks in 2021

In 2020, ISU finished the season with the second-best scoring offense (31.9 points per game) and the third-best total offense (436.3 yards per game) in program history. The Cyclones finished first in the Big 12 standings, competed in the Big 12 Championship, and qualified for a New Year's Six Bowl for the first time in program history. Scheelhaase helped the team record the highest rankings in school history during the season (sixth) and in the postseason (ninth).

Scheelhaase was listed in 247Sports' "30Under30" as one of the top rising coaches in 2019. In his first season as the receivers coach, he mentored All-Big 12 Receiver Deshaunte Jones, who finished the season with 76 catches which was the second-highest mark in school history, to go along with 877 yards which was eighth-best in program history.

In 2018 as the running backs coach, he mentored David Montgomery, who earned All-America honors in back-to-back seasons and finished third in the conference in rushing (101.3 yards per game) and became just the eighth player in program history to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Montgomery also finished second in the Big 12 in rushing touchdowns (13).

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Scheelhaase was on staff at the University of Illinois (2015-17). He spent his first season as the running backs coach (2015) before becoming an offensive analyst (2016-17).

Scheelhaase played quarterback for the Fighting Illini (2009-13) and finished his career as the program's all-time leader in total offense with 10,634 yards, which ranks seventh in Big Ten history. In 2013 as a senior, he had one of the best offensive seasons in program history leading the conference in passing yards (272.7 yards per game) and completion percentage (66.7). He also broke the school record for passing efficiency (140.7) to earn All-Big Ten honors. He was the only quarterback in Illini history to win back-to-back bowl games and is one of just two players in Big Ten history to total over 8,000 passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards in his collegiate career.

He earned the prestigious Big Ten Medal of Honor in 2014, was a four-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, and earned two degrees, a bachelor's degree in communication and a master's in sports management.

Scheelhaase and his wife, Morgan, have a son, Cru, and a daughter, Rocky.

Sean Desai

College: Boston College
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Sean Desai enters his first season with the Los Angeles Rams as a senior assistant.

He joins the team after spending last season with the Philadelphia Eagles as their defensive coordinator. Under Desai's leadership, the Eagles defense finished 10th in opponent rushing yards allowed (1,758) and rushing touchdowns allowed (13). The unit was tied for fifth in the NFL with 264 pressures and eighth with 230 hurries.

Desai also guided Outside Linebacker Haason Reddick to an 11.0-sack season, which tied for 15th in the league. His 67 pressures ranked tied for 18th and his 41 hurries ranked 25th. Defensive Lineman Josh Sweat finished the season with 45 hurries, which was tied for the 18th-most during the 2023 campaign to go along with 68 pressures which was the 17th-highest total. Reddick and Sweat finished in the top-10 in quarterback hits, with Reddick's 24 ranking tied for 13th and Sweat's 23 ranking tied for 16th. Reddick was voted to his second Pro Bowl. Additionally under Desai's leadership in 2023, rookie Defensive Lineman Jalen Carter was a finalist for the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year Award after finishing in the top five among rookies in sacks, pressures, hurries, and tackles for loss.

Prior to his time in Philadelphia, Desai spent a season with the Seattle Seahawks serving as the associate head coach and defensive assistant in 2022. He helped the Seahawks earn a playoff berth and the defensive unit finished fourth in the NFL in forced fumbles (15), seventh in sacks (45.0), eighth in takeaways (25), 13th in opponent passing yards per game (211.5), fifth in opponent fourth down conversion percentage (39.3%), and tied for fifth in fumble recoveries (10). Desai also helped rookie Cornerback Tariq Woolen and Safety Quandre Diggs earn Pro Bowl honors. Additionally in 2022, Seahawks Outside Linebacker Uchenna Nwosu finished in the top-20 in sacks with a career-best 9.5, 16th in pressures (61), 12th in quarterback hits (26), and tied for 24th in hurries (35).

Before his stint in Seattle, Desai spent nine seasons with the Chicago Bears serving in various roles (2013-21). He was the team's defensive coordinator in 2021 when the Bears defense finished sixth in the NFL in opponent yards per game (316.7), third in opponent passing yards per game (191.6), seventh in opponent first downs per game (18.9), 11th in opponent third down conversion percentage (38.4%), 13th in opponent red zone efficiency (55.6%), and second in opponent completions (314). That season, Desai also became the first person of Indian descent to hold a coordinator position in the NFL.

With Desai's guidance, Outside Linebacker Robert Quinn broke Chicago's single-season sack record with 18.5. He was named Second-Team AP All-Pro and earned his third Pro Bowl nod that season. Quinn registered at least a half sack in 14 of 16 games played, including 12.0 in the last eight games.

From 2019-20, Desai coached safeties with the Bears. In 2020, Safeties Eddie Jackson and Tashaun Gipson Sr. helped the defense hold opposing passing attacks to 231.0 yards per game and haul in three game-winning interceptions on opponent's final drives.

In 2019, Desai guided Jackson to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl while Safety Ha Ha Clinton-Dix shined in his first season with the team recording 78 tackles and two interceptions. Both players played key roles in limiting opposing offenses to 222.1 passing yards per game, which ranked ninth in the NFL that season.

As a quality control coach from 2013-18, Desai worked with the Bears defensive backs and linebackers while also assisting the special teams coaches.

He joined the NFL coaching ranks after spending the 2012 season as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Boston College. That season, the Eagles led the NCAA in punt return average with 21.7 yards per return. Desai also mentored Running Back Andre Williams, who went on to win the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back a year later.

Before his time at Boston College, Desai was the assistant director of football operations at the University of Miami in 2011 after spending five seasons at Temple as a defensive and special teams coach from 2006-10. In 2010, he served as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach. He was one of the youngest coordinators in the country that season at the age of 27. In 2010, Temple's special teams unit ranked second in the nation in kickoff coverage, allowing just 17.4 yards per return. The defense also ranked 16th in the nation in total defense (317.7 yards per game). Temple's defense also finished 15th in opponents passing yards per game (178.2) and their nine passing touchdowns allowed were tied for the second-fewest in the FBS.

From 2007-10, Desai was a graduate assistant for the Owls and helped with special teams, defense, and academics. During his time as a graduate assistant, Temple's special teams had the nation's top kickoff return unit in 2008, averaging 26.6 yards per return while tying for second in the nation with two kickoff return touchdowns. In 2009, the Owls recorded their longest winning streak in program history (nine), en route to the Mid-American Conference East Division Co-Championship and their first bowl game in 30 years.

Desai earned his doctorate in educational administration, with an emphasis in higher education, at Temple in May of 2008. He served as an adjunct professor at the school in 2009 and 2010 and taught education administration in the master's and doctoral programs.

Desai and his wife have two sons and a daughter.

Jerry Schuplinski

College: John Carroll
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Jerry Schuplinski enters his first season with the Los Angeles Rams as a senior assistant.

He joins the team after spending the last two seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders. Schuplinski coached tights ends last season and played a role in the development of rookie Tight End Michael Mayer. Among rookie tight ends, Mayer finished fifth in receptions (27), receiving yards (304), yards after the catch (164), and was third in receiving first downs (19).

In his first season with the Raiders during the 2022 campaign, Schuplinski served as a senior offensive assistant and helped the offense finish in the top-12 in total offense (352.5 yards per game), passing offense (231.4 yards per game), and scoring offense (23.2 points per game). Three offensive players for the Raiders also earned Pro Bowl nods including Quarterback Derek Carr, Running Back Josh Jacobs, and Receiver Davante Adams.

Before his time in Las Vegas, he spent two seasons with the New York Giants serving as the quarterbacks coach. In 2021, Schuplinski led a group that saw three different signal callers make starts as a result of injuries. In his second season under Schuplinski's guidance, Quarterback Daniel Jones established a career-high in completion percentage (64.3%) after completing 232-of-361 attempts during the regular season. Jones also threw for 2,428 yards and 10 touchdowns despite making just 11 starts on the year.

In 2020 during his first year with the Giants, Schuplinski helped the Giants quarterbacks complete 62.1% of their passes, which was the seventh-highest single-season mark in franchise history. That season, Jones had a stretch of 177 passing attempts without an interception and had 65 rushing attempts for 423 yards, marking the second-highest total and the record for a Giants quarterback in the Super Bowl era. Jones' 6.5-yard rushing average was the NFL's highest among the 91 players with at least 50 rushing attempts in 2020.

Schuplinski was the quarterbacks coach for the Miami Dolphins in 2019 and helped the offense finish 12th in passing yards per game (237.8). He helped veteran Quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick throw for 20 touchdowns, his highest total since 2015.

Before joining the Dolphins staff, Schlupinski spent six seasons with the New England Patriots from 2013-18. He served as a coaching assistant before a three-year stint as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach from 2016-18 working closely with Quarterback Tom Brady. New England won three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI, and LII), four AFC titles, and advanced to the conference championship game in every season Schuplinski was on staff under Bill Belichick.

In his final year on the Patriots staff in 2018, New England finished eighth in passing, averaging 266.1 net passing yards per game. Brady was seventh in the NFL with 4,355 passing yards and 10th with 29 passing touchdowns, earning his 14th Pro Bowl selection. The previous season, Schuplinski helped Brady win his third Most Valuable Player Award. Brady was the NFL's leading passer, throwing for 4.57 yards. His 32 passing touchdowns and 102.8 passer rating were both third in the league. The Patriots also led the NFL in total offense, averaging 394.2 yards per game, and finished second in scoring, with an average of 28.6 points per game.

In his first season as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2016, the Patriots won Super Bowl LI and Brady was named Super Bowl MVP after passing for 466 yards and two touchdowns in a dramatic come-from-behind victory over the Atlanta Falcons. That season, Patriots quarterbacks set an NFL record with 258 passing attempts without an interception to start the year. Brady missed the first four games of the season and Schuplinski mentored Quarterbacks Jimmy Garoppolo and Jacoby Brissett, who guided the team to a 3-1 start in Brady's absence.

As a coaching assistant from 2013-15, the Patriots won Super Bowl XLIX and registered a 36-12 regular season record.

Before his time in New England, Schuplinski spent six seasons as the linebackers and special teams coach at Case Western Reserve in Cleveland from 2007-12. During his tenure, he mentored 22 University Athletic Association (NCAA Division III) all-conference selections.

Schuplinski also was the head coach and athletics director at Trinity High School in his hometown of Garfield Heights, Ohio, from 2002-06.

He began his coaching career as a running backs and special teams coach at his alma mater, John Carroll, from 2000-01. He played football collegiately at John Carroll and was teammates with NFL personnel such as former NFL General Manager Dave Ziegler, former NFL Head Coach Josh McDaniels, former NFL Linebacker London Fletcher, and Houston Texans General Manager Nick Caserio.

Schuplinski graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration/marketing and a master's degree in business administration.

He and his wife, Megan, have four daughters, Macy, Bryn, Jaxi and Josy.

Brian Xanders

College: Florida State
Rams Year: 8

Brian Xanders is in his eighth season with the Los Angeles Rams. Xanders works with all areas of the club's player personnel department, including college scouting, pro personnel, coaching research, and game management/strategy.

The 2024 season marks Xanders' 31st year in the NFL working in a variety of player personnel, scouting, football operations and coaching staff roles during his time at four different teams (Los Angeles, Detroit, Denver and Atlanta). He has direct experience in player evaluations with the last 29 NFL Draft classes and 23 free agency periods.

Xanders joined the Rams organization in 2017, following a four-year stint with the Detroit Lions. Prior to his Lions' tenure, he served four seasons with the Denver Broncos as the team's general manager.

During his tenure as the Broncos' general manager, he engineered the personnel transformation, where 85 percent of the team's roster was turned over through the draft, free agency or re-signed by the club. The Broncos executed high-producing NFL Draft classes from 2009-12, with twenty-seven players earning careers of 4+ years, and there were 22 primary starters (1+ year) on NFL teams. The group included six Pro Bowl players with 20 total appearances: LB Von Miller, WR Demaryius Thomas, CB Chris Harris, DT Malik Jackson, TE Julius Thomas and OG Zane Beadles. Other long-term core starters included WR Eric Decker, DT Derek Wolfe, LB Danny Trevathan, T Orlando Franklin, T Mike Remmers and DE Robert Ayers. There were also eight other Pro Bowl players who were acquired, signed or extended during his tenure: QB Peyton Manning, SS Brian Dawkins, WR Brandon Lloyd, RB Willis McGahee, CB Champ Bailey, DE Elvis Dumervil, WR Brandon Marshall, and OT Ryan Clady.

Xanders also supervised the day-to-day operations of the Broncos' college scouting, pro scouting, labor operations/salary cap, equipment, medical, video, football systems and football operations departments. He served on the NFL College Advisory, NFL Combine Selection and the NFL Statistics Committees. Xanders was originally hired by Denver as assistant general manager in 2008.

Before joining the Broncos, Xanders worked 14 seasons (1994-2008) with the Atlanta Falcons in various scouting, player personnel, football operations, coaching staff (defense/offense/ST) and technology/systems roles. He was a member of the Falcons' defensive coaching staff on their 1998 team that became the first in franchise history to earn a Super Bowl appearance (XXXIII). Xanders was selected by the Falcons to attend Stanford University's NFL Program for Managers in 2005 and has given presentations at several universities on NFL player personnel issues.

A former linebacker who played for Bobby Bowden at Florida State University from 1989-92, Xanders was a member of four bowl-winning teams with the Seminoles that had a 42-7 combined record. He was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference academic team selection and graduated from FSU with a master's degree in business administration and a bachelor's degree in business management.

Xanders, Amy, Reid and Mary Claire and reside in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida.

He spent the previous 27 years with the Jaguars in various roles, most recently as director of pro personnel. He served six seasons as the director of pro personnel after spending the previous six seasons as a pro scout. Prior to his time as a pro scout, Driggers spent nine seasons scouting the Southwest region of the country.

He began his career with the Jaguars in the football operations department before moving to the role of salary cap administrator, assisting in player contract proposals, salary cap administration and negotiating player contracts. He became a scouting assistant in 1998 and joined the Jaguars in 1994.

During his time in Jacksonville, the Jaguars won three divison titles (1998-1999, 2017), made seven playoff appearances, and reached the AFC Championship three times (1996, 1999, 2017).

A native of Jacksonville, Driggers graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in finance. He and his wife, Alyson, have three sons - Thomas, Travis and Tyler.

James Gladstone

College: Westminster College
Rams Year: 9

James Gladstone is in his ninth season with the Los Angeles Rams and his fifth as Director of Scouting Strategy. Gladstone spent the 2021 season as the team's Director of Scouting.
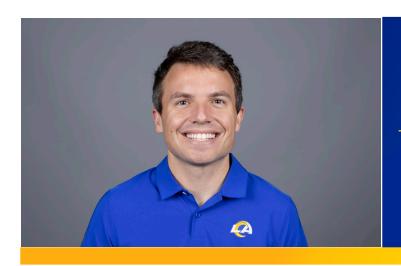

In his role, he works directly with General Manager Les Snead in strategic planning and execution of day-to-day scouting processes. Additionally, he is responsible for scouting current and prospective players and providing frequent analysis on special projects.

Before joining the Rams, Gladstone worked in education administration as the Student Activities Director and football coach at Clayton High School in St. Louis, Missouri. He also served as the Media and Literacy Coordinator and football coach at St. John Vianney High School in St. Louis, Missouri.

Gladstone graduated from Westminster College in 2013 with a Bachelor's Degree in Education. While attending Westminster, he was a two-time captain of the football team, was awarded Athlete of the Year honors, and was named to the BSN All-American team as a wide receiver. Gladstone also holds a Master's Degree in Education Administration.

Gladstone and his wife, Julie, are natives of St. Louis, Missouri.

Director, Pro Scouting

John McKay

College: Southern California
Rams Year: 9

John McKay is entering his ninth year with the Los Angeles Rams and fourth as director of pro personnel after spending time previously as the assistant director of pro scouting.
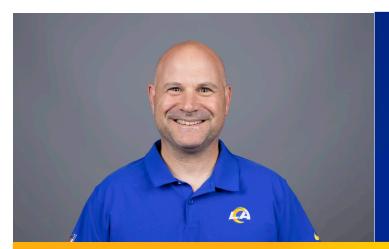

McKay helps manage the process for all player arrivals and departures. He also evaluates all 32 rosters prior to free agency, writes advance scouting reports for upcoming opponents and evaluates college players prior to the draft.

McKay joined the Rams as a scouting assistant in 2016. During that season, he evaluated players and submitted reports. McKay also tracked player news during the year and entered the information into the scouting database among numerous other specifically assigned tasks.

Prior to joining the Rams, he worked in labor operations/player personnel at the NFL Headquarters in New York, working closely with the league's salary cap and roster management team. McKay also has experience working as a researcher at NFL Network in Los Angeles, Calif.

He graduated from the University of Southern California with a bachelor's degree in political science with a minor in sports media. During his time there, he served as a student recruiting assistant for the school's football program in 2012.

A native of Atlanta, Ga., he attended Holy Innocents' Episcopal School, and currently resides in Los Angeles.

Senior Personnel Executive

Ted Monago

College: Arizona State
NFL Year: 24
Rams Year: 12

Ted Monago enters his 24th NFL season and 12th with the Rams. The 2024 season marks Monago's second season as a senior personnel executive after spending the previous seasons as the assistant director of college scouting.

Previously, Monago has served as a national scout for the club and was responsible for scouting players within a designated region as specified by the general manager.

Prior to joining the Rams, Monago spent 12 seasons in various scouting roles with the Chicago Bears. He spent the 2012 season as an executive scout, primarily focusing on SEC schools along with covering Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Mississippi. From 2003-2011, he was an area scout responsible for covering the Great Plains region. He entered the NFL as a BLESTO scout in 2001.

In the collegiate ranks, Monago coached at the College of William & Mary and served as the tight ends coach in 1998 before switching to linebackers for the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Monago earned a master's in educational and public administration at the University of Idaho in 1998. While in his master's program, he served as a graduate assistant football coach and worked with the offense in 1996 and the defense in 1997.

For his undergraduate studies, he attended Arizona State University and graduated with a sociology degree in 1993. After graduation, he worked as a graduate assistant and held the role of defensive quality control/special teams coach from 1994-1995.

Monago began his coaching career at Scottsdale Community College after being a walk-on defensive back at Arizona State from 1990-1992. In 1993, he served as the linebackers/special teams coach at Scottsdale Community College in Scottsdale, AZ.

Billy Johnson

College: Georgia
Rams Year: 11

Billy Johnson is in his 11th season with the Rams and ninth as an area scout. He is primarily responsible for the Southeast region, as well as Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee and Kentucky.

Johnson joined the Rams as an intern in the personnel department before being promoted to senior scouting assistant in 2015.

Prior to joining the Rams, Johnson began his collegiate playing career at the University of Georgia where served as a long snapper. After completing his undergraduate degree, Johnson transferred to Tulane University to begin working on his master's.

Johnson played for the Green Wave football team during his one season in New Orleans, earning First-Team All-Conference honors.

A native of Buford, Ga., Johnson is the son of long-time NFL assistant Bill Johnson, who spent time as the Rams defensive line coach after an eight-season stint in the same capacity with the New Orleans Saints.

Johnson and his wife, Chelsea, got married in June 2019 and reside in Nashville, Tenn.

Michael Pierce

College: South Alabama
Rams Year: 10

Michael Pierce is in his tenth season with the Rams and eighth as an area scout. In his role, he is primarily responsible for the eastern region of the southeast, covering states such as Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina.

In his first two seasons with the Rams, he was responsible for several positional cross checks, organizing free agent workouts and assisting with draft meetings.

Prior to joining the Rams, Pierce served as a personnel assistant for the Reese's Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala., where he evaluated the top NFL Draft Eligible prospects and assisted in game week operations and the organization of various community outreach initiatives.

Pierce spent six years at Bayside Academy in Daphne, Ala, where he coached football, baseball and taught pre-algebra. On the football field, he coached defensive backs, wide receivers and special teams. At Bayside, Pierce helped guide the Admirals to their first winning season, going undefeated in the regular season, and earning a playoff berth along with playoff victory.

A native of Daphne, Ala., Pierce earned a degree in business administration from the University of South Alabama.

Pierce and his wife, Trenelle, got married in December 2022 and reside in Atlanta, Ga."

Vito Gonella

College: Arizona State

As a scouting assistant/analyst, Gonella evaluated players, prepared reports, and was responsible for tracking player news during the year and entering the information into the scouting database.

Gonella joined the Rams after spending two seasons at UCLA, where he served as a recruiting assistant. During his time with the Bruins, Gonella helped facilitate recruiting visits and produced highlight and point of attack tapes on prospects.

From 2012-13, Gonella was an operations assistant with the Miami Dolphins, where he helped plan and organize logistics for training camp, the team's travel, and other duties.

Gonella earned a degree in disciplinary studies from Arizona State University. While he was an undergraduate in Tempe, he served as a recruiting assistant in the football office. Upon his graduation, Gonella became a full-time employee with Sun Devils program.

A native of Petaluma, Calif., Gonella attended St. Vincent DePaul High School.

Brian Hill

College: Baldwin-Wallace
Rams Year: 12

Brian Hill is entering his 12th season with the Rams and 10th as an area scout. He is responsible for scouting the Midwest region of the U.S. after spending two years as the west coast area scout.

Hill joined the Rams as a scouting assistant in 2013 and held that role through the 2015 Draft.

He originally entered the league in 2009 as an intern with the Cleveland Browns video department and went on to serve in several capacities for the Browns before joining the Kansas City Chiefs as a player development intern.

Hill also spent the 2012 season as an intern in the Tennessee Titans personnel department.

At the collegiate level, Brian coached football at Baldwin-Wallace College as a student and graduated in 2011 with a degree in sports management.

Hill is a native of Ashland, Ohio and graduated from Ashland High School. He resides in Avon Lake, Ohio with his wife, Chelsea.

Chance Trickett
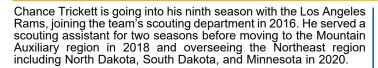

College: Florida State
Rams Year: 9

Chance Trickett is going into his ninth season with the Los Angeles Rams, joining the team's scouting department in 2016. He served a scouting assistant for two seasons before moving to the Mountain Auxiliary region in 2018 and overseeing the Northeast region including North Dakota, South Dakota, and Minnesota in 2020.

Before becoming an NFL scout, Trickett served as the Director of Recruiting at Louisiana Tech University for two years (2015-2016). During his time at Louisiana Tech, Trickett oversaw all administrative duties related to football recruiting and the day-to-day administration of the football office as assigned by the head coach.

Trickett's efforts in recruiting and administration set the foundation for an undefeated bowl season in 2019, and two players being selected in the NFL draft.

From 2014-2015, Trickett served as a recruiting assistant at Florida State University and worked to produce the No. 2 ranked class in 2015.

Trickett earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State and is a graduate of the Reece's Senior Bowl Scout School. He and his wife, Ashley, and their two sons, Tristan and Matthew, currently reside in Jacksonville, FL.

Cedric Jones

Rams Year: 8

Cedric Jones enters his eighth season with the Los Angeles Rams and fifth as an area scout.

Jones joined the Rams following three and a half years consulting for the organization in a scouting capacity. Prior to the Rams, Jones spent seven seasons as the defensive line coach at Southern Nazarene University, where he also contributed to special teams focusing on the field goal unit and punt protection. In his time at SNU, the Crimson Storm became Conference Champions and finished in the Top four for all major defensive categories, including second in total defense, first in tackles for loss, and third in sacks.

Jones began his coaching career in 2005, serving as the defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at Montclair College Preparatory School (2005-08) in Van Nuys, Calif. which paved his way to join the NFL coaching ranks as an intern defensive line coach with the Carolina Panthers (2006-08) and Denver Broncos (2012).

A native of Houston, Texas, Jones hails from the University of Oklahoma where the All-American defensive end remains the school's all-time leader in total sacks (31.5), single-season total sacks (14.0) and most sacks in a single game (5.0). The two-time All-Conference player (1994-95) would go on to become the fifth overall selection in the 1996 NFL Draft by the New York Giants, where he would spend five seasons (1996-2000), including an appearance in Super Bowl XXXV. Following the 2001 season, Jones entered his final season as a player in the NFL after signing with the St. Louis Rams, which led to his second Super Bowl appearance (XXXVI) in 2002.

JW Jordan

College: Notre Dame
Rams Year: 13

JW Jordan is in his 13th year with the Rams and sixth as the director of draft management after serving as a scouting consultant.

Jordan originally joined the Rams in St. Louis as player personnel coordinator in 2012 and served two years as director of player evaluations, research and analysis.

From 2002–2011, Jordan worked in the player personnel department of the Indianapolis Colts, where he was a member of the 2006 Super Bowl and 2009 AFC Championship teams. During this time, he gained experience in all aspects of player personnel including college scouting, pro scouting, the salary cap and day-to-day operations.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Jordan attended the University of Notre Dame from 1997-2001 and earned a Bachelor of Science in Finance. Jordan played football for the Fighting Irish and earned two letters as an offensive center and guard.

He met his wife Megan during his tenure with the Colts while she served as a cheerleader for the club from 2005-07. They reside in Weston, FL, with and their son, John, and daughter, Ruby.

Scouting Strategist

Nicole Blake

College: Duke
Rams Year: 4

Nicole Blake enters her fourth season with the Rams and third as a scouting strategy analyst after spending 2021 as a scouting strategy consultant.

Prior to joining the Rams in 2021, Blake was apart of the NFL's rotational program for two seasons in New York. She focused on broadcasting, digital content strategy, consumer products (gaming & retail), and business strategy & operations.

Blake graduated from Duke University with a degree in visual and media studies and received her MBA at Stanford in 2022.

Marty Barrett

College: University of Buffalo
Rams Year: 8

Marty Barrett enters his eighth season with the Los Angeles Rams. He spent the previous two seasons as a senior personnel executive after spending time as a national scout.

Barrett, a 30-year NFL veteran, joined the Rams organization after spending time with the New Orleans Saints, the Chicago Bears, and most recently the Philadelphia Eagles.

Barrett was with the Eagles from 2015-16 as a senior scout. Prior to his arrival in Philadelphia, Barrett enjoyed an 18-year scouting stint with Chicago, where he served as the director of college scouting for four years after initially joining the club as an area scout in 1997.

During his tenure with the Bears, Barrett was part of a franchise that captured four division titles (2001, 2005, 2006, 2010) and a conference championship (2006), while appearing in two conference championship games (2006, 2010) and in Super Bowl XLI. As a member of Chicago's personnel department, Barrett was involved in scouting a number of prospects who went on to earn Pro Bowl accolades for the Bears, including C Olin Kreutz, LB Lance Briggs, WR Alshon Jeffery and G Kyle Long. He also played a contributing role in acquiring 2014 PFWA all-rookie members CB Kyle Fuller and P Pat O'Donnell.

Barrett entered the NFL in 1995 as an area scout for the New Orleans Saints, a position he held for two seasons.

Prior to his scouting career, Barrett spent 11 years in college football working as an assistant to the Athletics Director/Football Operations at Rutgers University from 1991-95 after spending one season as a graduate assistant for the Scarlet Knights.

After starting his coaching career in 1984 at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Barrett spent the 1985 season as a graduate assistant with Ashland University. In 1986, he was hired as an assistant coach at his alma mater, the University at Buffalo, and coached wide receivers (1986-88) and then running backs (1989). During his time coaching the Bulls, Barrett also served as the team's recruiting coordinator.

A three-year letterman, Barrett established 14 records while in college and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 1989. Barrett graduated from the University at Buffalo with a bachelor's degree in physical education and went on to earn a master's in sports science from Ashland University.

A native of Amherst, NY, Barrett and his wife, Tina, have three children.

Matt Waugh

College: Ohio University
Rams Year: 8
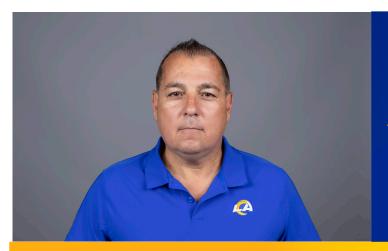

Matt Waugh enters his eighth season with the Los Angeles Rams and sixth season as a pro scout after serving as a pro scouting assistant.

In his current role, Waugh's duties include preseason scouting, regular season scouting advances, monitoring unrestricted and restricted free agents for the upcoming free agency period, draft process cross-checking and college free agent scouting. Waugh brings 11 years of football operations experience covering a range of assignments both at the collegiate and professional levels. Prior to joining the Rams organization, Waugh completed a scouting internship with the Chargers.

He also served as a recruiting associate for the Purdue University football program during the 2015 season and contributed to the initial evaluation and scouting of potential high school recruits. Waugh also interned with the Detroit Lions and Tennessee Titans personnel departments from 2014 to 2015. Prior to getting his start in the National Football League, Waugh served as a recruiting assistant for the University of Cincinnati football program from 2012-14.

Waugh got his start at his alma mater, Ohio University, as a football operations assistant/recruiting intern. The 2012 graduate received his Bachelor of Science in sport management.

Steve Miller

College: Missouri - St. Louis

Steve Miller is entering his 16th season with the Rams in 2024 and ninth as the special assistant to the general manager/security.

Miller previously served as director of security for the club from 2009-2015. He consulted with the organization on security-related travel issues for eight years prior to being brought on full-time.

Miller spent 18 years in law enforcement, mostly with the St. Louis Airport Police Department, where he last commanded their Intelligence Division.

During his tenure, Miller was recognized by numerous agencies such as the Missouri State Highway Patrol, the United States Secret Service, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Department of State, for his invaluable service.

Miller and his wife Julie have two daughters, Maggie and Nikki.

Andy Sugarman

College: California
NFL Year: 25
Rams Year: 16

Andy Sugarman enters his 16th season with the Rams and his sixth as the special assistant to the general manager/analyst in his 25th NFL season.

Sugarman has held various roles within the Rams organization, previously working in operations helping with team travel logistics, training camp operations, and various day-to-day club operations. He also assisted in the overall relocation operations of the club to Los Angeles, Calif.

Before transitioning to operations, Sugarman enjoyed a 16-year tenure as an NFL coach, most recently with the Rams as a quality control/offense coach. Sugarman was responsible for breaking down film of upcoming opponents, self-scouting the Rams, leading the scout team defense in practice, and assisting with the tight ends.

Prior to joining the Rams, he served as offensive assistant for the Atlanta Falcons in 2007. From 2004-05, Sugarman coached tight ends for the Detroit Lions as a member of Steve Mariucci's staff after spending one season as offensive assistant for the team in 2003. In 2005, Sugarman helped TE Marcus Pollard lead the Lions in receiving with 46 receptions for 516 yards and three touchdowns.

Sugarman arrived to Detroit in 2003 after five seasons with the San Francisco 49ers. He was the club's offensive quality control coach from 1998-99 and worked as an offensive assistant from 2000-02. During his first three seasons in San Francisco, Sugarman worked with wide receivers and worked with tight ends his final two seasons with the team. In addition to his coaching duties, Sugarman handled computer operations, including game plan inputs and coordinated the scout teams for special teams.

A fourth-generation University of California-Berkeley alumnus, Sugarman made his coaching debut at Cal in 1991, serving as an assistant to the offensive and special team staffs through the 1997 season. Sugarman also worked for the team while he was a student at Acalanes High School in Lafayette, Calif.

Andy has three daughters: Lucy, Chelsea and Roxie.

Jake Temme

College: Dayton
Rams Year: 11

Jake Temme is in his 11th season with the Los Angeles Rams and serves as the team's director of data and analytics.

In his role, he works across all facets of the football organization, helping the team utilize data and analytics to its fullest extent. Temme also evaluates both current and prospective players, helping shape the team's acquisition strategies each season.

He is a native of St. Louis, MO, and earned a double major in entrepreneurship and management information systems at the University of Dayton in 2012.

Temme and his wife, Holly, currently reside in Camarillo, California.

73 Steve Avila

Offensive Lineman • TCU • Arlington, TX

Ht./Wt.: 6-3/332
NFL Exp.: 2 (2nd Rams)
GP/GS, (Playoffs): 17/17 (1/1)
Birth Date: 10/16/1999
Acquired: D2-'23 (No. 36 Overall)

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the second round (36th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

NFL Career:

- Started all 17 regular season games his rookie season and finished among the leaders on the team in snaps played (1,094). It was the most snaps for a Rams offensive lineman since 2021 and the most by a Rams rookie since Cooper Kupp in 2017.
- Among rookie offensive linemen in the 2023 draft class, he ranked second in most snaps played.
- Finished the 2023 season with the second-best pass blocking grade, the fifth-best offensive grade, and the 10th-best run blocking grade among rookie offensive linemen.
- Among rookie guards, Avila finished fifth in sacks allowed (2.0) in 2023.
- Was voted to the PWFA All-Rookie Team in '23.

College: Avila's senior campaign at TCU in 2022 made him the school's first consensus All-American since wide receiver Josh Doctson in 2015. He was a team captain for a Horned Frogs team that competed in the College Football National Championship and the anchor of an offensive line that paved the way for one of the nation's most prolific offenses. He started all 15 games at left guard and didn't allow a sack for back-to-back seasons. He also led all TCU offensive players with 1,044 snaps played his senior season. He was a 2022 First-Team All-Big 12 selection, an Outland Trophy Semifinalist, an Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Semifinalist, and an honorable mention for Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. Avila participated in the Senior Bowl ahead of the 2023 NFL Draft. In 2021, he started 11 games at center and saw action at right guard. He capped his junior season as a First-Team AP All-Big 12. He started all nine games played as a sophomore in 2020 and made starts at three different positions - six at center, two at right tackle, and one at right guard. He was the only player to start at three different spots on the offensive line that season. Avila saw action in 11 games his redshirt freshman year in 2019.

Personal: Was rated a four-star recruit by ESPN following his senior year of high school and ranked as the No.9 offensive guard in the state of Texas and No.42 in the country. He was named District 8-6A Co-Offensive Most Valuable Sophomore Player in 2015. Avila chose to play at TCU over Kansas State and Utah. He joined former TCU Offensive Lineman Joe Noteboom as well as college teammates Tre Tomlinson and Ochuan Mathis with the Rams.

- Recorded a sack in back-to-back games in Weeks 9-10 during his rookie campaign in 2020.

College: Curl played collegiately at Arkansas (2017-19), where he appeared in 34 games and recorded 175 tackles (105 solo), 2.0 sacks, two interceptions, 15 passes defended, two fumble recoveries, and three forced fumbles. In 2019 as a junior, he started all 11 games played at strong safety. He played 789 snaps, with 682 coming on defense, the third-most of any Razorback that season. He finished fourth on the team in tackles (76) to go along with four tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, two pass breakups, two interceptions, two fumbles recoveries and two forced fumbles. He was the first player in the NCAA that season to record a sack, interception, and score a touchdown on a fumble recovery, accomplishing the feat in the first two weeks of the season. Curl recorded double-digit sacks on two occasions that season. He started all 11 games played in 2018 as a sophomore and finished fourth on the team in tackles (53) to go along with five pass breakups and one forced fumble. In 2017 as a freshman, Curl started 11 games at cornerback and played the second-most snaps among all SEC true freshman at that position (690). He finished sixth on the team in tackles (46) and tied for the team-lead in pass breakups (eight), which were the most by an Arkansas freshman since 2001. Curl broke up at least one pass in six games that season.

Personal: Curl was a consensus three-star prospect coming out of high school according to ESPN, Rivals, Scout and 247Sports. Two of his three interceptions as a senior were returned for touchdowns and he notched 89 tackles and six pass breakups. Curl guided his team to a 9-2 record and the Class 6II semifinal. As a senior, Curl also notched 46 catches for 533 yards and six touchdowns on offense. He was named to the Muskogee Phoenix All-Area team as a defensive back and to Scout's All-Midlands team as a sophomore. Curl also competed in track and field. He chose Arkansas over schools such as Oklahoma, Ole Miss, Texas, TCU, Baylor, Nebraska, Houston, Texas Tech, Washington State, Illinois and others. He majored in Communications and has two sisters.

90 Tyler Davis

Defensive Lineman • Clemson • Apopka, FL

Ht./Wt.: 6-2/300
NFL Exp.: 1 (1st Rams)
GP/GS, (Playoffs): 0/0
Birth Date: 11/1/2000
Acquired: D6-'24 (No. 196 Overall)

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round (196th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft (4/27/24).

College: Davis became Clemson's first defensive player to be a four-time All-ACC selection, including three consecutive First-Team honors from 2021-23. Including offensive players and specialists, he became the fifth player in school history to be a four-time All-ACC honoree. Davis passed Christian Wilkins, Dexter Lawrence and William Perry for the most career All-ACC selections by a defensive tackle in Clemson history. As a senior in 2023, Davis broke Wilkins' record for starts by a defensive tackle and went on to set the Clemson record for career starts by a defensive player (52). He finished his collegiate career tied with Kicker Chandler Catanzaro for the fourth-most career starts in Clemson history for all positions. He started his first career game as a freshman in 2019 and became a key interior player for Clemson's defense ever since. Davis was voted as a team captain his final two seasons at Clemson. His senior season in 2023, Davis played in 13 games and was credited with 45 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks in 467 snaps played. As a junior in 2022, he was a Bednarik Award semifinalist and started 11-of-12 games played in which he appeared. Davis finished the season with 27 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss, 5.5 sacks, a pass breakup and a fumble recovery in 495 snaps played. He also finished second on the team with 15 pressures that season. In 2021, Davis started eight of nine games played and was credited with 27 tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, and a fumble recovery in 321 snaps played. He battled injury during the 2020 season, in which he recorded 17 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and a pass breakup in 196 snaps played. He started all seven games that he appeared in as a sophomore. Davis was a Second-Team All-ACC selection as a freshman in 2019 after finishing with 51 tackles, 9.0 tackles for loss, 5.5 sacks, two pass breakups, and a fumble recovery in 539 snaps played. He started appeared in 15 games (13 starts), which was the most by a true freshman defensive lineman in school history, and led all true freshman interior linemen in the country in sacks. He became the first true freshman defensive tackle to start a season opener for Clemson since 1974.

Personal: Davis was rated as the no.60 overall player in the nation, the seventh-best defensive tackle and prospect in the state of Florida by ESPN, and a consensus four-star prospect coming out of high school. He played his high school football at Wekiva High for Rich Bedesem and helped the team to an 11-2 record and a top 10 ranking in the state of Florida. Davis earned his degree in management and added a certificate in athletic leadership.

21 Zach Evans

Running Back • Mississippi • Houston, TX

Ht./Wt.: 5-11/202
NFL Exp.: 2 (2nd Rams)
GP/GS, (Playoffs): 10/0, (0/0)
Birth Date: 5/30/2001
Acquired: D6-'23 (No. 215 Overall)

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round (215 overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft (4/29/23).

NFL Career:

- Has appeared in 10 career regular season games and recorded nine rushes for 19 yards. Has also contributed on special teams.
- Made his regular season debut in Week 5 against the Eagles.

College: Evans appeared in 12 contests during his junior season at Ole Miss in 2022. He finished the season with 936 rushing yards on 144 carries and nine touchdowns. Evans also hauled in 12 catches for 119 yards and one touchdown. His 6.5 yards per carry led the SEC and ranked tenth nationally, earning him Third-Team All-SEC accolades from Pro Football Focus. Before transferring to Ole Miss, Evans spent his freshman and sophomore seasons at TCU where he appeared in 15 career games with eight starts and averaged 7.3 yards per carry on nearly 150 rushing attempts. From 2020-21 with the Horned Frogs, Evans led all Power Five running backs in yards after contact per attempt (4.8). He led TCU in rushing yards (648) in 2021 despite playing only six games. He averaged 7.0 yards per rush with five touchdowns before being sidelined for the remainder of the season due to injury in 2021. His 7.7 yards per carry ranked second for a single season in TCU history and second nationally for a true freshman with a minimum of 50 rushes in the FBS in 2020. It marked the second-best average in the Big 12 for a true freshman dating back to 2008 and it was fourth nationally by a true freshman in a Power Five Conference over the last six seasons. He tallied 415 rushing yards as a true freshman and tied for second on the team with four rushing touchdowns.

Personal: Evans was the first five-star signee in TCU's football history. He was rated by ESPN as the nation's no. 16 overall prospect. According to 247Sports, he was the no. 2 running back nationally and the top recruit in Texas. He was selected to play in the Under Armor All-America Game after rushing for nearly 5,000 yards and 76 touchdowns in his high school career. He was the leading rusher for a North Shore team that won its second consecutive Texas 6A Division I state championship and was named 6A first-team all-state by the Texas Sports Writers Association. Evans shared MaxPreps Junior National Player of the Year honors after leading the Mustangs to a 16-0 record and the state title in 2018. That season, Evans helped North Shore become the first team from Texas to finish the year ranked no.1 nationally since 2015. As a junior, he rushed for more than 1,700 yards and 29 touchdowns. He was also named the Houston Chronicle Newcomer of the Year as a sophomore and the District 21-6A Newcomer of the Year. Evans also earned 2021 Second-Team Academic All-Big 12 and Academic All-Big 12 Rookie Team honors at TCU as a multi-disciplinary studies major.

- Recorded postseason career-highs in the NFC Championship Game in 2021 with 43 completions for 535 passing yards.
- Eclipsed 100,000 yards passing during the 2021 sseason, becoming one of eight quarterbacks in 49ers history, and accomplishing the feat in the fewest number of games.
- In Week 8 of the 2021 season, he became the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 300 or more yards and rish for two touchdowns in a game since 2000. He also became the first 49ers quarterback since 2013 to rush for multiple touchdowns in a game.

- Threw for 300 or more yards in consecutive weeks for the second time in his career during the 2021 campaign. His eight games with 300 or more passing yards that season ranked fourth in franchise history.
- Became the sixth quarterback in 49ers franchise history to record multiple seasons with 3,000 passing yards in 2021.
- Became the fourth quarterback in 49ers franchise history to record at least 3,978 passing yards in a single season.
- His four game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime in 2019 was the third-most in the NFL in a single season.
- In Week 11 of the 2019 season, he threw for 424 yards and four touchdowns, joining Hall of Fame quarterbacks Joe Montana and Steve Young as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to throw for over 400 yards and four touchdowns in a single game.
- Became the third quarterback since the merger in 1970 to win each of his first two road starts with the 49ers in 2017.
- Made his first career start in Week 1 of the 2016 season with the Patriots.

College: Garoppolo was named the Walter Payton Award winner, given to the top player in the FCS, as a senior in 2013. He also was the FCS ADA National Offensive Player of the Year, the FCS ADA National Quarterback of the Year Award winner, the CFPA FCS Quarterback of the Year, and was named an All-American his final year at Eastern Illinois. He put together the best season by an Ohio Valley Conference quarterback, breaking virtually every OVC season and career record while leading his team to a 12-2 overall record, a second-straight OVC Championship, and a berth in the FCS Playoff quarterfinals. He threw for 5,050 yards and 53 touchdowns and rushed for four touchdowns as a senior. His passing touchdown mark was the fourth-most in FCS history and his passing yards mark is second all-time. He is one of just two players in FCS history to eclipse 5,000 passing yards in a season. His 118 touchdown career touchdown passes ranks sixth in FCS history while his 13,156 career passing yards ranks seventh.

College Continued: In 2013, he directed Eastern Illinois to the no.1 ranked offense nationally in terms of yards per game and scoring offense. Garoppolo threw for 400 or more yards in five contests and six other games with over 300 yards passing. He threw a touchdown in all but one game during the 2013 campaign. He was named FCS National Player of the Week on three occasions in 2013 and a record-tying nine times in his career, tying the OVC all-time mark. He finished 10th in voting for the Walter Payton Award and earned Second-Team All-OVC honors as a junior in 2012. Garoppolo finished that season ranked fifth in the FCS in total offense and sixth in passing yards per game. He was twice named OVC Offensive Player of the Week and threw for more than 400 yards in a game. Garoppolo recorded six games with 300 or more passing yards. In 2011 as a sophomore, he started all 11 games and completed 217-of-349 passes for 2,644 yards and 20 touchdowns. As a freshman in 2010, Garoppolo started the final eight games of the season and earned All-Ohio Valley Conference Newcomer Team honors after passing for 1,639 yards and 14 touchdowns.

Personal: Garoppolo was a standout quarterback at Rolling Meadows High School. He passed for 1,888 yards and 16 touchdowns as a senior, earning Northwest Suburban All-Area honors. He also rushed for 563 yards and seven touchdowns. Garoppolo led his team to the Mid-Suburban East League championships and an IHSA Class 7A playoff berth. He also had an impressive campaign his junior year, passing for 2,072 yards and 18 touchdowns while adding 552 yards and seven touchdowns on the ground. Garoppolo majored in management and his brother, Mike, played football at Western Illinois.

92 Anthony Goodlow

Defensive End • Oklahoma State • Del City, OK.

NFL Exp.: R (1st Rams)
Birth Date: 7/25/2000
Acquired: UDFA-'24

Transactions: Signed with the Los Angeles Rams as an undrafted free agent (5/2/24).

College: Goodlow spent one season at Oklahoma State in 2023 and played in all 14 games and started nine of the last 10 games. He received honorable mention honors from the Big 12 coaches for Defensive Newcomer of the Year, Defensive Lineman of the Year and All-Big 12. Goodlow led all OSU defensive linemen with 42 tackles (18 solo) and his seven tackles for loss were fourth on the team and first among defensive linemen. Before transferring to Oklahoma state for his final collegiate season, Goodlow played at Tulsa, where he earned All-AAC honors for the first time in his career and a Second-Team conference selection as a senior in 2022. He started all 12 games his final year at Tulsa and he recorded 44 tackles (25 solo), eight tackles for loss which led all defensive linemen on the roster. His tackle for loss total also ranked second on the team and he also added 2.0 sacks, four hurries and two pass breakups. As a junior in 2021, Goodlow played in all 13 games (five starts) and compiled 28 tackles, seven tackles for loss, a team-high 6.0 sacks, and one fumble recovery. He played in nine games (five starts) as a sophomore in 2020 and was credited with 32 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks, one forced fumble and one pass breakup. Goodlow finished ninth in the AAC in sacks that season. He played in 12 games as a freshman in 2019 and was credited with nine tackles. He saw most of his playing time on special teams that season. Goodlow was a redshirt in 2018 and saw limited time in the final games of the season.

Personal: Goodlow lettered three years at Del City High School and was rated a three-star prospect out of high school by 247Sports and Rivals. He spent time at safety, linebacker and defensive end for his high school team and had 30 tackles for loss, 19.0 sacks, and three forced fumbles his senior season, earning District Player of the Year honors. Goodlow was named to The Oklahoman's Super 30 as the 27th top prospect in the state and was a 2017 VYPE Oklahoma Top-100 selection.

Safety • North Carolina State • Orlando, Fla.

NFL Exp.: 1 (1st Rams)
Birth Date: 10/29/1999
Acquired: UDFA-'23

Transactions: Signed to the Los Angeles Rams practice squad (8/30/23)...Waived by the Rams (8/28/23)...Signed with the Los Angeles Rams as an undrafted rookie (5/2/23).

College: During his time at NC State, Ingle appeared in 56 games (50 starts), and recorded 310 total tackles (175 solo), and three interceptions. His 2,960 career snaps ranked second among defensive players and he ranked second on the team in tackles. During his senior campaign in 2022, he earned Second-Team All-ACC and finished with career-high numbers in interceptions (two) and solo tackles (43). During the 2021 season, Ingle was named First-Team All-ACC, First-Team Associated Press, and Second-Team according to Phil Steele. He was the second-leading tackler with 82 stops. He finished with 776 snaps for the season, the highest total on defense. Ingle led the team with a career-high single-game tackles (13) and had his first career interception against USF. During the 2020 season, he faced a hamstring injury for most of the season. He was voted season captain and named Fourth-Team preseason All-ACC choice by Phil Steele. As a sophomore in 2019, Ingle was the second-leading tackler for the season with 68 stops and earned the team's Dewayne Washington Award for Defensive Back of the year. During his sophomore campaign, he switched positions from nickel to free safety. As a true freshman in 2018, he was one of two freshman to start multiple games on defense. Ingle ranked sixth on the team in tackles.

Personal: A 2018 graduate from Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando Fl., Ingle helped his team to the Florida Class 8A state title with a record of 13-2. He competed in track and field and was a two-time state title holder in the long jump. Ingle was ranked 47th in the nation by Rivals and 78th cornerback nationally by 247 Sports. As a senior, he finished with 101 tackles, nine rushes for 44 yards, one touchdown, and tallied 215 yards in both punt and kickoff returns. Ingle was named First-Team all-state, two-time First-Team all-metro and all-district selection, and voted team captain. During his time at NC State he studied sport management.

68 Alaric Jackson

Offensive Line • Iowa • Detroit, MI

NFL Exp.: 3 (3rd Rams)
GP/GS, (Playoffs): 27/21, (3/1)
Birth Date: 7/14/1998
Acquired: UDFA-'21

Transactions: Placed on injured reserve (11/16/22)...Signed by the Los Angeles Rams as an undrafted rookie free agent (5/2/21).

NFL Career:

- Has started 21-of-27 regular season games played and has been on the field for more than 1,300 snaps.
- Saw action in 15 games (all starts) during the 2023 season and totaled 923 snaps, allowed 1.0 sack, and eight quarterback hits.
- Among tackles who played over 500 offensive snaps during the 2023 regular season, he tied for first in sacks allowed.
- Was the fourth-highest graded left tackle in Week 6 of 2022 against the Panthers (86.1), according to Pro Football Focus. This was a career-high rating for Jackson. He finished the game against the Panthers not allowing a single sack, hurry, or pressure.
- Before being injured last season following Week 9, Jackson hadn't allowed a single sack and only allowed 11 pressures on 305 snaps. This was fewest on the Rams among offensive linemen with at least 250 snaps.
- Saw action in a Week 2 contest against the Falcons playing 60 snaps at right guard for the first time in his pro career.
- Appeared in four regular season games and two playoff games during his rookie campaign.
- Played the majority of his regular season snaps (52) in a Week 16 victory at Minnesota in 2021.

College: Jackson was one of nine seniors named to the Iowa Hawkeye's 2020 leadership group and started all 42 games he played in during his collegiate career. Jackson was the only player in the 2021 NFL Draft to start more than 40 games at left tackle. During his 2020 senior campaign, Jackson started all eight games and was a Second-team All-America selection by AFCA, Third-Team All-America by Phil Steele, and voted First-Team All-Big Ten by league coaches and media. In 2019, Jackson started 10 games and was voted Second-team All-Big Ten by Phile Steele and Third-Team All-Big Ten by league coaches and players despite missing three games due to injury. He started 12 games during the 2018 campaign and earned Second-Team All-Big Ten by league coaches and media as well as Second-Team All-Big Ten by the Associated Press and Phil Steele. After redshirting in 2016, Jackson's 2017 season included honors such as Academic All-Big Ten, First-Team freshman All-America by FWAA and Big-Ten Conference All-Freshman team by BTN.com.

Personal: Jackson was born in Windsor, Ontario, Canada and majored in sports medicine at the University of Iowa. He was one of two players on the Iowa football team from Detriot, MI and was coached by Lou Beatty at Renaissance High School. He remained committed to Iowa throughout the recruiting process despite a late push from Michigan.

Waived by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (8/31/22)...Selected by the Buccaneers in the fifth round (161st overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft.

NFL Career:

* Has appeared in 34 regular season games in his five-year NFL career and registered 50 receptions for 537 yards and three touchdowns.

* Saw action in one game during the 2023 season and recorded two receptions for eight yards and one touchdown.

* Caught 36 passes for 360 yards in his second season with the Buccaneers in 2021. Saw action in two postseason contests and notched five catches for 45 yards.

* Set career-highs against the Saints in 2021 with five catches for 65 yards.

* Appeared in 14 games his rookie season in 2020 and hauled in 12 catches for 169 yards and two touchdowns. Played in four postseason contests that year and recorded two catches for 31 yards.

College: Johnson played in 49 career games at Minnesota and recorded 213 catches for 3,305 yards and 33 touchdowns. His catch mark ranks second in school history and his yards and touchdowns rank first in school history. He caught a pass in 36 straight games, which is the second-longest streak in program history. His 16 career 100-yard receiving games is a school record. In 2019, Johnson registered seven straight 100-yard receiving performances, a school record. He also tied the school record the year prior with four straight 100-yard receiving outputs and became the first Gopher ever to do so in conference play. Johnson set single-season records in 2019 for receptions (86), receiving yards (1,318) and receiving touchdowns (13). Johnson also had three contests with three receiving touchdowns, a school record. He is the only receiver in school history to have two 1,000 yard seasons (2018 and 2019). His senior season, he started all 13 games and averaged 101.4 receiving yards per game and caught a touchdown in the final seven games of the season. He was named All-Big Ten First-Team for the second consecutive year. As a junior in 2018, he started all 13 games and became an All-Big Ten First-Team selection for the first time in his college career, becoming the first Gopher to receive that honor since 2009. Johnson started the first 10 games of the 2017 season before missing the final two with an injury. He still led Minnesota with 35 receptions for 677 yards and seven touchdowns. His receiving yard mark was the fifth-most ever by a Minnesota sophomore, while his seven touchdowns were the second-most ever by a sophomore. He was an All-Big Ten honorable mention that season. He played in all 13 games as a freshman in 2016 and started in one contest. He hauled in 14 catches for 141 yards and one touchdown.

Personal: He attended Minneapolis North High School, where he was a three-year letterwinner and played quarterback and defensive back for the Polars. He led them to an 11-2 record and a 7-1 mark in conference play in 2015. As a senior, he led the team to a state championship appearance and threw for 2,606 yards and 36 touchdowns, while totaling 1,100 yards and 20 touchdowns on the ground. He averaged a touchdown every six snaps taken in high school and added three interceptions at defensive back. He was invited to play in the Semper Fidelis All-American Bowl after his senior season. As a junior, he threw for seven touchdowns and added 12 tackles, including three tackles for loss and a fumble recovery on defense before earning 2014 Third-Team All-State honors. As a sophomore, he threw for 1,986 yards and 24 touchdowns to go along with 688 yards and 10 touchdowns rushing. Johnson also played basketball and led the school to a state championship as a senior. He was a three-star prospect by Rivals, Scout, 247 Sports and ESPN. Rivals ranked him as the no.3 prospect in the state of Minnesota.

NFL Career:

- Made NFL debut in Week 5 against the Cowboys in 2022.
- Played in two games, primarily on special teams.

College: Appeared in 46 games at Appalachian State with 112 tackles (77 solo), six interceptions, and 25 passes defensed over three seasons starting at cornerback. He earned First-Team All-Sun Belt honors in each of his last three seasons for the Mountaineers. App State appeared in four bowl games and won three in his four playing seasons, while also appearing in three Sun Belt Championship Games with two wins. Jolly started all nine games he played in during his senior season. He allowed just 19 receptions and no touchdowns while being targeted 40 times, with the long reception against him covering 33 yards. He was an East-West Shrine Bowl pick and First-Team All-Sun Belt selection. During the 2020 season, Jolly started all 12 games and finished with 41 tackles, six pass breakups, two tackles for loss, half a sack and one forced fumble. Jolly was a Preseason All-American via Walter Camp (First-Team), USA TODAY Sports (Second-Team), CBS Sports (Second-Team), Sporting News (Second-Team), Street and Smith (Second-Team), PFF College (Third-Team) and Phil Steele (Fourth-Team) selections. He was named to the preseason watch list for Nagurski Trophy and Bednarik Award, and was the highest-graded returning Group of Five defender via PFF College. During his sophomore season, Jolly regisered a career-high 45 tackles (28 solo). He also had five interceptions to tie for the Sun Belt lead, and tied for first place nationally with two pick-six touchdowns. According to PFF College, his overall grade of 91.7 tied LSU's Derek Stingley Jr. for No.1 among 496 qualifying FBS cornerbacks. Heading into bowl season, Jolly ranked first nationally in coverage against out routes and fourth nationally on passes thrown in less than 2.5 seconds. He appeared in 11 games during his redshirt freshman season, contributing in special teams and at cornerback. He made his collegiate debut against Charlotte on September 8, 2018 and his first start against East Tennessee State on August 31, 2019.

Personal: A two-star prospect by Scout.com as a cornerback, Jolly played at Stephenson High School in Stone Mountain, Ga. He was named most valuable defensive back as a junior and a senior. Jolly established himself as a premier corner as a junior with four interceptions, 12 pass breakups and 45 tackles to earn All-Region 6-4A honors and All-Dekalb County, earning a spot on the Georgia All-Star Team as a starting CB. Jolly saw little action on his side as a senior, recording an interceptions, 10 pass breakups and 45 tackles. His father played football at Middle Tennessee, while his brother (Shannon) ran track at Georgia and his sister (Teryn) played soccer at Alabama.

College: As a junior in 2020, Jones played middle linebacker and was the vocal leader of the defense at South Carolina. He was named one of four permanent team captains and earned Fourth-Team All-SEC honors from Phil Steele. He started each of the first nine games and led the team in tackles for the second-consecutive year with 86 stops. He averaged 9.6 tackles per game, which ranked sixth in the SEC, and had four games with at least 11 tackles during the season. He notched a career-best 19 tackles at LSU, the most tackles in a game by a Gamecock since Roy Hart had 19 stops at Nebraska in 1987. He almost matched that total with 18 tackles at Ole Miss and had two of the top 17 single-game tackle performances recorded at the FBS level in 2020. Jones was one of 16 semifinalists for the Butkus Award after recording 199 tackles in just 26 games over the three seasons. He made 21 starts with 10.5 tackles for loss and a pair of sacks, two interceptions, five pass breakups, six quarterback hurries, three forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. During his sophomore campaign in 2019, Jones started all 12 games at middle linebacker, making a team-high 97 tackles, 20 more than anyone else on the squad. He ranked fourth in the SEC with 8.1 tackles per game and had 5.5 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack, two interceptions, five pass breakups, a quarterback hurry and a forced fumble. As a true freshman, Jones played in five games and was credited with 16 tackles (10 solo).

Personal: Jones graduated from Ware County High School in Georgia in December of 2017 where he logged 112 total tackles (70 solo) and six tackles for loss as a senior for the Gators. He also accounted for 2.0 sacks, three forced fumbles and five QB hurries in his final campaign. Jones was a First-Team all-state Class AAAAA selection and was the 59th-ranked outside linebacker prospect in the country and 84th-best overall prospect in Georgia, according to 247 Sports' national composite rankings. He was named to the PrepStar All-Southeast Region team. Jones majored in public health.

43 Joshua Karty

Kicker • Stanford • Burlington, NC

NFL Exp.: 1 (1st Rams)
Birth Date: 3/7/2002
Acquired: D6-'24

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round (209 overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft (4/27/24).

College: As a senior at Stanford in 2023, Karty was the recipient of the Jim Reynolds Award and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award. He also was a PFF All-America First-Team and an All-Pac 12 First-Team selection. Karty was a three-time Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honoree and converted 23-of-27 field goal attempts and did not miss an extra point all season. His 23 field goals made is the most in a single season in program history and he finished his Stanford career with 51 field goals made, which is the fifth-most in program history. Karty also holds the highest all-time field goal percentage as a Cardinal (85%). He made three field goals in four games and 11 of his 23 field goals made in 2023 were from 40+ yards. As a junior in 2022, Karty was the recpient of the Irving S. Zeimer Award, the Phil Moffatt Award, and was a Lou Groza Award finalist. He also received Third-Team All-America honors (AP) and was voted First-Team All-Pac 12. The four-time conference Special Teams Player of the Week was the first Stanford player to win the award three times in a single season since 1987, and he was the first Pac-12 specialist to earn the award three times in a single season since the 2018 season. Karty led the Cardinals in points scored in 2022 and went a perfect 18-for-18 on field goal attempts. His 61-yard field goal set a new school record and was five yards longer than any other field goal made at the FBS level that season and was the second-longest field goal in Pac-12 history and longest in a conference game. In 2021 as a sophomore, Karty was a Third-Team All-Pac 12 selection (PFF) and was a Phil Moffatt Award recipient after scoring 57 points on the year. He played in one game as a freshman in 2020.

Personal: Karty was the top-ranked kicker in the 2020 recruiting class, a two-time all-state selection, a three-time all-conference selection and a three-time all-conference academic honoree in high school. He set his high school record in touchbacks and the longest made field goal of 52 yards. Karty also competed in track, tennis and swimming in high school. His father was a rower at Stanford and his brother, Jacob, is a state champion in soccer and a World Champion for robotics.

College: Appeared in 36 games (29 starts) for the Dartmouth Big Green. As a senior, Kaskey was named a Second-Team All-America offensive lineman by STATS and the AFCA. He was selected to the All-America Third-Team by the Associated Press and Phil Steele. Kaskey was named to the Division I All-New England Team. He was a unanimous selection for the All-Ivy League First-Team. Kaskey was the recipient of the program's Frank Hershey Award as the varsity player who possesses a genuine zest for life, a strong, upbeat attitude, and a sincere desire to win because of his dedication and love for the game, his team, and college. He started all 10 games at left tackle and was a keystone of the offensive line that helped Dartmouth finish the season 15th in the FCS coaches poll as the offense ranked 11th among FCS teams in rushing (254.7 yards per game), sixth in fewest sacks allowed (7) and eighth in team passing efficiency. The Big Green also ranked in the top 20 nationally in scoring offense at 34 points per game, as well as third- and fourth-down conversion percentage.

In 2017, he was named All-Ivy League First-Team on the offensive line. Kaskey was the recipient of the team's Jake Crouthamel Award, given to the underclassman who has contributed the most to the success of the team. He started all 10 games at left tackle and anchored an offensive line that allowed Dartmouth to rank in the top half of the Ivy League in scoring, rushing, passing, and total yards, joining the conference champion (Yale) as the only teams that could make that claim. The Big Green ranked third in each of those categories in league play only. His blocking also helped the Green rank 15th nationally in fewest sacks allowed (one per game), plus paved the way for two backs to be among the top seven in league rushing yards per game in the Ancient Eight. As a sophomore, he was named All-Ivy League honorable mention on the offensive line. Kaskey missed the season opener with an injury before returning to the field for the 35-10 win at Holy Cross. He started each of the final eight games at left tackle and was a big part of the line that yielded the fewest sacks (13) in the Ivy League while protecting the passing game that produced the most yards (2,787). The Big Green offense racked up nearly 410 yards per game, second only to co-champion Princeton. The 615 yards gained against Brown were the most in 90 years by a Big Green squad. In 2015, he made an impact quickly during his rookie campaign, seeing action in eight games with one start against Columbia. Kaskey was a part of the regular rotation on the line, predominantly at left tackle.

Personal: In high school, he was chosen to the All-Chicagoland First-Team and also was named to the all-conference and all-area First-Teams and all-state honorable mention. He captained the squad as a senior. Kaskey also competed in track, lacrosse, and wrestling in high school. He is the son of Bruce and Christy Kaskey and has a pair of brothers and a sister. Kaskey's uncle F.J. Fee played for Coach Teevens' 1991 Ivy League champion. His father Bruce helped the Division III powerhouse Ithaca Bombers to the 1984 ECAC Championship.

6 Derion Kendrick

Defensive Corner • Georgia • Rock Hill, SC

NFL Exp.: 3 (3rd Rams)

- Led all Rams rookies in tackles (43), total snaps (506), defensive snaps (467), and starts (6).
- Made his first career start in his NFL Debut against the Cardinals in Week 3.

College: Kendrick started his college career at Clemson after being a top 30 overall recruit and top-five receiver prospect nationally. He was a reserve receiver in 15 games as a true freshman. In 2019, Kendrick transitioned to cornerback where he earned the starting role. He was credited with 51 tackles (3.0 for loss), six pass breakups, and two interceptions. This earned him a spot on the All-ACC Second-team. In his last season at Clemson, Kendrick credited 20 tackles (one for loss), six pass breakups, 1.0 sack, an interception, and a fumble recovery. He finished with First-Team All-ACC. After his third season, Kendrick transferred to Georgia and played in all 15 games as a wide receiver and on special teams in the Cotton Bowl and National Championship Game. He is a two-time CFP national champion (2018, 2021). In his 2019 season, Kendrick was Second-Team All-ACC and was Second Team All-SEC in 2021. He was awarded First-Team All-ACC (2020) and Orange Bowl MVP (2021).

Personal: Before his collegiate career, Kendrick was awarded Gatorade Player of the Year in South Carolina. He was rated No. 26 in the nation by 247Sports, No.30 player by Rivals, and No. 62 player by ESPN prior to starting his collegiate career. Kendrick attended South Pointe High School where he led his team to win the state title for four consecutive years. He was the recipient of the Don Leebern, Jr., and Don Leebern III Football Scholarship. In 2018, Kendrick played for the U.S. Army All-American Game and was a finalist for the Army Player of the Year Award. At Clemson and Georgia, Kendrick majored in Parks, Recreation, and Tourism.

26 Kamren Kinchens

Defensive Back • Miami (FL) • Miami, FL

Ht./Wt.: 6-0/205
NFL Exp.: 1 (1st with Rams)
Birth Date: 9/29/2002
Acquired: D3-'24

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the third round (99th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft (4/26/24).

College: Kinchens earned First-Team All-ACC honors for the second consecutive season as a junior in 2023 and was one of the team's top defensive performers. He started all 10 games he played in and finished third on the team in tackles. Kinchens also led the team with five interceptions and moved into the top-10 in program history with 11 career interceptions. He became the first player since Sean Taylor to record double-digit interceptions over the course of his Miami career. In 2022 as a sophomore, Kinchens delivered an All-American season and was named First-Team All-ACC. He started all 12 games and led the team in tackles to go along with a team-high six interceptions. Kinchens recorded a program-tying three interceptions, including a 99-yard interception return for a touchdown against Georgia Tech that season. As a true freshman in 2021, Kinchens saw action in all 12 games and started the final five. He finished fourth on the team in tackles.

Personal: Kinchens was a four-star prospect, according to Rivals and 247Sports Composite, and a three-star prospect, according to ESPN, coming out of high school. As a junior, he recorded 74 tackles, three tackles for loss, nine interceptions, and returned a punt for a touchdown. He helped Miami Northwestern win Florida Class 5A stat championships from 2017-19. Kinchens chose Miami over schools such as Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Florida, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Ohio State, Ole Miss, Oregon, Utah and many others.

NFL Career:

- Became the fourth player in NFL history to win the receiving Triple Crown by leading the NFL in receptions, receiving yards, and receiving TDs during the 2021 season. He led the second place receivers in all three categories by some of the widest margins of any receiving Triple Crown winner. He was the first modern-era triple-crown receiver without a previous Pro Bowl appearance.
- Was named Super Bowl LVI MVP, the 2021 NFL Offensive Player of the Year and was voted to his first Pro Bowl. Kupp also was voted First-Team All-Pro.
- Was named a nominee for the Walter Payton Man of the Year Award in 2023 and named the team's Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award winner.
- With 111 yards on eight catches in Week 15 of 2023, he posted his 32nd career 100-plus yard receiving game and ranks third in franchise history.
- With a touchdown in Week 14 of 2023 against the Baltimore Ravens, he passed Henry Ellard for fourth-most in franchise history (49).
- Before he was sidelined following Week 10 in 2022, Kupp ranked second in the NFL in receptions (72), third in yards-after-the-catch (422), and fifth in receiving first downs (42), receiving touchdowns (6), and receiving yards (812).
- His 1,947 receiving yards in the 2021 season ranks second all-time in NFL history behind Calvin Johnson (1,964). His 145 receptions in 2021 season also rank second all-time behind Michael Thomas (149). Kupp tied Thomas for first place all-time in red zone receptions (27) and ranks fifth all-time in YAC in a single season (846).
- He ranks fifth all-time in first down receptions in a single season (89).
- Kupp sits alone as the only player who has caught at least 130 passes, had 1,800-plus yards and scored at least 20 touchdowns in a season (including playoffs).
- In the Rams' four postseason wins in 2021, he set a postseason record in receptions (33) for 478 yards and six touchdowns. His postseason recieving yards rank second behind Larry Fitzgerald when he recorded 564 receiving yards and seven touchdowns in 2018.
- In the 2021 regular season and postseason, Kupp totaled 178 catches, 2,425 yards and 22 touchdowns. He's the first player in NFL history with more than 2,000 receiving yards in a season, breaking the previous record of 1,977 yards held by Fitzgerald.
- He's only the fourth wideout in NFL history with 100 catches, 1,500 yards, and 15 touchdowns in a season (joining Jerry Rice, Marvin Harrison, and Randy Moss).
- Set a Rams' franchise records in single-season receptions with 145 and receiving yards with 1,947 in 2021.
- Kupp's 118 receiving yards during Week 18 of the 2021 season marked the 13th straight game with 90 or more receiving yards, an NFL record. That game also marked his 22nd career 100-yard receiving game, which tied for fourth in franchise history.

PRO BOWL 2021

- Passed 5,000 career receiving yards with a 123-yard performance in Week 14 of the 2021 season. Kupp became just the fifth Rams WR to reach the 5,000-yard mark.
- Eclipsed 100 yards receiving 11 times in 17 games in 2021. Kupp recorded at least 100 yards receiving in three consecutive games during Weeks 6, 7 and 8, then again in four consecutive games from Week 13 through 16. Only HOF WR Isaac Bruce had a streak of four consecutive 100-yard games, as well as a separate streak of six consecutive 100-yard games in his Rams tenure.
- Has been named a team captain the past three seasons.
- Became the first player in the Super Bowl era (since 1970) with at least 800 yards and nine touchdowns in his first seven games of a season.
- Through seven weeks of the regular season in 2021, Kupp tied Davante Adams' record with the most games with 9+ receptions, 90+ receiving yards and 2+ TDs.
- Became the first Rams player with two games of at least 150 yards and two touchdowns since Isaac Bruce did it in 1995. The only other receiver besides Bruce and Kupp with two games of 150 yards and two touchdowns was Elroy Hirsch in 1951.
- Set a career high with 13 receptions in Week 14 of 2021 with 123 receiving yards.
- Has been one of the best receivers drafted in the 2017 NFL Draft, ranking first in touchdowns (40), and first in receptions per regular season game (6.1).
- Led the Rams in receptions (94) and was second in receiving yards (1,161) in 2019. His 2019 campaign marked his first regular season with over 1,000 receiving yards.
- Led the Rams in receiving yards (869) and ranked second in receptions (62) in his rookie season.
- Was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team in 2017.

College: Kupp was a consensus FCS All-American for four-straight seasons and earned First-Team All-America honors on all eight 2016 teams announced. He had a total of 30 All-America honors in four collegiate seasons (all First Team, including nine in 2013, six in 2014, seven in 2015 and eight in 2016). He earned 14 different national player of the year accolades and was a three-time Academic All-America selection. In 2016, Kupp became the first wide receiver and just the fourth player overall in the 54-year history of the Big Sky Conference to earn First-Team All-Big Sky honors four seasons. In 2015, Kupp became only the second wide receiver in 42 years to capture the Big Sky Conference Offensive MVP Award, then became one of only 10 repeat winners in league history in 2016. Kupp was also a two-time team co-captain, honored four times on the Big Sky Conference All-Academic team and was twice selected as an Academic All-Star by the FCS Athletic Director's Association. He was honored as Big Sky Conference Player of the Week six times in his career – four times on offense and twice on special teams. He established 15 FCS, 11 Big Sky and 26 EWU records in his illustrious 52-game Eastern career (all as a starter), and added a collegiate all-division mark. His 6,464 yards, 428 receptions, 73 touchdown catches, 124.3 average yards per game and 1.40 average touchdowns per game were all FCS records.

Personal: Attended Davis High School where he was a two-way All-State selection and earned First-Team 4A All-State honors as a defensive back and honorable mention accolades as a wide receiver from the Associated Press. Kupp finished his senior season with 60 receptions for 1,059 yards (17.7 per catch) and 18 touchdowns. He even scored 22 total touchdowns to set a school record. His parents are Craig and Karin Kupp, who were both inducted into the Pacific Lutheran University Hall of Fame in 2003. His father was a fifth-round draft pick by the New York Giants in 1990 and played in 1991 for the Phoenix Cardinals and the Dallas Cowboys. His grandfather, Jake Kupp, was an offensive lineman for the University of Washington and was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the 1964 NFL draft and played from 1964-75 with stints with the Washington Football Team, New Orleans Saints and Atlanta Falcons. He was named to the NFL All-Rookie team and was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 1991. Cooper earned his bachelor's degree in economics. He and his wife, Anna, have one son.

Community Impact: Kupp has beed the Honorary Chair for the team's Annual Taste of the Rams event that raises funds to benefit the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank which provides nutritious meals to those experiencing food insecirity in Los Angeles County. Last year, Kupp also donated more than $30,000 worth of Nike product to support Inglewood Unified School District students and has participated in a five-week character development session with youth from Operation Progress. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Kupp made a $21,000 donation to purchase 84,000 meals for food banks in the Yakima and Richland areas of Washington, the LA Regional Food Bank and Food Share Ventura County. In 2022, Kupp chose to represent The Call of Duty Endowment during the NFL's My Cause My Cleats Campaign. NFL Career:
- Has appeared in 17 games (two starts) and recorded 41 carries for 150 yards and 10 receptions for 51 yards.
- Despite missing eight games due to injury, he recorded single-season career-highs in carries (32), rushing yards (129), rushing long (10), and rushing first downs (four) in 2023.
- Made his lone start of 2023 in Week 18 and totaled a single-game career-high of 13 carries for 52 rushing yards.
- Recorded nine rushes for 21 yards and five catches for 29 yards in 2021.
- In his lone start against the 49ers, Rivers had eight carries for 21 yards and four catches for 15 yards.
- Made his NFL debut in Week 6 against the Panthers and his first start against the 49ers in Week 8.

College: In his 53 games with the Fresno State Bulldogs, Rivers made 41 starts and left as the record holder in career touchdowns scored (52), rushing touchdowns (40), receiving touchdowns by a running back (12), receiving yards by a running back (1,417) and receptions by a running back (150). He also ranked second in career rushing attempts (672), third in program history with 3,417 career rushing yards, and fourth with 5,208 career all-purpose yards. He finished his senior season with 788 rushing yards on 162 attempts and 34 receptions for 364 yards. He totaled seven touchdowns, five rushing and two receiving, and 1,187 all-purpose yards. He was a preseason All-Mountain West selection, named to the Paul Hornung Award watch list, Maxwell Award watch list, Doak Walker Award watch list , and was a First-Team preseason selection by Athlon Sports and Phil Steele. Rivers received an invite to the 2022 NFLPA All-Star game and to the 2022 NFL Scouting Combine. He helped Fresno State to two wins over ranked opponents, both on the road. It was the first time Fresno State defeated two Top 25 opponents in a season for the first time since 2004, and the first time both wins came on the road in the 100-year history of the program. During the 2020 season, Rivers was named First-Team All-Mountain West and was the only Mountain West player to score four touchdowns in a game. He was a Phil Steele All-Mountain West First-Team selection and was named to three national preseason watch lists: Maxwell Award (presented annually to the most outstanding player in college football), Doak Walker Award (celebrates the nation's top running back) and Hornung Award (celebrates the nation's most versatile player). He was named Second-Team All-Mountain West after his junior season and was the Bulldog's leading rusher with 899 yards. He also led the Mountain West with 16 touchdowns. He also had two or more touchdowns in four consecutive games. During his sophomore season, Rivers posted a team-high 10 rushing touchdowns and was the MVP of the Las Vegas Bowl after posting the fourth-most all-purpose yards in school history with 286 (212 rush/41 punt return/33 receiving) in the Bulldogs' win over Arizona State on Dec. 15. He also rushed for 63 yards on 17 carries and scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime against Boise State in the 2018 Mountain West Championship on Dec. 1. Rivers started 7-of-13 games played during his freshman season, the most starts at running back by a Fresno State true freshman since 1984. He made his collegiate debut and his first start against Incarnate Word in 2017.

Personal: Rivers was one of six finalists for Cal-Hi Sports' Mr. Football State Player of the Year as a senior at Freedom High School. He was named the 2016 Bay Valley League's Most Valuable Player, The Mercury News East Bay Offensive Player of the Year, the 2016 MaxPreps All-NorCal Offensive Player of the Year, and the Prep2Prep All-North Coast Section Player of the Year. As a senior, Rivers rushed for 2,239 yards and scored 33 touchdowns. He posted 100-yard plus rushing performances in 11-of-13 games in 2016 and rushed for a school-record 387 yards and seven touchdowns to lift the unbeaten Freedom Falcons past Antioch 65-28. Rivers' seven rushing touchdowns tied a school record previously held by former Oklahoma running back Joe Mixon (2014-16). He led the BVAL with 38 total touchdowns in 2016 and also threw a touchdown pass and caught two TDs in addition to his 33 rushing scores as a senior. Rivers also returned an interception for a touchdown in a win over Liberty, and returned two kickoffs for scores, including one in the CIF Division 1 NorCal final against St. Mary's-Stockton. He guided Freedom to an 11-2 record in 2016 as well as the Bay Valley league championship with a perfect 5-0 record. Rivers was named the 2016 NCS Open Division Runner Up, the 2016 CIF Nor Cal D1AA Runner Up and was named an Impact Player by Junior Prep Sports Football Classic. Born in Castro Valley, CA., Rivers is the son of Ron and Myla. His father is Fresno State's second-leading rusher (3,473) in school history and played at Fresno State from 1991-93. His sister Malia is also a Bulldog alum who completed her senior softball season at Fresno State in 2017.

- He was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after his performance against the Giants in 2019.

College: During his time at Louisiana Tech, Scott appeared in 39 games (seven starts) and recorded 1,840 rushing yards and 14 rushing touchdowns. During his final campaign in 2017, he appeared in all 13 games (six starts) and led the Bulldogs with 1,047 rushing yards. It marked his first season with over 1,000 yards rushing to go along with eight touchdowns on 183 attempts. He rushed for over 100 yards in four games that season and became the 12th Bulldog in program history to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards in a single season. Scott also recorded 20 receptions for 181 receiving yards and one touchdown as well as 10 kickoff returns for 183 yards. His 1,411 all-purpose yards led the team, averaging 108.5 per game. He was named to the Second-Team All Louisiana and was an All-Conference USA honorable mention. As a junior, he played in all 14 games for the Bulldogs, including one start against UTSA. He had 70 carries on the season for 515 yards and six touchdowns. Scott also recorded 11 receptions for 125 receiving yards and 10 kick returns for 199 yards. In 2015, Scott saw action in 11 games and rushed the ball 34 times for 275 yards, while also returning nine kicks for a total of 251 yards. He broke 100 yards rushing in a game for the first time in his career, carrying the ball four times for 106 yards against Arkansas State in the R + L Carrier's New Orleans Bowl. As a redshirt freshman, he played in one game. He redshirted as a true freshman in 2014.

Personal: Scott signed with esports vertical Dignitas and became the first two-sport NFL and Rocket League pro. He earned the status of Grand Champion in Rocket League, which puts him in the top 0.52% of players in the world. Scott attended Zachary High School in Zachary, La, where he was a three-sport athlete and earned letters in football (three), soccer (four) and track (one). He totaled more than 1,500 all-purpose yards and 1,000 yards rushing as a running back in high school. Scott averaged 6.2 yards per carry for the Broncos and scored 17 touchdowns under head coach Neil Weiner. He also won the state championship in powerlifting while at Zachary. Scott was involved in a number of activities in high school, including band, interact club, and guitar club. When he was in sixth grade, he didn't make his middle school football team, so he joined the band to play the trombone. His family has a number of musicians in it, including his younger sister, who composes music and has had her work played at public events. Scott also credits his grandmother, father and aunt as other musicians in the family.

6 Drake Stoops

Wide Receiver • Oklahoma • Norman, OK

Ht./Wt.: 5-10/189
NFL Exp.: R (1st Rams)
Birth Date: 6/19/1999
Acquired: UDFA-'24

Transactions: Signed with the Los Angeles Rams as an undrafted free agent (5/1/24).

College: Stoops appeared in 62 games (31 starts) for the Oklahoma Sooners over a six-year period, recording 164 receptions for 1,876 yards and 17 touchdowns. Stoops was voted to the Big 12 All-Academic team every season of his six-year college career. During his redshirt fifth-year season, Stoops was named to the All-Big 12 First-Team and was one of three finalists for the Burlsworth Trophy finalists (an award given to the nation's most outstanding football player who began his career as a walk-on). He recorded career-highs in receptions (84), receiving yards (962), and touchdowns (10) while starting all 13 games. He finished his senior season as the leading receiver for the Sooners. He ranked second in the Big 12 for receptions and receiving touchdowns, third in receiving yards per game (74.0), and fifth in receiving yards. Stoops notched multiple receptions in every game including at least four catches in 12 contests and six or more catches seven different times. As a redshirt senior in 2022, Stoops finished as a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy (combined academic success, football performance, and exemplary leadership) and appeared in all 13 games (10 starts). He played in all 13 games and made 10 starts (including starts in each of the Sooners' last eight games). Stoops finished the season tied for second on the team with 39 receptions, totaling 393 receiving yards and three touchdowns. He also rushed eight times for 48 yards. Stoops had at least one catch in 12 of the team's 13 games and at least three catches in eight contests (including six of the last seven outings). As a senior in 2021, he saw action in 10 games (two starts). Stoops recorded 16 receptions for 191 yards and two touchdowns. During the pandemic-shortened season in 2020, Stoops played in 10 games (seven starts). He recorded 15 receptions for 219 yards and two touchdowns. As a sophomore in 2019, he saw action in all of the Sooner's 14 games as a reserve receiver and punt returner. Stoops totaled eight receptions for 95 yards. In 2018, Stoops became Okalhoma's first true freshman walk-on to record a catch in the season opener. He went on to play in only two games catching two passes for 16 yards.

Personal: Stoops was a three-star recruit, according to 247Sports and Rivals. He was a two-time First-Team All-State selection by The Oklahoman. Stoops finished his high school career with 201 catches for 3,390 yards and 39 touchdowns. He caught 67 passes for 1,093 yards and 15 scores as a prep senior. Stoops reeled in 86 passes for 1,536 yards and 20 TDs as a junior to help Norman North High School to the Oklahoma state championship game. He chose Oklahoma over the Air Force Academy, Iowa, Memphis, Ohio, and Western Kentucky. Stoops is the son of OU's all-time coaching wins leader, Bob Stoops. He was awarded an athletics scholarship on the field following the 2021 spring game. He was OU's 2022 and 2023 nominee for the William V. Campbell Trophy. Stoops graduated from Oklahoma with an undergraduate degree in communication and a master's degree in human relations.

Acquired: D7-'23 (No. 234 Overall)

Transactions: Activated from Los Angeles Rams injured reserve list (11/25/23)...Placed on injured reserve list (6/12/23)... Selected by the Rams in the 7th round (234th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.
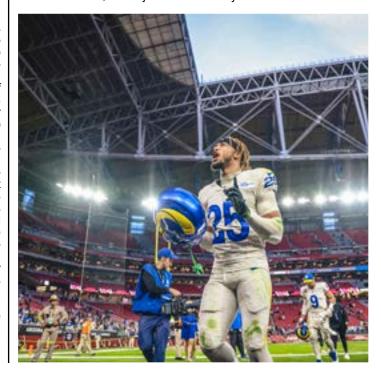

NFL Career:
- Made his regular season debut in Week 1 against the Seattle Seahawks.
- Appeared in eight games and recorded four tackles (all solo) during his rookie season.
- Made his postseason debut in the Wild Card Round against the Lions in his rookie season and recorded one solo tackle.

College: During his time at Oklahoma State, Taylor appeared in 51 games (26 starts) and finished his career ranked in the top ten active FBS players with three career non-offensive touchdowns. He also participated in the 2023 Reese's Senior Bowl. During his final campaign in 2022, he was named to the 2022 Walter Camp All-America Second-Team after having a career year. He was also named a Paycom Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist, First-Team All-Big 12 selection by both the coaches and the Associated Press, and an honorable mention for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Taylor finished the season ranked third among all FBS players with six interceptions and third with 6.2 solo tackles per game. He led the team with a career-best 99 tackles (80 solo) and 3.5 tackles for loss. As a junior in 2021, he appeared in all 14 games (13 starts) and was named a honorable mention All-Big 12 selection by the league's head coaches. Against Texas, Taylor had an 85-yard interception for a touchdown, the fourth-longest interception return in program history and the longest since 2001. He was the fifth-leading tackler on the team with 48 tackles (37 solo) and 6.5 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, four pass breakups, three quarterback hurries, and a forced fumble. During the 2020 season, he appeared in all 11 games rotating on defense and special teams. He was named Second-Team Academic All-Big 12 honoree. Against Texas Tech, he earned OSU's Special Teams Player of the Game with a 48-yard onside kick return for a touchdown, the longest play of OSU's season and was OSU's first kickoff return touchdown since Tyreek Hill in 2014. He finished the season with 12 total tackles (nine solo) and ranked second in the Big 12 and fifth in the FBS. As a redshirt freshman in 2019, he appeared in all 13 games, mainly on special teams. Taylor totaled 16 tackles (12 solo) and one tackle for loss. As a true freshman in 2018, he redshirted and appeared in one game.

Personal: A 2018 graduate of Carl Albert High School in Oklahoma City, OK., Taylor helped lead his team to his second state championship in 2017, with a perfect 14-0 record. As a senior, he was named the 2017 OKPreps Class 5A Player of the Year. On offense he caught 42 passes for nearly 800 yards and 14 touchdowns, and finished with nine interceptions on defense. He earned All-State and district MVP. Taylor also played basketball and helped his team to the state semifinalists as a junior. During his time at OSU, he majored in university studies.

He shared the Tiger Pride Defensive Team MVP honors. As a senior, he started all 15 games and had 82 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss, 10.5 sacks, 13 pressures and four passes defensed. His 10.5 sacks marked the highest total in school history by a defensive tackle, breaking the mark of 10.0 held by Jim Stuckey, William Perry and Michael Dean Perry. In 2015, he earned First-Team All-SEC honors from the media and Second-Team honors from the coaches after recording 69 tackles, eight tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, eight pressures and an INT (returned 15 yards for his first career TD) in 15 games played (14 starts). As a redshirt sophomore in 2014, Watkins had 13 tackles, two tackles for losses, and four pressures in 11 games. In 2013, he had 11 tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and a pressure in three games before receiving a redshirt following a car accident that ended his season. As a freshman in 2012, Watkins notched 16 tackles, a tackle for a loss, and three pressures in nine games.

Personal: Watkins was ranked as the #8 defensive lineman in the nation out of Chase (Forest City, NC) High School by Rivals where he logged 15.0 sacks, five forced fumbles and an INT as a senior. He had 50 tackles, 29 tackles for loss and 14.0 sacks as a junior. Watkins played in the U.S. Army All-American game and the Shrine Bowl. In addition to starring on the football field, Watkins averaged over 21 points and 10 rebounds per game for Chase's basketball team. He earned a bachelor's degree in Sociology.

88 Jordan Whittington

Wide Receiver • Texas • Cuero, TX

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/204
NFL Exp.: 1 (1st Rams)
Birth Date: 10/1/2000
Acquired: D6-'24

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round (213 overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

College: Whittington appeared in 41 games (25 starts) during his five-year collegiate career at Texas. He ranks 12th in program history in receptions (141) and 14th in receiving yards (1,757). He is a two-time honorable mention All-Big 12 selection by the league's coaches and converted from running back after the 2019 season. Whittington also was named to the Academic All-Big 12 First-Team on three occasions and Academic All-Big 12 Second Team once. He is a five-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll. As a senior in 2023, Whittington was an All-Big 12 honorable mention and appeared in all 14 games with eight starts. He notched 42 catches for 505 yards and one touchdown to go along with 18 rushing yards. In 2022, Whittington played in 13 games (12 starts) and recorded career-highs in receptions (50) and receiving yards (652) to go along with one touchdown. He earned All-Big 12 honorable mention by the league's coaches that season. As a sophomore in 2023, he played in eight games (three starts) and hauled in 26 passes for 377 yards and a career-best three touchdowns. He missed four games due to injury that season. Whittington apeared in five games (two starts) as a redshirt freshman in 2020 and notched 21 receptions for 206 yards and rushes three times for 50 yards and one touchdown. He redshirted as a freshman in 2019 and played in the season opener before missing the remainder of the season after re-aggravating a groin injury sustained in high school.

Personal: Whittington earned all-state honors as a wide receiver, defensive back, kick returner, all-purpose player and in academics during his dime in high school at Cuero. He was selected to the 2019 All-American Bowl and posted over 3,000 receiving yards, 5,400 all-purpose yards, and 60 total touchdowns over his last three high school seasons. Whittington was the utility player on the 2018 First-Team "Tops in Texas" and to the Super Team as a receiver by Dave Campbell's Texas Football. He also was selected Second-Team 4A All-State as a defensive back by the Associated Press and received honorable mention 4A Academic ALl-State honors. Whitting set a Texas high school championship game record with 334 yards rushing on 28 carries, breaking the previous mark set by former Longhorn running Back Jonathan Gray, while also breaking Eric Dickerson's 4A record. He also tied the championship game record with five rushing touchdowns, guiding Cuero to their first state title in 31 years. Whitting also played basketball in high school and is the third-youngest of 10 siblings. His older brother, Quincey, played running back at SMU and his uncle, Arthur, played at SMU and won a Super Bowl with the Oakland Raiders.

- In Week 12 against Arizona in 2023, he became the first Rams player with 200 scrimmage yards and two touchdowns in a game since Todd Gurley in 2018. He also became the fourth player in Rams history with 100+ rushing yards and two receiving touchdowns in a game, joining Gurley (2017), Cleveland Gary (1992) and Eric Dickerson (1983). Williams became the first player in NFL history with at least 140 yards rushing, six catches, 60+ receiving yards, and multiple touchdowns in a single game.
- Recorded a single-game career-high of three rushing touchdowns in Week 17 against the Giants.
- Recorded a rushing touchdown in three consecutive games for the first time in his career from Weeks 15-17.
- Led the Rams in rushing in every game he played in during 2023 season.
- Finished the season ranked in the top 15 in the NFL in rushing touchdowns, rushing yards, yards per rush (5.0), rushing long (56) and rushing first downs (62).
- Was the first player in NFL history to play in consecutive games against the same opponent and have 150+ scrimmage yards in each of them.
- Rushed for 100+ yards twice in three weeks during the 2023 campaign.
- Appeared in 10 games in his rookie season and recorded 139 rushing yards on 35 carries (4.0 yds/rush).
- Contributed in the pass game with nine receptions for 76 yards. He hauled in 75% of his targeted pass attempts.

College: As a junior in 2021, Williams appeared in 12 games (12 starts) and tallied 204 carries for 1,002 yards and a career-best 14 touchdowns. He also set career-highs in catches (42) and receiving yards (359), and receiving touchdowns (three). He eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second straight season, becoming the first Notre Dame running back to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons since 2005, and the fifth Irish back in program history to accomplish the feat. That season Williams also notched seven-straight games with a rushing touchdown and had three games with multiple rushing touchdowns. He was a team captain, a Paul Hornung Award Finalist, a Doak Walker Award candidate, a Phil Steele All-American honorable mention, and Phil Steele All-Independent First-Team honoree. In his first-career start at running back as a sophomore in 2020, Williams recorded 112 rushing yards on 19 carries and two touchdowns, with two receptions for 93 yards. He eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the first time in his career and was the first Notre Dame player since at least 1996 to hit the 90-yard mark in both rushing and receiving yards in a single game. He also had the most all-purpose yards (205) among FBS players in Week 1. Williams saw action in 12 games (12 starts) and rushed 211 times for 1,125 yards and 13 touchdowns. He averaged a career-best 93.8 yards rushing per game to go along with 35 catches for 313 yards and one touchdown. In a contest against Duke, Williams rushed for 185 yards, which was the fourth-highest in a single game by any ACC player that season, and the most by any freshman or sophomore ACC player that season. It was also the highest total for a Notre Dame player since 2018. Against Clemson, he became the second Irish player to rush for three touchdowns in a single game that season. In the CFP Semifinal, Williams notched his 13th rushing score of the season, the most by an Irish running back since 1998. He tied for ninth all-time in single-season rushing touchdowns among all players in Irish history. He was a FWAA Freshman of the Year Finalist, a member of the FWAA Freshman All-America team, an All-ACC Second-Team honoree, and was named Associated Press Second-Team All-ACC. Williams also was named ACC Rookie of the Year, a Doak Walker Award Finalist, and a FWAA Freshman of the Year Finalist. As a freshman in 2019, Williams saw action in the first four contests and rushed four times for 26 yards and caught one pass for three yards. He also returned a pair of kickoffs for 35 yards.

Personal: Williams' father, Larry, was a linebacker at Northern Illinois and his uncle James Gregory was a linebacker that won a national title at Alabama. During his time at St. John Vianney High School, Williams was ranked the No. 22 running back nationally and the No. 6 player from Missouri by 247Sports.com. In 2018, Williams earned the title of Missouri Football Coaches Association First-Team All-State after he registered 2,035 rushing yards, 725 receiving yards and 40 total touchdowns as a senior. He led St. John Vianney to the 2018 Class 5 Missouri State Championship and was responsible for 354 total yards, including a state championship game record 289 yards rushing. He notched 2,035 rushing yards, 725 receiving yards and 40 total touchdowns as a senior in 2018.

College: During his two seasons at Tennessee, Young appeared in 24 games (22 starts) and totaled 83 tackles (42 solo), 23.5 tackles for loss, 12.5 sacks, 22 quarterback hurries, and one interception. During his final campaign in 2022, he earned All-SEC Second-Team by the Associated Press, All-SEC First-Team by league coaches, and participated in the 2023 Reese's Senior Bowl, as well as the 2023 NFL Combine. He started all 13 games and led the Vols with 7.0 sacks, 12 tackles for loss, and 14 quarterback hurries. He ranked in the top five in the SEC with 42 pressures by Pro Football Focus, and tied for sixth in the SEC in sacks and eighth in tackles for loss. Against LSU, Young led the pass rush with five tackles and a career-high 2.5 sacks, tying the most by any player in the SEC for the season, earning SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week. He also earned SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week against Pittsburgh, becoming the first Vol to earn the honor since 2018. As a junior in 2021 he transferred from Georgia Military Junior College and became one of the top edge rushers in the SEC. He appeared in 11 games (eight starts) and tied as the team leader in sacks (5.5) and tackles for loss (11.5). Young ranked second among UT defensive lineman with 46 total tackles (20 solo) and led the team in quarterback hurries (eight), and ranked 15th in the SEC in tackles for loss. Against Purdue he recorded his first interception and a career-high eight tackles. During the 2020 season at Georgia Military JUCO, the season was cancelled due to COVID. As a true freshman in 2019, he appeared in 11 games and totaled 31 tackles, 11.0 tackles for loss and seven sacks for a loss of 46 yards.

Personal: During his time at Georgia Military Junior College, Young was the No. 1 weakside defensive end and No. 11 overall junior college player by 247Sports and was also a member of the ESPN.com JUCO Top 50. He served in the cadet corps while playing football and became the leader of the corp group. Before walking on at GMC he served as an assistant manager at Dollar General for over a year. During his time at Tennessee, Young served in the VOLeaders Academy to engage in the community and create positive social change. He was the recipient of the Dr. John Range Athletic Scholarship and majored in communication studies.

Los Angeles Rams

Community
Outreach

LEVERAGING OUR PLATFORM TO INSPIRE CHANGE AND IMPACT LIVES

The Los Angeles Rams organization recognizes its unique ability to help raise awareness and funds for causes and issues relevant to our fans and community members. The Rams focus substantial resources on efforts to engage and impact the Los Angeles community through a commitment to support youth education and mentoring, promote health and wellness, and help address the issues of poverty. The team also participates in special events to raise awareness and funding for numerous local nonprofit organizations. Since the team has moved back to Southern California, the Rams have partnered with various school districts and nonprofits including After-School All-Stars, Agoura Hills Teen Coalition, American Cancer Society, American Heart Association, American Red Cross, A Place Called Home, Beyond Differences, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Los Angeles, Big Sunday, Boys & Girls Club of Orange County, Cedars-Sinai, Children's Hospital of Los Angeles (CHLA), Children's Miracle Network Extra Life, City Year, Club 21, CollegeSpring, Conejo Valley Unified School District, Covenant House, Educators 4 Excellence, Exceptional Children's Foundation, FirstBook, FOODShare of Ventura County, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles, Habitat for Humanity of Orange County, Habitat for Humanity of Ventura County, Heart of Los Angeles (HOLA), Homeboy Industries, HomeLight Family Living, I Have A Dream Los Angeles, Inglewood Unified School District, Inner City Arts, Green Dot Public Schools, L.A. Watts Rams Designed to bridge the gap between communities of color and law enforcement, the Watts Rams is a coed youth football program coached by Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) officers. Through LAPD's Community Safety Partnership Bureau (CSPB) and Project Blue, community leaders are able to connect with local youth. This unique program allows young student-athletes to see police officers as human beings and mentors, while allowing the officers to get to know the youth and families they serve. Rams head coach Sean McVay and LAPD Officer and former Watts Rams head coach Zarren Thompson announced the partnership at Rams Training Camp in 2019.

 Beyond the game of football, the Rams provide the Watts Rams with educational opportunities, access to players, coaches and staff, and enrichment activities throughout the year. The program also emphasizes character development and community service. More than 150 youths currently participate in the Watts Rams football program's 9U, 10U, 11U, 12U and 13U divisions. The program also features a flag football and cheerleading team.

In December 2023, the Rams hosted the second annual Inspire Change Bowl for the Watts Rams and North East Lincoln Rams youth football and cheerleading programs to celebrate their 2023 seasons. The bowl featured divisional matchups between the Watts Rams and North East Lincoln Rams Mighty Mites, 10U, 12U and 14U teams. At the bowl, Rams Legend and 2023 Pro Football Hall of Fame finalist Torry Holt announced Marc Maye, general manager of the Watts Rams, co-founder of 4wrdProgress and executive director of Project Blue, as the Rams recipient of the NFL's Inspire Change Changemaker Award during a surprise moment during the program. Holt presented Maye with a $10,000 donation courtesy of the NFL Foundation in partnership with the Los Angeles Rams Foundation.

North East Lincoln Rams

In December 2022, the Rams launched a partnership with the North East Lincoln Tigers, a youth football program coached by Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) officers serving youth in the Ramona Gardens public housing development in Boyle Heights, that included renaming the youth football program the North East Lincoln Rams. As part of the partnership, the Rams fund all football components of the program, including uniforms and equipment. The team also provides engagement opportunities with current players, alumni, coaches, scouts and the football operations staff, as well as develop programs that focus on character development and community service to expand their knowledge and ignite their passions beyond the playing field.

Inglewood Rams

The Rams adopted the Inglewood Parks and Recreation Flag Football League in 2019, renaming the program the Inglewood Rams. The league consists of four divisions and 26 teams with over 350 youth participants (ages 7-13). Each team is named after one of the Rams' current players. The Rams fund all football components of the Inglewood Rams program, including uniforms and equipment.

Rams Readers and Ride with Rampage

The Rams kicked off the Rams Readers literacy program and released "Ride with Rampage" in celebration of Read Across America Day, in 2022. "Ride with Rampage" is a book that takes readers on a journey throughout Los Angeles before reaching SoFi Stadium for game day. As part of the announcement, the Rams hosted outdoor reading sessions of the book for local first through third grade students. Additionally, first through third grade students in Inglewood Unified School District (IUSD) and Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) received a copy of Ride with Rampage, Rams Readers crayons and an activity guide. The Rams Readers program encourages students to explore the excitement that reading can provide while helping improve literacy rates among students in the Los Angeles community. Since launching the program, the Rams have visited more than 75 schools and distributed over 14,000 copies of Ride with Rampage to first through third grade students in IUSD and LAUSD. In addition, the program has expanded to serve schools in Arcadia Unified School District, Conejo Valley Unified School District, Las Virgenes Unified School District, Lawndale Elementary School District, Lennox Elementary School District, Simi Valley Unified School District, Pleasant Valley Elementary School District and West Covina Unified School District.

Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship

The Rams created the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship to celebrate Kenny Washington and his impact on the Rams and the NFL. The scholarship provides up to four years of financial support and advisement from Fulfillment Fund (FF), a partner of the Los Angeles Rams, for 13 students from lower-resourced communities who are among the first in their families to pursue post-secondary education. Each student selected embodies Kenny Washington's core values – perseverance in the face of adversity, dedication to their goals and the Los Angeles community, fortitude through breaking barriers and inspiring others around them to make a difference.

The Rams continue to support 13 Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship recipients from 2021 who were recognized at Fulfillment Fund's Sip & Celebrate event at SoFi Stadium. Scholarship recipients received a Kenny Washington-Rams stole, a Rams game ball and a scholarship certificate.

"pLAymakers" Program

In January 2022, the Rams launched the "pLAymakers" program to recognize 13 Angelenos each year for their efforts to fight injustice and pioneer with purpose in their communities. Each "pLAymaker" receives a financial grant from the Rams to support their community work and is recognized on the field during a Rams home game at SoFi Stadium. The "pLAymakers" are also showcased on the Rams website. Since launching the program, the Rams have provided $140,000 (as of May 2024) to local "pLAymakers".

Pathways to Success Mentorship Program

In 2021, the Rams launched the Pathways to Success Mentorship Program, a tailored approach to support professional development and exploration of careers in the sports industry among high school students. The program offers local students mentorship from Rams front office staff members and features virtual workshops designed to discuss goal setting, self-discovery, social etiquette, interview preparation, financial literacy, leveraging technology and building a personal brand. In addition, the Rams host the program participants for multiple in-person sessions including a job-shadowing opportunity with their mentor at a Rams home game at SoFi Stadium.

LA Promise Fund Internship Program

In 2018, in partnership with LA Promise Fund, the Rams created a summer internship program for students from Inglewood Unified School District. In 2019, the Rams broadened the internship program to include additional public high schools from various districts. As part of the internship selection process, interested students submit their resumes and participate in professional interviews with team executives. The Rams' summer internship program exposes students to opportunities in a professional setting, while expanding their skills, experiences and network as they prepare for college or to enter the workforce following high school or college graduation. The LA Promise Fund Internship has provided more than 50 local students, 72 percent of who were first-generation college students, with work-based learning opportunities.

Paid Fellowship Program for Formerly Incarcerated Young Adults

The Rams Fellowship program was created jointly by the Rams and Bank of America and is designed to support young adults from under-resourced communities by providing access to mentorship and workforce experience to develop critical job skills, a professional network and career pathways. Bank of America's funding not only provides monthly stipends to the fellows, but also covers the costs of corporate housing, subsidized transportation, and financial education coaches for each fellow. Over the past three years, both organizations have worked with Brotherhood Crusade, Anti-Recidivism Coalition, Measure of Hearts Foundation and The RightWay Foundation to identify candidates for this unique opportunity.

Kickoff for Charity

Every year, the Rams host a Kickoff for Charity event to celebrate the start of the football season and raise funds to benefit the Los Angeles community. This signature event features a "State of the Rams" address from Rams President Kevin Demoff and a season preview from Rams Head Coach Sean McVay. Kickoff for Charity allows fans and sponsors to be seated at tables alongside their favorite Rams players. Attendees have the chance to bid on unique auction items and receive autographed gifts.

WalkUnitedLA

In May of 2024, the Rams and United Way of Greater Los Angeles teamed up to host the annual WalkUnitedLA 5K at SoFi Stadium. The nation's largest annual event to end homelessness, WalkUnitedLA works to address the intersectional causes of poverty and benefit the diverse community organizations working to build a more equitable Los Angeles. The event included live entertainment featuring Rams Cheerleaders, team mascot Rampage, appearances from the entire 2024 Rams rookie class. In addition, Super Bowl LVI Champion and 2022 Walter Payton Man of the Year, Andrew Whitworth, served as the co-host alongside honorary chairs Steve Avila, Ernest Jones, Kobie Turner and Kyren Williams. 2024's WalkUnitedLA rallied together more than 7,500 Angelenos and raised more than $1.2 million.

Taste of the Rams

In 2016, the Rams introduced Taste of the Rams, an annual event where attendees can sample food from top Los Angeles restaurants, bid on an array of items, and meet the participating chefs as well as Rams players and Cheerleaders. All proceeds from Taste of the Rams benefit the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank in support of their mission to combat hunger in LA County.

In 2023, the Los Angeles Rams and LA Regional Food Bank hosted the eighth annual Taste of the Rams event, presented by Don Lee Farms and Bank of America. The event featured recurring honorary chair, receiver and Super Bowl LVI MVP Cooper Kupp and members of the Rams' 2023 rookie class. ABC7 journalist Sophie Flay hosted guests as the emcee throughout the event. Attendees enjoyed samples of LA's finest food from our city's award-winning chefs. Since the event's inception, Taste of the Rams has raised more than $1.4 million and provided nearly five million meals for food insecure Angelenos.

City Year

City Year is a national organization that places young adult AmeriCorps members alongside teachers in systemically under-resourced schools to improve academic outcomes and provide social and emotional support for students. The City Year "student success coaches" serve full-time for a year. Since 2017, the Rams have funded a City Year student success team to support students at Grape Street Elementary in Watts, Crozier Middle School in Inglewood and Florence Griffith Joyner Elementary in Watts. The Rams also have partnered with City Year on school beautification projects at Dymally High School, Crozier Middle School, George Washington Preparatory High School, Woodworth-Monroe K-8 Academy and Florence Grifith Joyner Elementary School.

As part of the Rams' year-round military appreciation efforts, Salute to Service Week returned for a sixth consecutive year with activities that culminated with the team's Salute to Service game against the Seattle Seahawks last season. Throughout the week, the Rams partnered with veteran service organizations and nonprofits to support the military community and honor, empower and connect with service members, veterans and their families.

The Rams and Living Spaces teamed up to renovate the outdoor patio space at U.S. VETS-Inglewood. Living Spaces provided volunteers to build $15,000 of furniture and Rams Cheerleaders, mascot Rampage and front office staff surprised U.S. Navy Veteran Thomas Woods, Volunteer and Veteran Activities Coordinator at U.S.VETS' Inglewood location, as a Rams pLAymaker for his commitment to serving those who have served their country. The Rams also provided lunch for the veterans in attendance.

The Rams supported Merging Vets & Players (MVP) and their mission to match combat veterans and former professional athletes once their uniforms come off to help them tackle their transitions together and show veterans that they are not alone. Rams players, Rams Cheerleaders, mascot Rampage and front office staff members joined MVP military veterans for an evening of fun at Topgolf. The Rams have supported MVP through a variety of initiatives and efforts since returning to Los Angeles in 2016. In 2022, more than 50 MVP members held the full field American flag during the national anthem of the team's Salute to Service game. The Rams also invited MVP veterans to the team practice facility to participate in workouts and discussions about their transitions.

In continuation of the team's 2023 Salute to Service Week efforts, Rams players Rob Havenstein, Larrell Murchison and Kyren Williams supported Holidays for Heroes Military Appreciation Campaign. In partnership with QuidelOrtho and building on a longstanding partnership with American Red Cross, Rams players, Rams Cheerleaders, Rampage and front office staff visited Woodlake Elementary Community Charter and Calabash Charter Academy to help students personalize holiday cards of appreciation for active-duty military members and veterans.

On Nov. 18, The Rams teamed up with National Military Family Association (NMFA) and The Salvation Army to host a youth football clinic for more than 200 children that come from military families at The Salvation Army Red Shield Long Beach.

For the team's Salute to Service game on Sunday, Nov. 19, more than 100 Season Ticket Members who are veterans of the military held an 80-yard American flag and 100 members of the United States Air Force Air National Guard were recognized in the end zone. In partnership with nonprofit Shelter to Soldier, halftime featured a retirement ceremony for service dog and cancer-fighter Cooper Pupp, whose adoption and training was sponsored by the team in 2019 when the Rams helped facilitate Pupp's adoption by United States Army veteran Brandon Shelton. During the on-field ceremony, Shelter to Soldier announced a new service dog adoptee – also sponsored by the Rams – for Shelton and fans voted to name the puppy Poocha Nacua. In addition, eight military veterans and their service dogs were recognized on the field.

A Crucial Catch

After nearly a decade of supporting breast cancer, the NFL and the American Cancer Society (ACS) continue to expand their efforts to support the fight against cancer. The NFL's Crucial Catch campaign aims to fight cancer through early detection and risk reduction. Every season, each NFL team raises awareness during their Crucial Catch game.

Last season, during the week leading up to the Rams' Crucial Catch game, presented by Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, against the Philadelphia Eagles at SoFi Stadium, team mascot Rampage and Rams Cheerleaders surprised 12 cancer fighters and survivors at their homes to present them with personalized jerseys and tickets to the game. As part of the effort, members of the Rams' 2023 rookie class and Rams Legend Chris Draft joined a few of the surprises. During the Crucial Catch game, the 12 "Crucial Catch Captains" were recognized on the field during halftime. Since 2009, the league has raised more than $27 million for the American Cancer Society.

My Cause My Cleats

For the eighth consecutive season, Rams players brought awareness to charitable causes as part of the NFL's My Cause My Cleats campaign. During the 2023 season, 26 Rams players and two coaches supported the league's initiative. Organizations supported include American Cancer Society, American Foundation for Suicide Prevention, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Special Olympics of Southern California, Sickle Cell Disease Foundation and many more.

Make-A-Wish Foundation

The Rams and the Make-A-Wish® Foundation have a longstanding partnership dating back to 1995. Since the Rams return to Los Angeles, the two organizations have hosted the "Rams Night of Wishes" to raise money to help grant the wishes of children who are battling life-threatening medical conditions. In 2023, Rams right tackle Rob Havenstein, tight end Tyler Higbee, linebacker Ernest Jones and receiver Ben Skowronek served as the fundraiser's captains and attended the VIP cocktail reception. Following the reception, 2022 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year and Super Bowl LVI Champion Andrew Whitworth hosted the onstage programming. The event featured a silent and live auction, dinner, entertainment and a fashion show with members of the Rams' 2023 rookie class modeling clothing provided by Rams partner PacSun and The Legends Brand. Over the past five years, the "Rams Night for Wishes" has raised more than $2.7 million and helped to grant over 200 wishes for children.

PLAY 60

PLAY 60 is an NFL initiative that aims to create a healthier next generation and tackle childhood obesity by encouraging kids to be active for at least 60 minutes every day. Through the Rams' year-long engagement of youth fitness initiatives with in-school, after-school and team-based programs, the club is committed to expanding this platform and improving health and wellness for local youth.

A key component of the Rams' PLAY 60 platform is the team's PLAY 60 Field Days. Designed to take the Rams to school campuses and parks throughout the region and get students excited about exercising, the PLAY 60 Field Days are a fun way to get the entire student body active and moving. The day kicks off with a character education chat, followed by 60-90 minutes of physical activity featuring various stations, from dancing to an obstacle course to football fundamentals. Since 2016, the Rams have hosted over 120 PLAY 60 events and football clinics for more than 57,000 students (as of June 2024) throughout Southern California.

Academic Challenge

The Rams know that football develops strong character, as well as physical and mental health and wellness. The same standard holds for excellence in the classroom. Since 2017, the Rams have collaborated with USA Football to host the Los Angeles Rams High School Football Academic Challenge to encourage academic achievement amongst more than 85 local varsity high school football programs. Throughout the Academic Challenge, each team participates in weekly study halls and monitors their academic progress. The teams with the highest grade point average and most improved grade point average receive an equipment grant on behalf of USA Football and Riddell.

Last season's Rams Academic Challenge, in partnership with Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD), featured more than 500 participants from 10 varsity high school boys tackle and, for the first time ever, nine girls flag football programs. At the end of the season, the teams with the highest-grade point average, Girls Academic Leadership Academy (GALA) and Edward R. Roybal Learning Center, and most improved grade point average, George Washington Preparatory Senior High and Huntington Park High School, received a $2,500 equipment grant on behalf of USA Football and Riddell. Girls flag from Charles Drew University Pathways Public Service Academy and James A. Garfield High School, as well as boys tackle from King Drew Magnet High School and Mervyn M. Dymally High School, were the runners-up for both categories and both received $1,500 equipment grants. Since its launch, the Academic Challenge has provided varsity football programs from Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) and Inglewood Unified School District (IUSD) with more than $45,000.

Cleats for Character

The Rams Cleats for Character program for local high school football players features group discussions about goal setting and the values of good character. Following the discussions, the student-athletes are sized and provided with cleats and/or shoes previously worn by Rams players. Since 2017, the team's Cleats for Character program has impacted student-athletes from over 150 different schools throughout Los Angeles.

California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) Girls Flag Football Sanctioning

On Friday, February 3, 2023, California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) sanctioned girls' flag football in high schools across California. This achievement allows young women across our state to continue to pursue their passion, elevate football to the next level, and become future leaders in sports and in the community. Since the sanctioning, the Rams have hosted 35 girls flag football camps, clinic and tournament, reaching over 6,000 athletes.

The Rams have provided resources to make football accessible to everyone for years. Beginning in 2021, the Rams and Chargers launched the Los Angeles Girls Flag Football League of Champions. The Rams and Chargers co-sponsored high school teams and provided uniforms (courtesy of Nike), stipends for coaches, coaching manuals, officials, athletic trainers, equipment and transportation for the season. The program was created to offer more opportunities for young women to engage in football. The program started with eight teams and 96 players and expanded to 16 teams and more than 400 players during the second season.

Beyond the Bell Flag League

In 2021, the Rams partnered with Beyond the Bell (BTB) after-school sports league to launch a flag football league for Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) middle school students. The league operates at 110 LAUSD middle schools and has more than 5,000 student-participants. The Rams provided reversible jerseys, flag football kits, footballs, flag belts and kicking tees to each school participating in the Beyond the Bell Flag Football League. In addition, the Rams host free flag football clinics throughout the season.

Rise with the Rams

For the past six seasons, the Rams have teamed up with RISE for a season-long leadership and community building program featuring local high school football programs with a cross-section of ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds. The initiative is designed to harness the unifying power of sports and build relationships, leadership, understanding, acceptance and cultural competency for student-athletes and coaches. In 2023, the program featured five sessions for varsity football teams from Abraham Lincoln High School and Susan Miller Dorsey Senior High School. Since 2018, the Rams and RISE have engaged more than 25 high school football teams throughout the greater Los Angeles region through the RISE with the Rams program.

Free Youth Football Clinics

The Rams partner with local nonprofits and youth football programs to host free football clinics throughout Southern California. Youth participate in football-related drills and competitions. The clinics also feature character education sessions that focus on transferrable life skills attained through sport and teamwork.

In celebration of Women's History Month, the Rams hosted free girls' flag football clinics and tournaments for over 900 local elementary, middle and high school students. During the clinics, attendees participated in football-related drills and competitions led by women from USA Football, Rams staff members and high school girls flag mentors. Additionally, Rams staff members and Nike representatives participated in panel discussions about their experiences playing sports and how the skills they gained as athletes translate to working as women in professional sports.

High School All-Star Experience Flag Football Tournament

In January, the Rams and their official health partner, Cedars-Sinai hosted the second annual High School All-Star Experience 7-on-7 flag football tournament in partnership with Nike. The tournament was held at SoFi Stadium to highlight more than 100 of Southern California's top-ranked high school football players. Eight teams, ranging from San Diego to Santa Barbara, played in the flag football tournament that included three pool play games followed by single elimination games until the overall winner was crowned.

The High School All-Star Experience gives top athletes a Pro Bowl experience at the high school level. Each participant was welcomed in the Rams locker room and received Nike products including a performance top, a Dri-FIT t-shirt, shorts, a duffle bag, cleats and socks. In addition, the Rams provided athletes with a Dri-FIT long sleeve and headbands and Oakley provided football shields, backpacks and hoodies for athletes who competed in the championship match up.

Football Clinics and Character Chats for Incarcerated Youth

Since 2018, the Rams have hosted coed football clinics and character discussions at youth correctional facilities throughout the region. The clinics feature current Rams players, staff and alumni, who lead participants in football-related drills and discussions about the value of good character, goal setting and how to inspire change and more.

According to the NCAA, California ranks first in the country for the state with the highest overall number of college non-qualifiers who are from Black/Brown communities and 34% of the state's non-qualifiers are from Los Angeles. To combat this statistic, the Rams partnered with Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) to launch a 4-month career exploration series for more than 2,500 juniors and seniors from six schools throughout the four LAUSD regions – North, East, West and South.

As of 2024, the program has evolved to take students on tours of local college campuses. Each tour features a panel discussion with welcoming remarks from the school principals and a virtual NCAA presentation highlighting the importance of core classes, discussing how to build good study habits, and creating NCAA Eligibility Profiles. Following the NCAA presentation, Rams Director of Social Justice and Football Development, Johnathan Franklin, leads an in-person panel discussion with representatives and educators from varying professions about their career journeys and the importance of higher education. The goal of the career panel series is to increase diversity and representation in various careers and industries, build pipelines, expose students to career pathways, and increase the numbers to reach a diversity of thought, ideas and perspectives.

For the fourth year, a Watts native, rapper, producer and the founder of the Thinkwatts Foundation, Brandon "STIX" Salaam-Bailey, teamed up with the Rams to address social injustices.

This year, the Los Angeles Rams and Pacsun donated washer and dryer sets to local schools in historically under-resourced communities to combat chronic absenteeism. Through their recently launched "Loads of Love" program supported by Thinkwatts Foundation, 20 schools from Compton Unified School District and Los Angeles Unified School District will receive a set, ensuring students have clean clothes. To announce and celebrate the donations, the Rams and Pacsun joined Thinkwatts Foundation and the Los Angeles Unified School District on May 24 to host a free Pacsun Pop-Up Shopping Experience and washer and dryer ribbon cutting for students from 112th STEAM Academy in Watts. The students also enjoyed a youth football clinic and received autographed cards from Rams running back Kyren Williams who joined the special day.

In 2022, the Rams and the NFL worked with the Thinkwatts Foundation to host an event for community members in the Watts neighborhood. As a part of the evening, the NFL and Little Caesars recognized the great work being done by local community leaders by providing the Thinkwatts Foundation with a $125,000 grant to support programs and initiatives led by the community leaders in Watts and surrounding areas. In addition, during the Rams Week 16 Inspire Change game against the Denver Broncos, the team announced STIX as their recipient of the inaugural 2022 Inspire Change Changemaker Award. The league's Inspire Change Changemaker Award recognizes individuals who are making a difference in their communities through social justice work, either individually or as part of a nonprofit organization, across each of the NFL's 32 club markets.

In 2020, STIX produced an original song titled "It Takes All Of Us," which was one of the phrases highlighted by the NFL for their continued commitment to social justice. Rams team captains selected the phrase to be on the helmet sticker for the 2020 season. The music video, filmed in Inglewood, Watts and South Los Angeles, debuted during the Rams virtual Kickoff for Charity event. All proceeds generated by the event supported the team's efforts to help bridge the digital divide disproportionately impacting under-resourced students in Los Angeles. In addition, the Rams and STIX produced a PSA featuring players reading an original spoken-word piece written by STIX. The PSA debuted before the opening game at SoFi Stadium against the Dallas Cowboys on Sunday Night Football. Last season, the Rams partnered with Stix, Sisters of Watts, Eastside Riders and the Watts Rams to host a holiday distribution event for families in need.

Giving Tuesday

In honor of "Giving Tuesday" in 2023, the Rams and Shoes that Fit teamed up for the second year to provide new athletic shoes to 500 students at 99th Street Elementary School in Watts. The event featured a Rams PLAY 60 Field Day and special appearances from members of the Rams' 2023 rookie class, Rams Cheerleaders and team mascot Rampage. The team continued their special effort encouraging Season Ticket Members and Suite Owners not planning to attend the Rams vs. Washington Commanders or Rams vs. New Orleans Saints games to donate their tickets to a nonprofit organization in Los Angeles through the "Rams House For The Holidays" initiative.

In 2020, Rams players awarded $750,000 to 25 nonprofits focused on social justice across the greater Los Angeles region. Following the deaths of Breonna Taylor and George Floyd, Rams players came together to discuss how they could help address the injustices that continue to plague society. The players decided to pull resources together to financially support organizations doing critical work focused on long-term systemic change. The Rams invited 25 social justice nonprofits to share information about their work, those they serve and how the players could assist. After listening and learning, the players awarded each organization with a donation ranging from $20,000 to $50,000. Recipients included A Place Called Home, Brotherhood Crusade, College Track, Heart of Los Angeles (HOLA), Homeboy Industries, SoLa I Can Foundation, Anti-Recidivism Coalition, Liberty Hill Foundation, Operation Progress, Partnership for Los Angeles Schools, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Los Angeles (BBBSLA), Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles (BGCMLA), Children's Institute, Fulfillment Fund, St. Joseph Center, BOSS, Communities in Schools (CIS), Covenant House, HomeLight Family Living, LA Family Housing, LAPD Community Safety Partnership, LA Regional Food Bank (LARFB), Los Angeles Room and Board, Sharefest and Social Justice Learning Institute (SJLI).

Staff Days of Service

Several times a year, the Rams front office staff takes time out of the office to volunteer with local nonprofits. Since returning home to Los Angeles in 2016, Rams staff members have provided more than 11,000 hours of community service, impacting 60 local nonprofits and 70 schools (as of June 2024) through the Staff Days of Service program.

Season of Giving

The cornerstone volunteer effort of the Staff Days of Service program is the team's annual Season of Giving. Since 2018, Rams players, cheerleaders, mascot Rampage, and front office staff have participated in annual Season of Giving days of service that have helped distribute holiday meals and gift cards to more than 18,000 Southern California residents battling food insecurity, host shopping sprees for hundreds of children served by local nonprofits and hospitals, as well as host holiday parties and gift distributions for communities in need.

Last season, the Rams partnered with UNIFY Financial Credit Union to host a shopping spree for 100 youths (ages 5-14) served by The Salvation Army. Rams players, Rams Cheerleaders and staff members were paired with a child and tookthem shopping to purchase up to $200 in holiday gifts. In addition, the team partnered with Pechanga and the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank to host a large-scale, drive-through food distribution at SoFi Stadium for Inglewood residents. More than 20,000 holiday meals and nutritious foods were distributed. During the event, Rams linebacker Ernest Jones, Rams Cheerleaders, Rampage, front office staff members, LA Regional Food Bank and Pechanga volunteers greeted visitors and helped load their vehicles with meals. To close out the team's Season of Giving efforts, Rams players, Rams Cheerleaders and staff members served a holiday meal to more than 300 St. Joseph Center community members and hosted a holiday barbeque for LA Family Housing.

Certified #RamsHouse

In 2020, the Rams launched the Certified #RamsHouse program to support businesses throughout the Los Angeles region. The Rams focus efforts on the small businesses of Season Ticket Members and minority-owned businesses in Inglewood and throughout Los Angeles. Each Certified #RamsHouse receives branded window decals, banners, shirts, hats and other items to showcase their Rams pride. As part of the program, Rams fans are encouraged to visit Certified #RamsHouse businesses on preferred days and share their experiences on social media using #RamsHouse. Since the launch of the Certified #RamsHouse program, the team has supported 79 local businesses and 40 small businesses in Inglewood.

Since 2017, Rams fans have had the opportunity to purchase 50/50 raffle tickets on game day. The winner receives half (50%) of the jackpot total from the game's raffle ticket sales and the other half (50%) benefits the Los Angeles Rams Foundation.

When the Rams clinched the NFC West division during the 2021 season, the team's 50/50 Raffle raised a total of $342,975, which set the new NFL record and broke the previous record of $332,110 set during Super Bowl LIV. The Rams also broke the league's single-season 50/50 Raffle record by surpassing $3 million in 2021.

The Alliance is a unique collaboration of the 12 pro sports teams from Southern California and the Play Equity Fund working with local students to advance social justice, workforce development and leadership opportunities. Equal access to sports & play is a social justice issue.

Training Camp

The Rams held their Training Camp at Loyola Marymount University, the team's higher-education partner, for the first time this year. It was the 54th training camp in Southern California for the franchise. The 2020 season marked the first time the Rams held training camp at their team facility (on the campus of California Lutheran University), after the NFL mandated its teams conduct training camp from their own facilities in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Over the course of Rams' history, the team has held training camp at several locations in the Southern California area, including: Compton College (1946), Loyola University (1947-48), University of Redlands (1949-60), Chapman College (1961-66), California State-Fullerton (1976-71, 1973-90, '93), California State-Long Beach (1972), UC Irvine (1991-92, 1994, 2016, 2021, 2022) and LMU (2024).

SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park has transformed the site of the former Hollywood Park Racetrack into a year-round sports and entertainment destination for the enjoyment of people throughout Southern California, as well as visitors to the region.

SoFi Stadium is the centerpiece of the near 300-acre mixed-use development, Hollywood Park, and has a seating capacity of 70,000, expandable up to 100,000, with 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats, and approximately 3.1 million square feet of usable space, making it the largest stadium in the NFL. Hollywood Park also includes the 2.5 acre American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat performance venue, YouTube Theater, both of which are located under the same roof canopy as the stadium. SoFi Stadium is the home field for the Los Angeles Rams and Los Angeles Chargers. The state-of-the-art venue hosted Super Bowl LVI and the 2023 College Football National Championship game, WrestleMania 2023, and will host the World Cup in 2026, and the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the Olympic Games in 2028.

Located just six miles off the coast, a short drive from LAX and the City of Inglewood's future Crenshaw/LAX Line, Hollywood Park is an iconic global destination for millions to enjoy. This privately funded development is 3.5 times the size of Disneyland park and twice as big as Vatican City. It is also the largest urban mixed-use development under construction in the Western United States. In addition to SoFi Stadium, YouTube Theater, American Airlines Plaza and Lake Park, Hollywood Park's Phase 1 includes 500,000 square-feet of retail, a 450,000 square-foot office building, the NFL Media Building, and 314 residences. When complete, Hollywood Park will have up to 2,500 residences, a hotel, a retail district reaching up to 890,000 square feet, up to 5 million square feet of creative office space and more than 25-acres of public parks and open space.

The NFL opened their new West Coast Headquarters at Hollywood Park in September 2021, and it houses operations for NFL Media, which includes NFL Network, NFL RedZone, the NFL app, NFL.com, NFL Fantasy and the NFL's social media lab, plus staff across a variety of departments including marketing, club business development, and media sales. In addition to office and studio space situated next to SoFi Stadium, the facility features NFL Media's first outdoor studio, which hosts audiences and includes an outdoor field for filming purposes as well as public use.

One of the hallmarks of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park is the long-term impact it will have on the city of Inglewood and the surrounding region. More than 17,000 jobs were created over the course of SoFi Stadium's construction period. During the construction, Inglewood businesses earned more than $105 million in revenue and Inglewood residents earned more than $38 million in wages. SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park held about 45 community and other events, with an emphasis on Inglewood, in 2021 through community engagement efforts focused on four areas. These areas include: STEAM education, sustainability, financial empowerment and health and wellness.

SoFi Stadium

The open-air SoFi Stadium is the first indoor-outdoor stadium to be constructed. It has a seating capacity of approximately 70,000, expandable up to 100,000. It features 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats and approximately 3.1 million square feet of usable space.

Adjacent to the stadium and under the same canopy are a 2.5-acre open-air American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

Across the three spaces, SoFi Stadium has the flexibility to host anywhere from one cohesive event to three separate events concurrently in each of the venues.

The roof canopy features a single-layer of Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE), which creates a semi-clear cover that protects from weather elements. The ETFE has a 65 percent frit pattern, which reflects 40 percent of visible and solar rays and 42 percent of UV rays. As a result, the temperature is approximately 4 degrees cooler inside the building than outside.

Each panel on the roof canopy is covered in a special LED light system. The LED roof screen is 12 acres long or 6.5 city blocls. With over 216,000 LEDs, the roof turns into a dynamic display for passengers flying in and out of LAX.

The 120-yard-long Infinity Screen by Samsung video board is the first HD video system ever built into a stadium. The Infinity Screen is the first-of-its-kind and the only dual sided, center-hung 4k videoboard ever created. It is a 70,000 square foot, high-definition television that spans from one end of the field to the other, the biggest in sports.

The Infinity Screen's oval display features approximately 8 million pixels, spaced 8 millimeters from center to center and can be uniquely or congruently programmed with statistics, live and/or animated content.

In addition, SoFi Stadium features five levels of an additional 20,000 square feet plus ribbon board throughout the bowl. SoFi Stadium has 90,000 square feet of digital LED in its seating bowl alone.

The first-ever soccer event at the stadium was the 2022 Leagues Cup Showcase featuring four of the continent's most popular clubs – Los Angeles Football Club, LA Galaxy, Club Deportivo Guadalajara and Club América.

Grupo Firme is the first band to perform for two consecutive years at SoFi Stadium (2022, 2023) and broke the record for most tickets sold by a Latin band or artist (May 28-29, 2022 & May 27, 2023). Additionally, TWICE is first female group to perform and sell out SoFi Stadium (June 10, 2023).

SoFi Stadium

Unique Elements of SoFi Stadium

SoFi Stadium is the first indoor-outdoor stadium to be constructed. It has a seating capacity of approximately 70,000, expandable up to 100,000. It features 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats and approximately 3.1 million square feet of usable space.

Adjacent to the stadium and under the same canopy are a 2.5-acre open-air plaza named American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park utilizes 26m gallons of reclaimed water a year for landscape irrigation and maintenance, saving an equal amount of drinkable water for the region.

There are approximately 5,000 trees onsite.

SoFi Stadium was named "Best New Concert Venue" in 2021 by Pollstar Magazine, a leading industry trade publication.

On a clear day, you can see the Pacific Ocean to the West, the Santa Monica Mountains, and the Hollywood Sign to the North. To date, SoFi Stadium has hosted over 4.3 million fans.

SoFi Stadium features the first-ever dual-sided video board, the Infinity Screen by Samsung. Consisting of 70,000 sq. ft. of digital display, the experience is similar to watching a 55"-60" television, from every seat in the stadium.

The Infinity Screen by Samsung is comprised of multiple screens, allowing the event host to show consistent or varied content.

In addition, SoFi Stadium features an additional 20,000 square feet of digital display on other LED ribbon boards in the bowl.

RB Todd Gurley rushed 14 times for 101 yards, a 7.2-yard average in the 2017 Wild Card game. Gurley is the first Rams running back to notch a 100-plus yard game in his postseason debut since Jim Gillette had 17 carries for 101 yards vs. Washington (12/16/45).

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Renovations

The University of Southern California and United Airlines announced a new agreement to name the field at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Under this 10-year deal commencing in August 2019, the field at the historic landmark, memorial to World War I veterans and home of the USC Trojans, will be referred to as United Airlines Field at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.
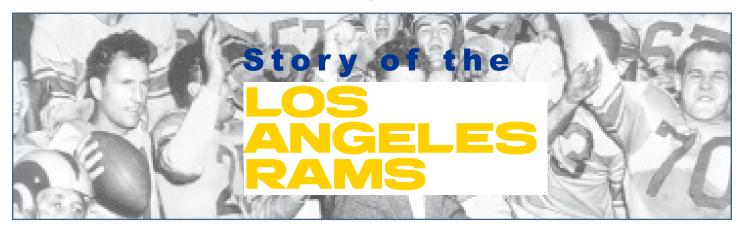

USC and United worked together to reach an agreement that retains the original venue name while still providing funding to support a $315 million project to restore and preserve the Coliseum and upgrade its facilities for fans, athletes and the community.

The Coliseum Renovation Project will restore one of the most iconic sports and entertainment venues in the world, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

During the 2019 season, the Rams played their home games at a renovated Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Upgraded features included Wi-Fi connectivity, new stadium seats with cupholders, additional aisles, improved concession stands, more ADA seating and a new Scholarship Tower which includes a press box and sky deck, as well as premium seating options.

In Week 11 of the 2018 season, the Rams defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 54-51 in a shootout thriller, ending on CB Troy Hill picking off Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes II in the final moments of the game.

The game hosted in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum marks as the highest scoring game in the 49-season history of Monday Night Football.

LOS ANGELES RAMS

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League granted a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and Associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Another Rams team in Cleveland played in the American Football League in 1936 and finished with a 5-2-2 record, second best in the league. Hugo Bezdek was named head coach of the new NFL franchise. Rams finished with 1-10 record. Their home games were played in Municipal Stadium and League Park. Bob Kelley was the radio play-by-play announcer.

1938 The assistant coach Art Lewis took over the team after three losses at the start of the season. The Rams won the first three under Lewis but finished with a 4-7 record. The home games were played in Shaw Stadium, named after the high school on Shaw Avenue in Cleveland.

1939 Earl (Dutch) Clark became the Rams head coach. The Rams finished with a 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joined the team as a rookie tailback and won the Joe Carr Trophy as the NFL's official Most Valuable Player. The trophy was named after the NFL president. Hall was the first Ram to earn First Team All-Pro Honors.

1940 Rams finished with a 4-6-1 record. Fullback Johnny (Zero) Drake was voted the All-NFL First Team.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy Jr., purchased the Rams in June and hired Billy Evans as the general manager. The Rams won the first two games but lost the next nine. They finished fifth in the NFL West.

1942 Evans resigned before the season. Charles (Chile) Walsh replaced Art Lewis as the assistant coach. Bob Kelley was named the club secretary. After three seasons in the Municipal Stadium, the Rams returned to play all home games in the League Park. The team finished with a record of 5-6. Clark resigned as the head coach after the season with a record of 16-26-2.

1943 Chile Walsh was named the head coach. The NFL granted the Rams permission to suspend operations for one season due to wartime restrictions and shortages. On April 16, Reeves bought out Levy. Riley Matheson was an All-NFL selection.

1944 Chile Walsh became the general manager. Chile appointed Aldo (Buff) Donelli as the head coach. Donelli previously was the Pittsburgh Steelers' head coach and Duquesne University's head coach at the same time. The Rams finished the season with a record of 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joined the military. Walsh named his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Bob Waterfield, a third-round future draft choice in 1944 from UCLA, joins the team as quarterback. He led the Rams to 9-1 season and to their first NFL West title. The Rams defeated the Washington Redskins for NFL championship. Waterfield became the first player to receive e unanimous vote for the NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh was named coach of the year. Riley Matheson, Jim Benton, Eberle Schultz and Jim Gillette received All-Pro Honors. Eddie Kotal joined the team as the NFL's first, fulltime college scout. Benton caught 10 passes for a record of 303 yards in Detroit. Benton's mark stood as the NFL's record for 40 years. It was broken by Chiefs' Stephone Paige, who had 309 yards in 1985 game against San Diego.

1946 Reeves received approval to move the franchise to Los Angeles on January 11th. The Rams signed halfback Kenny Washington and end Woody Strode. They were the first African-American players in the modern NFL. They joined the team one year before Jackie Robinson broke baseball color barriers with the Brooklyn Dodgers. After 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resigned.

1947 Reeves conducted the duties of the general manager. Bob Snyder was named the head coach with Joe Stydahar as the new assistant. The team finished the season with a 6-6 record. Reeves sold part interest to former partner Levy, Edwin, Harold Pauley, and Hal Seley.
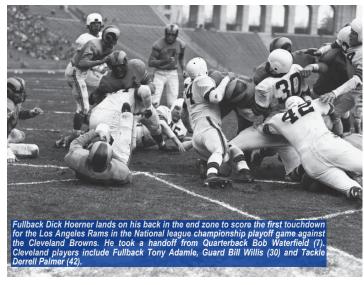

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joined the staff as the advisory coach. Snyder resigned September 3rd and Shaughnessy became the head coach. Rams were the first professional franchise with a team insignia or logo on their helmet. They introduced the headgear with painted Rams horns. This was designed by halfback Fred Gehrke, an industrial design artist in the off-season. By 1960, All Pro Teams except Cleveland have logos on their helmets. The team won four of the last five games with a 6-5-1 record.

1949 The Rams won the first six games of the season, capped by a 27-24 victory over the Chicago Bears. They won their first NFL West title since moving from Cleveland. They lost to the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL title game.

1950 The NFL added the All-America Football Conference. The Rams was the lone Pro Team in Los Angeles after four years of the two-league existence. In February, Stydahar became the head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. The team set 22 league records and tied in the conference for the title. Waterfield and Tom Fears led the Rams to a 24-14 Divisional Playoff win over the Chicago Bears. The following week the Rams lost to Cleveland after Lou Groza's late field goal attempt (30-28). Waterfield was named the NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club.

1951 The Rams won the third straight NFL West title on the final day of season. They defeated Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on a 73-yard pass. This marked the first NFL Title since moving to Los Angeles.

1952 The Rams lost three straight preseason games and lost their league opener (37-7) to Cleveland. Stydahar resigned to the Rams. He was replaced as the head coach by Hampton Pool. The Rams won the last eight games to tie for the NFL West title. The Rams lost in the Western playoff to Detroit (31-21). The Rams traded 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter. Waterfield retired from the Rams.

Fullback Dick Hoerner lands on his back in the end zone to score the first touchdown for the Los Angeles Rams in the National league championship playoff game against the Cleveland Browns. He took a handoff from Quarterback Bob Waterfield (7). Cleveland players include Fullback Tony Adamle, Guard Bill Willis (30) and Tackle Derrell Palmer (42).

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passed away. The Rams finished with 8-3-1 record, finishing third in the NFL West. They defeated former world champion Detroit twice. The Rams 37-34 victory over the Lions with 93,751 fans in the Coliseum set a new Pro Football record.

1954 The Rams finished the season with a record of 6-5-1. Norm Van Brocklin was named the NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Bob Boyd was the lone Ram to be named All-Pro. All of the assistant coaches resigned to the team.

1955 The Rams hired Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. The Rams finished the season with a 8-3-1 record. They clenched the NFL West title but lost to Cleveland in the Title Game at the Coliseum (38-14).

1956 The Rams lost five consecutive early-season games and finished the season with a 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners named former Rams publicist Pete Rozelle as the general manager. The team lost on the road to the 49ers and the Lions. They finished the season with a record of 6-6. The Rams set a record of attendance (102,368) for their game against San Francisco on November 10th.

1958 Van Brocklin was traded to the Eagles during the preseason. Bill Wade set several Rams passing records to finish the season with a 8-4 record. During the season, the Rams drew home crowds of more than 100,000 twice.

1959 The Rams lost their last eight games and finished the season 2-10. This marked their poorest record since 1937. Ollie Matson was acquired in a 9 player trade with Chicago. On the last day of the season, Gillman and his staff resigned to the team.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle was named the NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaced Rozelle as the Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield was named the head coach. The Rams finished the season with a 4-7-1 record.

1961 The Rams traded Bill Wade, Del Shofner, and John Guzik to Chicago for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow, and a 1962 first draft choice. This trade enabled the Rams to draft future Rams greats: Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. The Rams finished the season with a 4-10 record.

1962 The Rams drafted North Carolina State's quarterback Roman Gabriel in the first round for the second overall pick. For the third pick in the first round of the draft, the Rams drafted Utah State's defensive tackle Merlin Olsen. Dick Bass provided a bright spot in the 1-12-1 season with an All-Pro selection. Waterfield resigned after eighth game of the season. Harland Svare was named the interim head coach. On December 27th, in a closed auction, Reeves reacquired control of the Rams. Reeves purchased full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley, and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sold 49% interest in the Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman, and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare was retained to the team. After 0-5 start, Gabriel was reinstated as the starting quarterback and played the last nine games. The Rams finished the season with a record of 5-9-0. Rosey Grier was acquired from the New York Giants and joined Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen, and Lamar Lundy to form the original Fearsome Foursome.

1964 The Rams signed a 10-year contract to play in the Coliseum. The seating capacity was lowered from 100,000-plus to 72,000 with installation of temporary seats that closed off several thousand permanent seats. Fourteen rookies made the team. The Rams finished fifth with a 5-7-2 record. Deacon Jones unofficially recorded the first 20-sack season in league history with 22.

1965 After winning only one of first 10 games, Rams won three of their last four games of the season against the top two teams in each conference. Svare was dismissed as the head coach.

1966 George Allen was released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears. He then became the head coach of the Rams. The NFL and the AFL merge took place in the spring. The Voice of the Rams and radio sportscaster, Bob Kelley died in September. The team finished the season 8-6, for their best record since 1958.

1967 The equipment manager Bill Granholm left the organization after 18 years to take a position in the league office. Don Hewitt began his 28-year tenure as the equipment manager. The Rams recorded their first undefeated pre-season with six wins, including victories over their first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. The Rams finished the season with a 11-1-2 record. They won the Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955. In January, they won the Playoff Bowl game in Miami against Cleveland (30-6). The game featured the two losing teams from the conference finals. George Allen received the NFL Coach-of-the-Year honors by The Sporting News. Jones established the unofficial NFL record with 26 sacks.

1968 The team finished the regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in the Coastal Division. The Rams attendance was more than one million for the second straight year. The Rams defense set a 14-game NFL record for the fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen was dismissed as the head coach but rehired two weeks later. Deacon Jones was named the NFL Defensive Player of Year for the second straight season after registering 24 sacks.

1969 After 20 years playing for the Rams, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch left the organization to become the athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He was replaced by the Public Relations Director Jack E. Teele. John Sanders became the Assistant General Manager. The Rams won the Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game. They beat Dallas in the Playoff Bowl (31-0). QB Roman Gabriel was the unanimous choice for the NFL's most valuable player. T Bob Brown, T Charlie Cowan, G Tom Mack, DE Deacon Jones, DT Merlin Olsen and DB Eddie Meador were All-Pro selections. This marked a Rams all-time record for most All-Pro selections.

1970 In January, the Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas pointed the Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams joined San Francisco, Atlanta, and New Orleans in the in Baltimore to Los Angeles with him. After five years at Cal State-Fullerton, the Rams moved their training site to Cal State-Long Beach. After a 6-7-1 season, all the coaches were dismissed from the team.

1973 Rosenbloom began to make changes early in the year which paid off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, led the team to 12-2 season. This marked the best record in Rams history. Knox was crowned the NFL Coach of the Year. Roman Gabriel was traded to Philadelphia. The Rams aquired quarterback John Hadl who was voted the NFC Player of the Year. The Rams won the NFC West title, but lost in the first round of playoffs to Dallas. Rosenbloom introduced the return to blue and gold uniforms. The team had worn blue and white uniforms since 1965.

1974 After a 3-2 start, the Rams traded John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices. Hadl's backup, James Harris, became the starter and led the team to 10-4 record. This marked the second straight NFC Western title, and its first playoff victory since 1951. Merlin Olsen won the Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL's most valuable player.

1976 The Rams won the NFC West title for the fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record. They beat Dallas (14-12) for their first playoff victory on the road but lost to Minnesota (24-13) for the NFC Title game. Rookie Pat Haden became the fourth different playoff quarterback in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 point season was the highest total in the NFC. Jack Youngblood, Isiah Robertson, and Monte Jackson were named All-Pro. Merlin Olsen was invited to his 14th Pro Bowl which set a new league record.

1977 The Rams' new Coliseum configuration helped reduce the capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. Lawrence McCutcheon set the Rams career rushing record of 5,523 yards. The Rams (10-4) clenched their fifth straight division title before their playoff loss to Minnesota in the Coliseum. Isiah Robertson earned the NFC line-backer-of-the-year award for the third consecutive season. Following the season, Knox left the Rams to take the Buffalo Bills head coaching job.

1978 Rosenbloom hired George Allen but released him after his second preseason game. Ray Malavasi became the head coach and led the organization to a 12-4 record. This marked the sixth straight division title for the Rams. This tied the league's record of most consecutive divisional titles. The Rams beat Minnesota in the playoffs but lost to Dallas for the NFC title. Pat Haden earned the NFC player-of-the-year award. The Rams announced their move to the Anaheim Stadium that would begin in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves offices and in-season training facility to Juliette Low elementary school in Anaheim and rename the facility Rams Park. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins seventh straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell is all-NFL and NFC defensive player of the year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named all-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 The NFL players' strike cancelled seven games. The Rams finished last in the NFC with 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones was acquired on a Draft Day trade from Baltimore but missed the last five games due to a neck injury. In Jones place, Vince Ferragamo threw for 509 yards vs. Chicago. This marked the second highest passing yards in the league's history. Following the season Ray Malavasi was dismissed as the head coach.

1983 The Rams owner Georgia Frontiere hired former USC Coach, John Robinson in February. Robinson engineered a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson was drafted in the first round in April. Robinson installed a new offense (single back) and a new defense (3-4-4). The Rams finished the season 9-7 and entered the playoffs as a wild card team. Dickerson broke the NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), set five Ram records, and was All-Pro. Robinson was named the NFC coach of the year.

1972 In a history-making move, the Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom traded the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brought Don Klosterman, his general manager

1975 The Rams defense allowed the second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135). The Rams won the third straight NFC West title by completing a 12-2 season. Jack Youngblood was named the NFC Defensive Player of Year. After a playoff victory over St. Louis, the Rams lost to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three seasons marked the best record set in the NFL.

1984 The Rams made the playoffs in back-to-back seasons after they finished with a 10-6 record. The Rams hosted their first playoff game at Anaheim Stadium. Eric Dickerson rushed for 2,105 yards which broke O.J. Simpson's NFL record (2,003). Jack Youngblood set the Ram's record for most consecutive games played (201). QB Jeff Kemp replaced injured Vince Ferragamo in Week 3 and led the team to nine wins during the season. Dickerson was named the NFC Player of the Year.

1985 The Rams' lost to the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams played prominent roles in the 11-5 regular season. Ron Brown had two kickoff returns for touchdowns against Green Bay. This tied the NFL record in Week 12. Eric Dickerson rushed for 248 yards. This set a NFL playoff record and marked the Rams' first playoff win at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams made the NFC Pro Bowl team.

1986 The Rams made the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year after a 10-6 regular-season record. The Rams acquired rookie QB Jim Everett from Houston. Everett threw three touchdown passes in his debut against the Patriots. Eric Dickerson surpassed former Ram RB Lawrence McCutcheon as the team's All-Time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons.

1987 The Rams failed to make the playoffs for the first time since 1982 with 6-9 record. The NFL players' strike shortened the season by 1990 Henry Ellard, (most receptions with 412 and yards with 7,037), and Jackie Slater (most games played with 209) set Ram records as the team finished with a 5-11 record.

1991 The Rams finished a 3-13 season. The franchise lost a record of 10 games in a row to close out the season. John Robinson resigned as the head coach prior to the organization's last regular season game. T Jackie Slater became the first player in Ram history to play 16 seasons. The Rams failed to have a player named to the NFL Pro Bowl for the first time since the game's inception in 1950.

1992 The Rams hired former head coach Chuck Knox (1973-77) as their head coach and replaced John Robinson. Rams selected DT Sean Gilbert, from the University of Pittsburgh as their third choice in the first round. By doubling its victory total from the previous season, the Rams finished 6-10. Kevin Greene was named to All-Pro first team.

1993 NFL and Player Association representatives agreed on a new free agency system for players with 5 years or more experience. The Rams selected RB Jerome Bettis from the University of Notre Dame with their 10th pick in the first round of the draft. Bettis earned Rookie of the Year honors after rushing for 1,429 yards (2nd in NFL) including 212 yards at New Orleans in 23-20 Rams' victory.

year with 119 receptions for 1,781 yards. Jackie Slater became the first player in NFL history to play 20 seasons with one team by starting against Carolina. He set an offensive linemen record for games played (258).

1996 The Rams traded DE Sean Gilbert to Washington for the sixth overall pick in the 1996 draft. The organization swapped RB Jerome Bettis to Pittsburgh for a second-round selection in the 1996 draft and a fourth-round pick in the 1997 draft. The team's administration moved training camp from Maryville University in suburban St. Louis to Western Illinois University in Macomb. S Keith Lyle tied for the most interceptions in the league (9).

1998 Defensive coordinator Bud Carson announced his retirement. Dick Vermeil named one game. The Rams acquired six draft choices (three No. 1 and three No. 2 over the next two years) from the Colts in a blockbuster trade for RB Eric Dickerson. Charles White took over for Dickerson and won the NFL rushing title (1,374 yards) and was named to his first Pro Bowl.

1988 The Rams made it to the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson. He became the coach with the most wins in Rams' history (58). The Rams lost the NFC Wildcard Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Rams tied the organization's record with 56 quarterback sacks. The Rams selected RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox in the first round of the draft.

1989 The Rams finished the regular season with 11-5 record and qualified for the playoffs as a wild card entry. The Rams' 13 wins were the most since 1978. Willie "Flipper" Anderson, set a NFL record with 336 receiving yards on 15 catches. Jerry Gray returned an interception for a touchdown and was selected as the most valuable player in the Pro Bowl. Jackie Slater was the NFC Offensive Lineman of the Year for the third straight season and fifth time in his career.

1994 Rams were active in the off-season as they signed several free agents, including QB Chris Miller of Atlanta and DT Jimmie Jones of Dallas, and traded QB Jim Everett. Rams traded down in the draft and had 10 choices in the first six rounds and seven in first three. Auburn T Wayne Gandy was the organization's first pick in the draft. Rams became the first team ever to shut out Joe Montana with 16-0 win over Kansas City at Arrowhead Stadium. The team suffered their fifth consecutive losing season after losing the final seven games. Chuck Knox was relieved of his coaching duties at the end of the season.

1995 Frontiere moved the franchise to St. Louis after 49 years in Southern California. NFL owners approved the team's relocation effort with a 23-6-1 vote. They brought NFL football back to St. Louis after an eight-year absence. The league owners originally blocked the proposed move with 3-21-6 vote, March 15. Rams hired Steve Ortmayer as the Vice President/Football Operations and former Oregon coach Rich Brooks as the 19th head coach in team history. Rams greeted St. Louis with a 4-0 record to start season. Isaac Bruce produced a record-breaking

Peter Giunta and John Bunting as co-defensive coordinators. The Rams defeated three AFC playoff-bound teams (Buffalo, New York Jets, New England).

1999 The Rams acquired Pro Bowl RB Marshall Faulk from Indianapolis in exchange for a second and fifth round draft choice in the 1999 draft. The Rams signed G Adam Timmerman of Green Bay, S Devin Bush of Atlanta, and LB Todd Collins of New England. The Rams drafted WR Torry Holt, from North Carolina State, in the first round (sixth overall). Green completed 28 of first 32 pass attempts before sustaining a season-ending knee injury in their third preseason game versus San Diego. Kurt Warner, a former Arena League and NFL Europe player who went undrafted out of Northern Iowa, became the starter and led the Rams to their first divisional championship since 1985. Warner was the second player in NFL history to throw for more than 40 touchdowns in one season. He was voted the NFL's Most Valuable Player. Prior to this season, Warner's only NFL experience had been in the fourth quarter of season-ending loss in 1998. Faulk was named the offensive player of the year and set a NFL record for the most total yards in a season (2,429). Faulk was the second player in NFL history (Roger Craig) with at least 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

2000 The Rams won three playoff games in January, the NFC Divisional Playoff Game and the NFC Championship Game. The Rams defeated Tennessee (23-16) in Super Bowl XXXIV on a 74-yard pass play from Warner to Isaac Bruce. The victory was not clinched until LB Mike Jones made a touchdown-saving tackle at the one-yard line on the last play. Eight Rams: Warner, Faulk, Bruce, Orlando Pace, Kevin Carter, D'Marco Farr, Adam Timmerman, and Todd Lyght were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl. Dick Vermeil retired and was replaced by assistant coach Mike Martz as the head coach. The Rams tied for the NFC West title with 10-6 record but lost in the first round of the playoffs in New Orleans. Rams scored the franchise record points (540), including a 57-point effort against San Diego where the Rams scored on every possession (6 TDs, 5 FGs). Faulk recorded the NFL-record for touchdowns (26) in 14 games. He was the unanimous choice for the NFL's Most Valuable Player. Faulk received Offensive Player of the Year for back-to-back seasons. Warner, Faulk, Isaac Bruce, and Orlando Pace were selected to the Pro Bowl.

2001 Martz appointed Lovie Smith as defensive coordinator, Bobby April as special teams coach, Ron Meeks as secondary coach, and Bill Kollar as defensive line coach. In January Martz promoted offensive assistant Ken Zampese to wide receivers coach. Henry Ellard became the offensive assistant. Rams drafted three defensive players, DT Damione Lewis (12), S Adam Archuleta (20), and DT Ryan Pickett (29) in first round of NFL draft. Tackle Jackie Slater and defensive end Jack Youngblood were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for the third time since the AFC-NFC series began in 1970. The Rams played in the Hall of Fame game, defeating Miami Dolphins (17-10). Rams became the second team in NFL history to open the season with a 6-0 record in three consecutive years. Kurt Warner was named the NFL Most Valuable Player and Marshall Faulk was named NFL Offensive Player of the Year. The Rams won the NFC West with a 14-2 record, best in Rams history. The Rams became the first team in NFL history to score at least 500 points in three consecutive seasons.

2002 The Rams defeated Green Bay (45-17) and Philadelphia (29-24) to win their second NFC Championship in three years, advancing to Super Bowl XXXVI. New England defeated the Rams, 20-17, on a 48-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri. Isaac Bruce, Marshall Faulk, Kurt Warner, Orlando Pace, and Aeneas Williams were selected to the Pro Bowl. Bruce, Warner, and Pace withdrew from the Pro Bowl due to their injuries. Torry Holt and Adam Timmerman were later added to the NFC team for the Pro Bowl. The Rams joined the Washington Redskins as the only teams in league history to win the next five games after starting the season 0-5. Marc Bulger became the third Rams' QB since 1970 (Dieter Brock 7, 1985; Kurt Warner 6, 1999) to post at least six consecutive wins to start his career. The Rams staged two double-digit fourth-quarter comebacks for the first time since 1989.

2003 Martz named Steve Fairchild as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, as the Perry Fewell secondary coach, Frank Falks as the tight ends coach, and Bob Babich as the linebackers coach. Through trades and free agency, Rams acquired veterans C Dave Wohlabaugh, T Kyle Turley, TE Cameron Cleeland, P Sean Landeta, and S Jason Sehorn. The team selected DT Jimmy Kennedy (12), LB Pisa Tinoisamoa (43), WR Kevin Curtis (74), WR Shaun McDonald (106), and CB DeJuan Groce (107) with the first five selections in the 11-player draft class. After losing two of their first three games, the Rams won four straight and 11 of the next 12 games to win their third division title. They earned their fourth playoff appearance in five seasons. The Rams went 12-4, posting their fourth 10+ win season in the past five years.

2004 The Rams lost in the divisional playoff round to the Carolina Panthers, 29-23, in double overtime, the fifth longest playoff game in NFL history. The Rams had six players in the Pro Bowl, including three first-time selections (QB Marc Bulger, DE Leonard Little, K Jeff Wilkins) along with S Aeneas Williams (eighth), T Orlando Pace (fifth), and WR Torry Holt (third). Jim Hanifan retired at the offensive line coach. The team named Larry Marmie as the defensive coordinator, Mike Stock as the special teams coach, John Benton as the assistant offensive line coach, and Joe Vitt as the linebackers coach. First-round pick RB Steven Jackson (24th overall) and third-round pick DE Anthony Hargrove (91st overall) were a part of the 2004 NFL Draft class. The Rams completed one of the biggest comebacks in franchise history in Seattle after they rallied from a 27-10 deficit with 5:43 left to play. The Rams tied the game and went to overtime. They won the game on the first possession (33-27).

2005 After clinching their fifth playoff berth in last six seasons, the Rams completed a three-game sweep and won the Wildcard game on the road (27-20). This marked the first road playoff win since 1989, becoming the first 8-8 team in NFL history to win a playoff game. T Orlando Pace and WR Torry Holt earned Pro Bowl selections. The Rams named Bob Ligashesky, the special teams coach, Charles Bankins, the assistant special teams coach, Kurt Schottenheimer, the secondary coach, and Pat Carter, the offensive assistant. Rams selected T Alex Barron (19th overall), CB Ronald Bartell (50th overall), S Oshimogho Atogwe (66th overall), and G Richie Incognito (81st overall) in the draft. The Rams installed a new artificial turf field at the Edward Jones Dome. Head coach Mike Martz left the team after five games due to health reasons. The assistant head coach/linebackers coach Joe Vitt led the team the final 11 games.

2006 Owner Georgia Frontiere named Scott Linehan as the 22nd head coach in franchise history. Former NFL head coach Jim Haslett was named the defensive coordinator and Greg Olson was named the offensive coordinator. After winning four of their first five games, the Rams lost seven of the next eight and then rallied with three consecutive victories to end the season with a 8-8 record. Running back Steven Jackson earned his first Pro Bowl berth with a breakout season, including 1,528 yards rushing and 90 pass receptions. Marc Bulger and Torry Holt also are selected to play for NFC Pro Bowl team; Holt declined invitation because of pending off-season knee surgery.

2007 Al Roberts was named the special teams coach. The Rams selected Nebraska defensive lineman Adam Carricker as the 12th player in the first round of the NFL draft. Wide Receiver Drew Bennett, tight end Randy McMichael, safety Todd Johnson, and linebacker Chris Draft were a part of the Rams' free agent class. The Rams finished the season with a 3-13 record but became the fifth franchise in league history to win 500 games. Wide receiver Torry Holt earned his seventh Pro Bowl selection. Safety Oshiomogho Atogwe led the NFC with eight pass interceptions.

2008 Owner Georgia Frontiere passed away on January 18, 2008. Frontiere's children, Chip Rosenbloom and Lucia Rodriguez took named Pat Shurmur as the offensive coordinator and Ken Flajole as the defensive coordinator. The Rams placed the franchise tag on safety Oshiomogho Atogwe, resigned cornerback Ron Bartell, and acquired free agents: center Jason Brown, safety James Butler, and fullback Mike Karney. With the second overall pick of the 2009 NFL Draft, the Rams selected tackle Jason Smith from Baylor University.

2010 Although the Rams did not achieve the success they envisioned on the field, Coach Spagnuolo built a solid foundation for the team to grow. On defense rookie LB James Laurinaitis became on the second rookie in franchise history to lead the team in tackles. K Josh Brown led the team in points and tied a franchise record with six field goals from 50 yards or more. P Donnie Jones became the Rams' All-Time leading punter with a 48.0-yard career gross average. In the off-season, the Rams added veteran free agents QB A.J. Feeley, LB Na'il Diggs, DT Fred Robbins, and C Hank Fraley. With the first overall pick of the 2010 NFL Draft, the Rams chose Oklahoma QB Sam Bradford. The Rams had 11 picks in the 2010 draft. E. Stanley Kroenke became the majority owner of the St. Louis Rams. Kroenke became the eighth majority owner in the team's 73-year history. The St. Louis Rams retired No. 80, the jersey number worn by wide receiver Isaac Bruce. The Rams finished the season with a 7-9 record, good for second place in the NFC.

history in career receptions. After arriving from Denver in a mid-season trade, WR Brandon Lloyd gave the offense a boost as he caught 51 passes 683 yards and five touchdowns. On the defensive side of the ball, the Rams were again paced by DE Chris Long and LB James Laurinaitis. Long recorded a career-high of 13.0 sacks while adding 15 quarterback pressures and 16 hits. For the third time in his Rams career Laurinaitis surpassed the 100 tackle mark (142). At the conclusion of the 2011 season, Coach Spagnuolo and GM Billy Devaney were relieved of their duties.

2012 Jeff Fisher was appointed as the club's 26th full-time head coach on January 17, 2012. The Rams hired Les Snead as the General Manager on February 14, 2012. Together, Fisher and Snead finalized a trade with the Washington Redskins that sent the second overall selection in the 2012 Draft to Washington. In exchange for the second overall pick, the Rams received Washington's first (sixth overall) and second (39th overall) round selections in the 2012 draft. The Rams also earned the Redskins' first selection in the 2013 and 2014 drafts. On draft day, the Rams traded down to the 14th overall pick and selected DT Michael Brockers. In Fisher's first year, the Rams finished the season with a 7-8-1 record. The team traveled to London to play in the league's international series versus the Patriots on October 28, 2012.

control of the team. Linehan hired offensive coordinator Al Saunders, quarterbacks coach Terry Shea, offensive line coach Steve Loney, running backs/assistant head coach Art Valero, and elevated Ron Milus to the secondary coach. Bob Saunders was named the offensive assistant/assistant wide receivers coach. The Rams lost their first four games of the 2008 season. Linehan was relieved of his duties. Defensive Coordinator Jim Haslett was named the head coach. The Rams won their first two games under Haslett, but lost the next 10 consecutive games. The team finished the season with 2-14 record. RB Steven Jackson rushed for 1,042 yards in 12 games and became the second running back in Rams history (Eric Dickerson, 1983-86) to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons (2005-08). P Donnie Jones established a franchise record with a 50-yard gross punting average. Jones was the second player in NFL history to record a 50-yard gross punting average, joining Hall of Famer Sammy Baugh who averaged 51.4 yards in 1940 as a member of the Washington Redskins.

2009 Rosenbloom and Rodriguez named Steve Spagnuolo as the new head coach. Spagnuolo

The six-game improvement marks the second biggest turnaround in the NFL. RB Steven Jackson rushed for 1,241 yards to earn his third Pro Bowl invitation. In addition, after rushing for 110 yards against Tampa Bay, he became the franchise's All-Time leading rusher, passing Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson. Rookie QB Sam Bradford earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors and set a new NFL rookie record for attempts and completions. Bradford finished the season with the second most passing yards by a rookie in NFL history. The seven wins were the most wins by a rookie quarterback who was chosen first in the NFL Draft. With the 14th overall pick of the 2011 NFL Draft, the Rams chose DE Robert Quinn from North Carolina.

2011 RB Marshall Faulk became the first St. Louis Ram inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The 2011 season was another one filled with milestones for RB Steven Jackson. The three-time Pro Bowler rushed for 1,145 yards, his seventh-consecutive 1,000-yard season. Jackson finished the season third in Rams history in yards from scrimmage and all-purpose yards. He finished the season sixth in Rams

Offensively, the Rams were led by RB Steven Jackson, who rushed for 1,042 yards to give him an eighth-consecutive season over the 1,000-yard mark. QB Sam Bradford set new career highs in yards (3,702), touchdown passes (21) and passer rating (82.5). WRs Danny Amendola (63rec.-666 yards-3 TD), Brandon Gibson (51-691-5) and rookie Chris Givens (42-698-3) led the way in the passing game, along with a strong second season from TE Lance Kendricks (42-519-4). On the defensive side of the ball, St. Louis tied for the NFL with 52 sacks and were tops in the league in pass play sacks. LB James Laurinaitis led the team in tackles for a fourth straight season. Rookie Janoris Jenkins led the NFL with four defensive touchdowns. K Greg Zuerlein set a new team record with seven field goals of 50 yards or more, including a team-record of 60 yards. In the 2013 Draft, the Rams traded up in the first round to select WR Tavon Austin and used their second first round selection on LB Alec Ogletree.

2013 Defensive End Robert Quinn put together one of the best seasons among pass rushers in team history. He was named to the Pro Bowl and

First-Team All Pro, and established a new franchise single-season sack record (19.0). He led the NFC and was half a sack shy of the NFL leader Robert Mathis (Indianapolis) and was also second to Mathis in forced fumbles (7). As a defensive unit, the team ranked 9th against the run, marking the first time the team cracked the top-10 in the category since 2001. The offense started the season ablaze as TE Jared Cook set a new record for most receiving yards in a season by a Rams tight end in his debut with the team. Cook caught seven passes for 141 yards and two touchdowns in the team's Week 1 victory versus the Arizona Cardinals. Quarterback Sam Bradford was on pace for the best season of his career until he was sidelined with a knee injury in Week 7 against the Carolina Panthers. In his absence, Kellen Clemens took over the reins and rookie RB Zac Stacy emerged. Stacy, a fifth-round draft selection, started in the final 12 games of the year and registered 969 yards in his first NFL season. The Rams boasted one of the NFL's top special teams units and was led by P Johnny Hekker, a Pro Bowler and First-Team All-Pro, who set an NFL single-season record with a 44.2-yard net punting average.

2014 Stan Kroenke took full ownership of the team. The Rams had 11 selections in the 2014 NFL Draft, two in the first round. With the second overall pick, via Washington, the Rams selected OL Greg Robinson from Auburn. With the 13th pick, the Rams selected DT Aaron Donald from Pittsburgh. Donald led all NFL rookies with a 9.0 sacks and earned Defensive Rookie of the Year. Third-round draft pick RB Tre Mason from Auburn led the team in rushing yards and finished the season second among NFL rookies in rushing yards. Sixth-round draft pick CB E.J. Gaines started 15 games. In 2014, Rams' rookies accounted for a total of 51 starts. Also, in the seventh round, the team drafted Michael Sam, the first openly gay player to be drafted in the NFL. Donald and DE Robert Quinn earned Pro-Bowl berths, while P Johnny Hekker earned second-team All-Pro honors.

2015 The Rams selected RB Todd Gurley with the 10th overall selection in the NFL Draft. Gurley earned offensive rookie of the year and Pro Bowl honors as he led all rookies in rushing yards and finished third among all NFL running backs in rushing yards (1,106). DT Aaron Donald earned his second Pro Bowl appearance and First-Team All-Pro honors after posting 11 sacks, 22 tackles for loss, and 49 quarterback pressures. In the secondary, CB Trumaine Johnson tied for third in the NFL with seven interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown. P Johnny Hekker finished another stellar season on his way to his third Pro Bowl trip and second First-Team All-Pro honors. Hekker led the NFL in punts, gross average, net average, and punts downed inside the 20-yard line. He's the first player to lead the league in all three categories since the NFL began tracking punts inside the 20 in 1976. On January 12, 2016, the Rams were officially approved to move back to the greater Los Angeles area for the 2016 season and beyond.

2016 One of the most significant years in franchise history, the Rams relocated back to Los Angeles, the organization's home for nearly 50 years from 1946-1994, with the move being approved on January 12. The organization began the move from St. Louis to Southern California by holding OTAs in Oxnard, followed by training camp at UC Irvine, and finally settling at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks for the regular season. Big moves continued for the club, as they traded six total draft picks to Tennessee for the first overall pick - a pick they would use on QB Jared Goff - in the 2016 NFL

Draft, in addition to the Titans' fourth and sixth-round selections. In the Rams inaugural game back at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, a sellout crowd of 91,046 was on hand to witness a 9-6 Los Angeles victory. The Red Hot Chili Peppers welcomed the Rams back to Los Angeles with a performance prior to kickoff off. Additionally, the Rams honored T Orlando Pace and DE Kevin Greene, who were members of the 2016 Pro Football Hall of Fame Class.

On Nov. 17, NFL Commisioner Roger Goodell, Rams Owner/Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke and Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts were on hand to break ground on the new L.A. Stadium and Entertainment District at Hollywood Park. Th new home for the Rams was set to be a 70,000 seat open-air stadium, the 298-acre mixed use development that would include 1.5 million square space, 1,500 residences, a hotel and more than 20 acres of public parks.

After a Week 14 match-up against the Falcons, the Rams parted ways with Head Coach Jeff Fisher after five seasons with the organization. The special teams coordinator John Fassel was named the Interim Head Coach for the remaining three games.

Following the season, three Rams were named to the 2017 Pro Bowl in Orlando, Florida - DT Aaron Donald, P Johnny Hekker, and LS Jake McQuaide. Donald became the third defensive tackle in Rams history to make three consecutive Pro Bowls. Hekker made his third career trip to the NFL's annual All-Star game and McQuaide earned the honor for the first time in his career.

2017 The Los Angeles Rams welcomed Sean McVay with the organization's first NFC West crown since the 2003 season and the franchise's first playoff berth since 2004. The Rams finished the regular season with an 11-5 record and was the league's top-scoring team, just one season after finishing as the 32nd ranked scoring team. The Rams improved from 14.0 points per game in 2016 to 29.9 points per game under McVay's guidance.

The impressive turnaround resulted in a trio of awards on the eve of Super Bowl LII in Minneapolis. DT Aaron Donald was named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, McVay was named the AP Coach of the year and RB Todd Gurley II was honored as the AP Offensive Player of the Year. This marked the first time in the awards history that one team swept the top three awards.

McVay became the fourth Rams head coach to win the league award behind Dick Vermeil (1999), Chuck Knock (1973), and George Allen (1967). Of these four, only McVay and Allen were first-year head coaches. In NFL history, McVay was the 14th rookie head coach overall to receive the award.

Donald became the first player in Rams history to earn the distinction of AP Defensive Player of the Year. His year also concluded with First Team All-Pro recognition for the third-consecutive season and he was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth-consecutive season.

Gurley led the NFL in touchdowns (19), points scored among non-kickers (114), and scrimmage yards (2,093). Gurley finished second in the league with rushing yards (1,305). Gurley became the first Ram to win Offensive Player of the Year since Hall of Fame RB Marshall Faulk took home the award in 2001. Faulk (1999, 2000, 2001) and fellow Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson (1986) were previously the only Rams to earn AP Offensive Player of the Year honors.

Playing in 14 games, K Greg Zuerlein led the league in scoring (158), spearheading a Rams special teams unit that was among the best in the league in 2017.

The Rams hosted their first playoff game in the Coliseum since the 1979 season, but lost to the Atlanta Falcons (26-13) in the NFL Wild Card round.

2018 The Los Angeles Rams (13-3) finished the season tied for the second-most regular season wins in franchise history and made the organization's fourth Super Bowl appearance.

Under Head Coach Sean McVay for his second season the Rams won its second-consecutive NFC West title. The Rams earned the second-seed in the NFC and hosted the Divisional Round of the playoffs, before clenching the NFC title in New Orleans and making it to Super Bowl LIII.

DT Aaron Donald established a new franchise record of 20.5 sacks in a single season, while recording a NFL record of 183.5 sack yards. Donald led the league in tackles for loss (25) and quarterback hits (41). He was named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year for his second-consecutive year. Following the 2018

Rams RB Todd Gurley II rushed 14 times for 101 yards, a 7.2-yard average in the Wild Card game, becoming the first Rams running back to eclipsed a 100-plus yard game in his postseason debut since Jim Gillette had 17 carries for 101 yards vs. Washington (12/16/45).

season, Donald earned his fourth-consecutive First-Team All-Pro selection. He was the only unanimous selection in this year's voting, receiving all 50 of the panel's votes as a defensive tackle.

RB Todd Gurley II led the running backs in All-Pro voting as he received 25 of the 50 votes to make his second-consecutive All-Pro Team. Gurley finished 200 yards shy of his second-consecutive 2,000 scrimmage yard season after sitting out the last two weeks of the season. He finished with 21 total touchdowns and eclipsed the second-most rushing yards per game (89.4) behind Cowboys RB Ezekiel Elliott, who was named a second-team All-Pro.

P Johnny Hekker and special teamer LB Cory Littleton earned All-Pro accolades for special teams. It marked Hekker's sixth-straight All-Pro honors and the first for Littleton after he joined the team as an undrafted free agent in 2016.
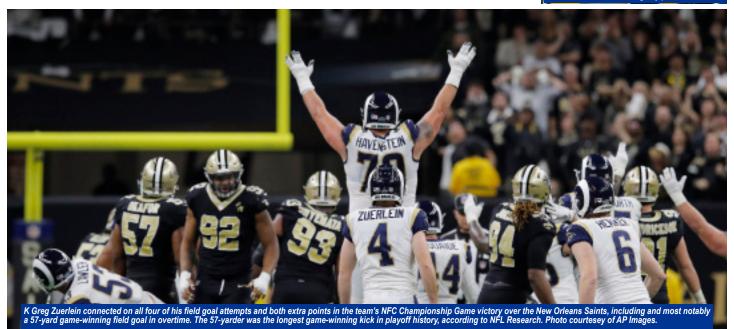

Donald, Gurley, and Littleton were joined by QB Jared Goff as the team's four Pro Bowl selections. It marked the second-consecutive Pro Bowl selection for Goff.

Goff set a career-high single-season passing yards in 2018, becoming the fourth Rams quarterback in franchise history to reach 4,000 passing yards leading the Rams to a second-straight NFC West title.

Goff completed 62.1 percent of his passes this season and threw 32 touchdowns. He posted a single-season career-best 101.1 quarterback rating and finished with 4,688 passing yards, which was the fourth-highest passing output in the NFL this season. Goff has 9,581 career passing yards and ranks eighth on the franchise's passing leaders list.

Donald became just the third player to repeat as AP DPOY, joining J.J. Watt (2014-2015) and Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor (1981-1982). A man redefining the defensive tackle position, Donald led the NFL with 20.5 sacks this season, the most by an interior defensive lineman in a single season in NFL history. The 20.5 QB takedowns tied for the fourth-most in a single season over the last 25 seasons among any position.

K Greg Zuerlein connected on all four of his field goal attempts and both extra points in the team's NFC Championship Game victory over the New Orleans Saints, including and most notably a 57-yard game-winning field goal in overtime. 2019 The Rams (9-7) finished the last season of its 38-year residency at the Los Angeles Coliseum with a winning record for the third-consecutive season under Head Coach Sean McVay.

The season saw multiple Rams record-setting performances offensively, while also identifying emerging talent on the defensive unit that stepped up in big moments.

In his third year under McVay's offensive scheme, QB Jared Goff continued his success by ending the season with over 4,000 passing yards for the second-consecutive year. Goff is the only Rams quarterback to throw for over 4,000 yards in back-to-back seasons, joining Hall of Famer Kurt Warner with over 4,000 passing yards in multiple seasons with the Rams. Goff ended the year with 22 passing touchdowns to mark his third-consecutive season with 20+ passing touchdowns.

Goff operated behind a makeshift offensive line that dealt with position changes and injuries throughout the season. Despite those challenges, the unit did not allow Goff to be sacked in a franchise-record of six games and ended the season with a league-best of 22 sacks.

For the first time since 2002, the Rams had multiple receivers eclipsed over 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. WR Robert Woods tallied 1,134 receiving yards. WR Cooper Kupp had his first 1,000-yard campaign, finishing the season with 1,161 receiving yards. Kupp also ended the year with 10 receiving touchdowns, becoming the first Ram to record 10+ receiving touchdowns in a single season since Torry Holt in 2006.

RB Todd Gurley II continued his climb up the record books throughout the season, ending the year tied for the most rushing touchdowns in franchise history with 58. He also accumulated over 1,000 yards from scrimmage for the fifth-consecutive season. Gurley ended the season with 12 rushing touchdowns, becoming the second running back in franchise history to rush for double-digit touchdowns in three-consecutive seasons.

Finshing off the season, TE Tyler Higbee became the first tight end in NFL history to post four-consecutive 100-yard receiving games while recording seven-plus catches. Higbee set the single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end (69) and receiving yards by a tight end (734).
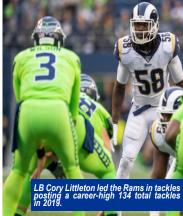

2019 was another impressive season for two-time Defensive Player of the Year Aaron Donald. The All-Pro ended his season with 12.5 sacks, recording double-digit sacks for the third-consecutive season. He also added a league-best of 20 tackles for loss, 24 quarterback hits, two forced fumbles, and recorded 48 tackles. This past season was the first time since 2012, the Rams had multiple players with double-digit sacks.

LB Cory Littleton led the team with a career-high of 134 tackles for the eighth most in the league. Littleton

QB Jared Goff ended the season with 4,638 passing yards, surpassing the 4,000-yard threshold for the second-consecutive season. Goff is the only quarterback in franchise history to do so in consecutive seasons and he joins Hall of Famer Kurt Warner as the only QBs to ever have multiple 4,000-yard seasons with the organization.

tallied 3.5 sacks, forced two fumbles, and recorded two interceptions during the season.

The Rams aquired CB Jalen Ramsey ahead of its Week 7 matchup against the Atlanta Falcons. Since joining the Rams, Ramsey tallied 33 tackles, one forced fumble, and one interception.

After joining the Rams via trade in Week 7, CB Jalen Ramsey performed at an elite level, earning his third Pro Bowl selection. In nine games with the Rams, Ramsey tallied 33 tackles (31 solo), forced one fumble, defensed four passes and one interception.

LB Cory Littleton led the Rams in tackles posting a career-high 134 total tackles in 2019.

Rams DT Aaron Donald continued his dominance in 2019, earning his fifth First Team All-Pro selection and being selected to participate in his sixth Pro Bowl. He was also named the team's Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award recipient, which goes to the team's most valuable player. Donald ended the season with 12.5 sacks, posting double-digit sacks for the third-consecutive season. He also added a league-best 20 tackles for loss, 24 quarterback hits, forced two fumbles and recorded 48 tackles.

Following a 31-24 victory over the Arizona Cardinals on December 29, 2019, the Los Angeles Rams say farewell to the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, which served as the home to the Rams for 37 years (1946-79), including their return to Los Angeles in 2016.

2020 The Rams (10-6) finished the season 2nd in the NFC West Division for the fourth-consecutive season under Head Coach Sean McVay for their first season playing at SoFi Stadium.

Due to the COVID pandemic, preseason games were cancelled, therefore the Rams only had 14 padded practices during period of training camp to prepare for the upcoming season. The league operated in the safest way possible order to ensure teams had a chance to play for during the 2020 season.

Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley stepped up to the position of play-calling on the defensive side of the ball. He expanded the defense's capabilities and gave players like Donald opportunities to make bigger and better plays.

The Rams finished their season with the strongest defense, with just 296 points allowed, the fewest amount in the league. Returning to the playoffs after coming short the previous season, the Rams defeated the Seatle Seahawks in the Wild Card Round, but lost in the Divisional Round to the Green Bay Packers.
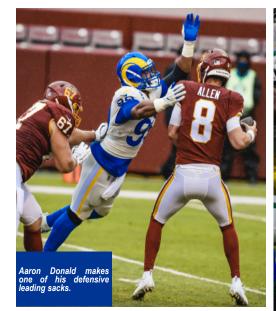

Aaron Donald dominated the team defensively with 13.5 sacks and 14 tackles for loss as he was more mobile down the line throughout the season. Unfortunately during the postseason, Donald suffered from a rib injury during the playoff game against the Seattle Seahawks.

Running back Cam Akers exceeded the Rams' expectations for their top pick in the 2020 Draft. In his standout game against the New England Patriots he totaled 29 carries for 171 yards. In the playoffs, Akers carried for 131 yards against the Seattle Seahawks. His rookie season was nothing short of successful.

Leonard Floyd finished second next to Donald with 10.5 sacks. During the season, Floyd continued to push the defense to a new level as he tallied multiple sacks in 3 regular-season games.

Jordan Fuller started twelve games as a free safety with five pass breakups, 60 tackles, and three interceptions. His flexibility on defense allowed the Rams to split safeties on the secondary while creating new coverage on defense throughout the season.

The Rams' defense carried the team througout the season, and were able to advance the team to the playoffs, improving from the previous season.

2021 The Rams (12-5) finished the season as Super Bowl LVI Champions, doing so with a winning record for the fifth-consecutive season under Head Coach Sean McVay and their second season playing at SoFi Stadium.

The season saw multiple Rams post record-setting performances while improving on their overall 10-6 record from the previous season.

In his first year under McVay's offensive scheme, QB Matthew Stafford received his highest quarterback rating of his 13-year career in the NFL (102.9). For the first time in his career, Stafford won a playoff game and totaled four playoff wins, leading the Rams to a Super Bowl victory. The Rams won seven NFC Player of the Week/Month awards that season. It began with Stafford taking home NFC Offensive Player of the Week in Week 1, after he threw for 321 yards on 20 of 26 passing attempts. He had three TDs and a near perfect passer rating of 156.1 in the win. Week 3 Stafford won the award again after throwing for 343 yards, and four TDs on 27 of 38 passing attempts.

Cooper Kupp had an historic season with the Rams as he led the franchise record in receiving yards (1,947). With 145 receptions and 16 receiving touchdowns, Kupp secured the "Triple Crown" title for the first time in NFL history since 2005. He also took home Super Bowl MVP honors following a stellar performance against the Bengals in Super Bowl LVI. He led the second place receivers in all three categories by some of the widest margins of any receiving Triple Crown winner. Kupp was 22 catches, 331 receiving yards, and two receiving TDs ahead of second place in each stat. The only other NFL players to have accomplished this feat are Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice (1990), WR Sterling Sharpe (1992), and WR Steve Smith Sr. (2005), and none of those three led any category by a margin as large as Kupp led in each.

The addition of wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. for the Rams' offense created additional explosive plays in critical parts of the playoffs. Beckham totaled 27 catches for 305 yards and five touchdowns in the regular season for the Rams, while adding receptions for 288 yards and two touchdowns in the postseason.

The Ram's offensive line finished the season as the seventh-best in the league. Stafford was only sacked on 4.83% of dropbacks during the season, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. (Pro Football Focus)

Offensive tackle Andrew Whitworth played a total of 926 snaps during the 2021 season. With a 86.1 overall grade (PFF), Whitworth helped lead the Rams on and off the field to victory as the oldest starting offensive lineman in Super Bowl history. Whitworth was awarded the Walter Payton Man of the Year at the NFL Honors due to his extensive community service and his excellence on and off the field. (Profootball Focus)

The Rams' defensive line was a force to be reckoned with throughout the entirety of the 2021 season as they constantly applied pressure. Aaron Donald led the team and was first-team All-Pro for the seventh-straight consecutive season. He finished top five in Defensive Player of the Year voting with a total of 49 solo tackles, 15 sacks, and 4 forced fumbles. Donald's pressure on Joe Burrow during Super Bowl LVI ultimately clinched the title for the Rams. After the season, Donald received a 93.6 rating. (Pro Football Focus)
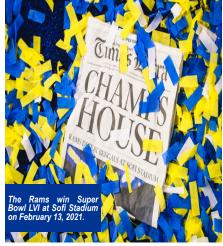

The trade for Von Miller helped add elite play at the outside linebacker position. Both Miller and Leonard Floyd helped create one of the better outside linebacker pairings in the league.

Cornerback Jalen Ramsey allowed a total of 624 yards in coverage with a completion percentage of 59.2% when targeted on pass attempts. His continued success carried him to his second straight first-team All-Pro selection and seventh-straight Pro Bowl. (Profootball Focus)

The Rams allowed the league's second-least amount of touchdowns to wide receivers with an average of one per game during the season. They finished the season with the second-fewest rushing yards as a team for any Super Bowl-winning team with 43-yards. In addition, the Rams had four players nominated to the Pro-Bowl: Jalen Ramsey, Cooper Kupp, Aaron Donald, and Matt Gay.

Ramsey, the sixth-year pro had 77 total tackles, four interceptions and 16 pass breakups in 17 regular season games this season. Donald won NFC Defensive Player of the Week performance in Week 14 that included three sacks, five total tackles (three for loss), three QB hits and a pass breakup that resulted in an interception.

The Vince Lombardy Trophy - Super Bowl LVI

2022 Los Angeles, Calif. – The Los Angeles Rams finished the 2022 season third in the NFC West division with a record of 5-12. Throughout the season, young players on the team had increased opportunities to grow and develop with a record number of injuries on both sides of the ball.

According to PFF, the Rams defense had the second-highest tackling grade (88.0) and ranked first in run defense with an 87.0 grade. During the regular season, the Rams defense also ranked sixth in the league with a 77.5 overall grade (PFF) and recorded 13 takeaways in the final 7 games.

During his first season with the Rams, LB Bobby Wagner led the team in tackles (140). He fell three tackles short of breaking the Rams single-season tackle record, set by James Laurinitis (142) in 2011 and 2012. Wagner was the highest-graded linebacker in the league last season with a ranking of 90.7 PFF grade. DB Jalen Ramsey led the Rams in forced fumbles (3) and tallied 88 tackles during the season. Ramsey was second in passes defended (18) and tied for 3rd in pass breakups (12) (TruMedia).

On the offensive side of the ball, RB Cam Akers eclipsed more than 100 rushing yards in three consecutive games to close out the regular season. He became the first Rams running back to have three consecutive 100+ yard rushing performances in the same season since Todd Gurley in 2015. TE Tyler Higbee also broke the Rams single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end (72) and became the Rams' all-time leader in touchdowns for tight ends (20). WR Brandon Powell eclipsed 1,000 all-purpose yards this season, leading all Rams players.

On special teams, Powell returned 30 kicks this season and ranked eighth in the NFL in total kick return yards. In Week 18, K Matt Gay reached 100 made field goals in his career. Gay made 28 field goals this season, the second-most for a season in his career.

With an unprecedented number of injuries, younger players on the roster were able to take advantage of opportunities. Rookie CB Cobie Durant finished the season with three interceptions, which tied for second on the Rams. In Week 16 against the Denver Broncos, Durant caught two interceptions and recorded his first career defensive touchdown on a pick-six for 85-yards. He led the league in interception return yards with 151. DT Michael Hoecht transitioned from defensive tackle to edge rusher midway through the season. From Week 12 against the Kansas City Chiefs to the end of the season, Hoecht registered 34 tackles, 4.5 sacks, and 24 pressures.

Several Rams players were recognized for notable performances during the season. DT Aaron Donald was voted to his ninth career Pro Bowl and was named an NFLPA All-Pro, voted on by the players. Jalen Ramsey was named to his sixth career Pro Bowl after replacing Philadelphia Eagles CB Darius Slay. Team award recipients included: Cobie Durant (Rookie of the Year), DB Jordan Fuller (ED Courage Block Award recipient), OT Rob Havenstein (Spirit of the Game award), and Bobby Wagner who was named the team MVP following his first season with the Rams. In Week 14, QB Baker Mayfield won the Nickelodeon Player of the Week following his fourth quarter comeback win against the Raiders after he joined the team earlier that week.
